By Associated Press. New York, Dec. 4.—Business in bonds on the Stock Exchange under limited regulations was continued today with light trading. Such relatively active issues as U. S. Steel 5s and New York railway adjustment 5s opened unchanged. New York City 4s of 1955 declined 3 points. Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway debenture 5s rose 1/4. Dealings in the first hour were moderately large but fell away toward noon. Rock Island issues were again the feature, advances running from a substantial fraction to two points. New York City 4s of 1955 lost 3/4 points, Wash 2nds 9 3/4, Missouri, Kansas and Texas 2nds 5 and Oregon Short Line 4s and 5s 3/4, and 4 1/4, respectively. AMUSEMENTS. CONQUEST OF THE EARTH. Man's Battle for Fruitful Fields Against Nature's Barriers. Nature has set up four kinds of barriers to man's conquest of the earth—mountains, forests, deserts, rivers. The first he cannot remove, so he bores holes through them for his railways. The second he has, most unwisely, largely cleared away altogether. The third he is beginning to treat like the forests. The fourth he is shifting to suit his purposes and to regulate their flow at will. Man then now over all boundaries. He cuts through isthmuses to remove the barriers between the seas. Into the deserts man sends railroads, telegraph lines, irrigation engineers. The Great American desert marked upon the atlases of our fathers has ceased to exist. The vast desert of northwestern Canada has become a prairie of waving wheat. The Landes of Gascony are now much more than half covered with pine trees. Over 22,000 square miles of the Algerian desert has been made fruitful by artesian wells. The Australian desert is rapidly being irrigated and turned into grazing land. Almost 70,000 square miles of desert in India have been reclaimed. Operations are now in progress for reclaiming 19,000 square miles of the delta of the Tigris and Euphrates, and more than 4,000 square miles of the Gezireh plain between the Blue and the White Nile are being transformed into cotton plantations. Thus is man by obliterating natural barriers improving upon nature. St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

AMUSEMENTS. THE LAST SHOT. Dramatic Incident That Closed the Franco-Prussian War. There was probably no incident in the Franco-Prussian war of 1870 more dramatic than that which marked its close. Herr Forckenbeck, president of the Prussian chamber of deputies was sent with a colleague to Versailles to congratulate King William upon his election as emperor. Bismarck, who had just concluded the terms of peace with France, invited them to supper and in the course of the meal said: "This night at 12 o'clock the last shot will be exchanged between our troops and the French, and I have conceded to the French the honor of the last shot." Forckenbeck and his colleague left their host before midnight, drew out their watches, stood underneath a lantern of the Hotel du Reservoir and fired a shot from the German lines; then followed the last reply from Mont Valerien. The tower clock at Versailles struck 12. The French war had ended.—Exchange.

AMUSEMENTS. WHERE RAIN IS A NOVELTY. Think of Having a Shower Only Once in Twenty-four Years! The Chilean provinces of Atacama, Tarapaca and Tana are in the rainless region of desert country west of the Andes, and are entirely devoid of vegetation. The winds in all of this region are from the east and in of this over the elevated perpetual snows of the Andes are stripped of their moisture and arrive on the coast perfectly dry. The last rain, a slight shower which fell in Antofagasta, in Atacama province, was the first rain which had fallen in sixteen years. The last rain which fell in Iquique, in Tarapaca province, was the first in twenty-four years. With both of these showers a notable phenomenon occurred. The bare hills back of these cities assumed a green tint from a little plant which sprang up almost in a night. The query is, "From where did this plant come?" The whole of the coast presents a most dismal and discouraging appearance from the sea, but the climate is healthy, being especially adapted to pulmonary and throat troubles from its extreme dryness and freedom from germs. The heat is modified by a local sea breeze, and the sea bathing is most invigorating, as the water is cold.

AMUSEMENTS. STAR-INDEPENDENT WANT ADS. BRING RESULTS. Though in Operation but a Short Period, Good Results Have Been Obtained. NAVAL BUREAU CHIEF'S REPORT. Commander Bassett Calls Attention to How Volunteer Arm of Service Can Be Improved by Making Number of Recommendations. Washington, Dec. 4.—The new militia act is working well, even though it has been in operation for a short period, according to Commander F. B. Bassett, Jr., chief of the Naval Militia Bureau, in his annual report today. On the whole, he says, the naval militia increased in numbers during the past year for while several divisions were disbanded a number were organized and the increase is expected to be even more marked during the coming year owing to the enthusiasm and interest aroused by the passage of the act. Inspectors reports showed that the naval militia, with the exception of two divisions of South Carolina, were qualified to participate in the allotment of federal funds. Several organizations are top heavy with officers and petty officers, and in many cases the rank of the officers is too high. Because of the difficulty in getting relations from naval militia officers, busy with their own affairs considerable government property is not properly accounted for and Commander Bassett recommends that at least one competent yeoman be assigned to each naval militia vessel to assist in this clerical work. He recommends also that some of the old battleships now in reserve, be assigned to a naval militia of certain states, the reserve officers and men on the ships to remain aboard while they are also occupied by the militia. The plan is for the Illinois to be taken to Brooklyn for use by the Second Battalion of the New York Naval Militia, the Maine to New York for the use of the First Battalion of the New Jersey Militia, and the Alabama to be taken to Boston for the use of the Massachusetts Naval Militia and the Kentucky to be moored in the Delaware river for the use of the Second Battalion New Jersey Naval Militia and the First Battalion Pennsylvania Militia. As the naval militia is a purely voluntary organization, made up of business and working men the time they are able to devote to naval militia matters is necessarily limited and should, in the opinion of Commander Bassett, be devoted to drills and the details of the naval profession. He asserts that they should not be expected to spend much time scaling bilges, painting double bottoms or repairing material and he recommends a considerable increase of the number of ship keepers to take care of this work.

AMUSEMENTS. DR. COAN PENNED IN THE WAR ZONE. Missionary, Who Talked in Market Square Church, Marooned in Constantinople. MRS. LABAREE WRITES OF KURDS. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Fleming Tells of Horrors Enacted by Them—Some Amusing Incidents, Too. A largely attended meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society of Market Square Presbyterian church was held in the church this afternoon, at which a number of matters pertaining to the work were taken up. During the afternoon Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones read an extract from a letter received by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Fleming, of this city, from their daughter, Mrs. Mary Fleming Labaree, who, with her husband, is in the missionary field at Tabriz, Persia, showing that the war in Europe is even affecting faraway Persia, by reason of the Turks taking part. Mrs. Labaree's letter is as follows: "Another week has brought home Mr. and Mrs. Pittman, Miss Lamme and Miss Beaber, safely from Urumia. It has also brought a cessation of hostilities in Urumia. Week before last was an anxious time for the Christians here. The Kurds swept down to the hills of Charbagh, sought their way down to Urumia last Monday and the next day would have been in the city. That very night Russian re-enforcements came in such numbers that the Kurds saw that they could do nothing and retired on Tuesday morning, the very day that our delegates returned from the annual meeting in Tabriz. "Kurd's Attack Well Organized. "The attack was so open, so organized, so different in its plan from the usual Kurdish attack that thoughtful ones are confident that Turkish or German brains directed it. Of course, the mission yards in Urumia were filled with refugees and their goods. There were many sad sights—wounded in the hospital, separated families and hundreds destitute. There were also some bits of food for laughter. "The Russian commander gave arms to the mountain Syrians, ordering them to give up their head dress so like the Kurds, for he feared that in the coming fight his soldiers might mistake the Syrians for Kurds. So these Syrians went around Urumia begging European straws, fedoras, and derbys. One strapping mountaineer had his gun over his shoulder and on his head a woman's leghorn hat. Last Sunday Miss Lewis was preaching to a group of these mountaineers who had gathered in the mission yard. The Allean's goat rushed up behind and gave her a furious but that nearly sent her prostrate. "The Kurds, before the arrival of the Russians, had burned Seir, Mar Sargis, Manaji, Allwath and Anbar. The wife and the son of our preacher were wounded. A Kurd threw one woman to the ground and held down her head, meaning to blow out her brains. Just as he fired she jerked her head away and the bullets struck her chest causing her to lose four fingers. Just then help arrived and she was taken to our hospital. "Our delegates to the annual religious conference at Urumia almost lost their lives on the lake there. No one on board thought for a moment that they would be able to make land. Waves rushed over the deck of the tug and the keel showed. "Coan Family Marooned. "When last we heard of the Coan family they were marooned in Constantinople. We have to pay 28 kronas for a pair of very inferior shoes for Robert. He has plenty in our trunk at Constantinople which the Coans were to bring us—but when we shall be able to get it now no one can say. The store's stock of many foreign articles is very, very low now and prices are extremely high. Of course we are affected as is every one around us by this horrible war."

AMUSEMENTS. MRS. LABAREE WRITES OF KURDS. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Fleming Tells of Horrors Enacted by Them—Some Amusing Incidents, Too. A largely attended meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society of Market Square Presbyterian church was held in the church this afternoon, at which a number of matters pertaining to the work were taken up. During the afternoon Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones read an extract from a letter received by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Fleming, of this city, from their daughter, Mrs. Mary Fleming Labaree, who, with her husband, is in the missionary field at Tabriz, Persia, showing that the war in Europe is even affecting faraway Persia, by reason of the Turks taking part. Mrs. Labaree's letter is as follows: "Another week has brought home Mr. and Mrs. Pittman, Miss Lamme and Miss Beaber, safely from Urumia. It has also brought a cessation of hostilities in Urumia. Week before last was an anxious time for the Christians here. The Kurds swept down to the hills of Charbagh, sought their way down to Urumia last Monday and the next day would have been in the city. That very night Russian re-enforcements came in such numbers that the Kurds saw that they could do nothing and retired on Tuesday morning, the very day that our delegates returned from the annual meeting in Tabriz. "Kurd's Attack Well Organized. "The attack was so open, so organized, so different in its plan from the usual Kurdish attack that thoughtful ones are confident that Turkish or German brains directed it. Of course, the mission yards in Urumia were filled with refugees and their goods. There were many sad sights—wounded in the hospital, separated families and hundreds destitute. There were also some bits of food for laughter. "The Russian commander gave arms to the mountain Syrians, ordering them to give up their head dress so like the Kurds, for he feared that in the coming fight his soldiers might mistake the Syrians for Kurds. So these Syrians went around Urumia begging European straws, fedoras, and derbys. One strapping mountaineer had his gun over his shoulder and on his head a woman's leghorn hat. Last Sunday Miss Lewis was preaching to a group of these mountaineers who had gathered in the mission yard. The Allean's goat rushed up behind and gave her a furious but that nearly sent her prostrate. "The Kurds, before the arrival of the Russians, had burned Seir, Mar Sargis, Manaji, Allwath and Anbar. The wife and the son of our preacher were wounded. A Kurd threw one woman to the ground and held down her head, meaning to blow out her brains. Just as he fired she jerked her head away and the bullets struck her chest causing her to lose four fingers. Just then help arrived and she was taken to our hospital. "Our delegates to the annual religious conference at Urumia almost lost their lives on the lake there. No one on board thought for a moment that they would be able to make land. Waves rushed over the deck of the tug and the keel showed. "Coan Family Marooned. "When last we heard of the Coan family they were marooned in Constantinople. We have to pay 28 kronas for a pair of very inferior shoes for Robert. He has plenty in our trunk at Constantinople which the Coans were to bring us—but when we shall be able to get it now no one can say. AMUSEMENTS. LATE WAR NEWS SUMMARY. Continued From First Page. In the war there were similar interruptions of news dispatches which proved later to have been due to tight censorship during the progress of vital events. For several days it has been intimated unofficially that another great battle in Belgium and Northwestern France was pending. The forces of the allies in that region have been strengthened and the assumption of supreme command there by the English general, Sir John French, was believed to indicate that the new English army recently sent to the continent had been scattered along the Yser in Belgium and in Northern France, perhaps in preparation for a great attack. It has been assumed by some military critics that the allies on this occasion would take the offensive, since the Germans presumably were weakened by the withdrawal of troops for use in the campaign against Russia. Others have stated, however, that Germany had determined to make a "last effort" to push through to the English channel. Germany has resumed the offensive in the East and is striking another blow at Russia. Although authenticated reports pictured the situation only in the vaguest outline, it was apparent that the Germans, who only a few days ago were fighting desperately to avert a calamitous defeat, are now renewing their efforts to sweep back the enemy. A new battle has developed southwest of Lodz, where the Germans have formed another line and are again attempting to piece the Russian center. The forces of Emperor William thus are operating at a comparative advantage with the beginning of their third assault. Their first invasion of Poland, which took them almost to Warsaw, was followed by a retreat to German territory. The second movement was checked near Lodz, but on this occasion they succeeded in holding their main positions, so that now the attempt at a forward movement is initiated by forces already firmly fixed on Russian soil. Steelton Girl Has Appendicitis. Miss Claire Flannagan, 547 North Third street, Steelton, was operated on this afternoon at the Harrisburg hospital for appendicitis. Amounts to the Same Thing. Two young Clevelanders met on the street. One of them said: "Well, I understand that our old friend Griggs has gone and married a wife." "It's not true. I understand nothing of the sort." "What?
