DEATH PREVENTED HIS MARRIAGE, BUT HE LEFT FIANCEE $250,000

The accompanying photograph shows Miss Bertha Bates, of St. Louis, who received $250,000 from the estate of her fiancé, William R. Donaldson, Jr. She is a descendant of one of the first families of Missouri and is a grandchild of Edward Bates, Attorney General of the United States in President Lincoln's Cabinet, and lives with her mother, Mrs. Charles W. Bates, a widow. The family was prominent in St. Louis during the days of the civil war. Mr. Donaldson was burned while cleaning his automobile after taking Miss Bates home from an outing on October 12. He died soon afterward. Miss Bates hurried to his bedside and fainted when she saw his condition. It was arranged for them to marry that night, but the deathbed wedding was postponed until the following day, when it was thought Mr. Donaldson would be stronger. He died that day.

Court to Decide Whether They Should Increase Together Newark, N. J., Dec. 3.—Because of her increase in weight Mrs. Eva Beck, of Arlington, was in Vice Chancellor Bemy's court yesterday on the return of a rule to show cause why her husband, John E. P. Beck, of New York, should not be ordered to increase her

Enamel and Platinum

There has never been a more beautiful combination for diamond settings for Rings, Scarf Pins, Brooches, Pendants, etc., than the new Enamel and Platinum designs, which we are making up in our own shop. If you have any diamond jewelry that you would like to have reconstructed in a new design according to your own ideas we can make just what you want or we will have our designer submit drawings. While we carry a large stock of these goods on hand, and can supply almost anything you want at any time, at very reasonable prices, we will consider it a favor if you will place your order for special work as early as possible.

Henry Prime, Believed to Be Wealthy, Left Only $36,002 Henry Prime, L. I., Dec. 3.—Although believed to be worth more than $1,000,000, Henry Prime, son of Edward Prime, who years ago was known as the "Lion of Wall Street," left only $36,002.84 when he died in Hempstead last February. The transfer tax appraisal was filed yesterday. He inherited a large fortune from his father and mother.

UNDECIDED ON COSTS

Jury Could Not Decide Who Should Bear Expense of Trial After acquitting Mrs. John Miller, of Middletown, on a charge of maintaining a disorderly house, a jury in Judge Johnson's side of the continued criminal sessions failed to agree as to who should pay the costs.

A Poor Place

"And you say you almost starved to death in your last position?" said the kind housewife. "What position was it?" "I was treasurer of a poet's union, mum," replied the dusty wayfarer, with a deep sigh.—Exchange.

TOYS DURING THE FRENCH REVOLUTION

The toys of the French revolution period were characteristic of that terrible time. There are tops whose shadows cast the profile portraits of Louis XVI. and Marie Antoinette. These are turned in boxwood and are indeed interesting reminiscences of toys with the impress of history. The children of the revolution had their tiny Phrygian caps and danced the horrible carnagones in their play. Little models of the guillotine were made to "work," and

LEBANON WOMAN DIES IN HOSPITAL

Lebanon, Dec. 3.—Mrs. Mary C. Erb, widow of the late Samuel Erb, of this city, died yesterday in the Hahnemann Hospital, Philadelphia, following an operation. She was 48 years of age. Death was due to a blood clot forming in the valve of the heart. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Krause.

WAITING UP FOR HIM

"Oh, mamma, will you tell me a fairy tale, please?" "Oh, wait until your father comes home; he'll tell us both one."—Yonkers Statesman.
