ANNOUNCEMENT

To My Friends and the Public Generally: Having just purchased the Daron Printery, one of the oldest job printing plants in the borough, but also one of the most modern in equipments, I intend to consolidate my original plant, the Horvath Printery, at 159 South Front street, with it, which will enable me to fill all orders for anything in the printing line with promptness and satisfaction.

With thanks to all who have patronized me in the past I would most respectfully solicit a liberal share of your trade in the future. MICHAEL J. HORVATH, 50 N. Front Street, Steelton, Pa.

stable James W. Haines, South Second street. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Boyd, who were married in Carlisle November 28, returned from their honeymoon trip last evening.

Standard Theatre's Offerings The program for the show this evening at the Standard Theatre as announced by Manager Sellers is replete in all that makes for a first-class bill of entertainment and is worth several times the price of admission. There will be seven full reels of drama and comedy finely intertwined.

STEELTON NOTES

The bazar held by the First Reformed Sunday school in the market house last evening was a success and a song sum was realized for the church repair fund.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Baldwin Hose Company, No. 4, was organized Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. John Bingham, 394 South Second street. Candidates for officers were nominated and the auxiliary will hold its first election early in January in the parlors of the Baldwin fire house.

Mrs. Pearl Gephart, alias Pearl Boyd, of Harrisburg; Nikolo Jovanovic, Dusan Despot and George Ivkov, of the borough, furnished bail before Squire Gardner last evening for their appearance at court to answer serious charges. They were arrested by Detective Durnbaugh.

TENER'S GUESTS DEPART

Announced That Politics Was Not Discussed at Meeting of Penrose, Oliver and Armstrong With Governor

Owing to the absence of Republican State Chairman Crow, State Highway Commissioner Bigelow and Secretary of the Commonwealth McAfee, the conference to consider conditions of western politics, which was to have been held at the Executive Mansion last night, was not held, and it is said that it will be held later.

Senator Penrose came up from Philadelphia early in the evening and joined Senator Oliver and Mayor Armstrong, of Pittsburgh, who had arrived during the afternoon, and the party dined with Governor Tener at the Executive Mansion. Senator Penrose returned to Philadelphia after a few hours spent at the mansion. Governor Tener said that there had been no discussion of politics in any way, nor was the matter of legislation affecting the west considered.

In the course of his conversation with the newspaper men who called to learn the purpose of the meeting, Governor Tener referred to his retirement from office one month from now and said he will never again accept political office, although his interest in politics will be as keen as ever. He expressed himself as much pleased with his political experience, and referred proudly to the work of his administration, especially the formation of the Public Service Commission, the department of Labor and Industry and the road-building work that has been started and which will be ready for completion under his successor.

WHITMOYER-GRAULEY Wedding Took Place at Home of Bride in Minersville Jerome Hite Whitmoyer, of the borough, and Miss Laura L. Grauley, of Minersville, were married Thursday at the parsonage of the Minersville Methodist church, by the Rev. J. E. Grauley, its pastor, and father of the bride.

Mr. Whitmoyer is employed in the engineering department at the steel plant here and is a graduate of the High school. Mrs. Whitmoyer lived here while her father was pastor of the first Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. Whitmoyer will be at home after December 15, at 36 South Harrisburg street.

PREPARING DEDICATION PLANS

Services Will Be Held in New Building on January 8 Prof. L. E. McGinnis, superintendent of the borough public schools, under direction of the school board, is preparing elaborate plans for the dedication of the new Hygienic school building, which will take place, January 8. These exercises will be held in the afternoon. The Douglas Association, composed of colored alumni of the High school, will hold an entertainment and banquet in the new building in the evening and many out-of-town members of the association are expected to be present.

WILL PARADE NEW YEAR'S DAY Triangle Club Will Take Part in Mummies' Demonstration One of the first local organizations to announce its intention of taking part in the Mummies' parade at Harrisburg, New Year's Day, is the Triangle Club, composed of members of Steelton Lodge, No. 411, Knights of Pythias. Fifty members, strikingly uniformed in red and white, are expected to take part in the demonstration and this crowd is practicing fancy drills which will be used in the line of march.

Elected New C. E. Officers The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of St. John's Lutheran church elected the following officers at its annual meeting, held last evening: President, H. E. Rupp; vice president, Miss M. M. Dress; secretary, Mrs. Withers; treasurer, Miss Mary Alteman; corresponding secretary, Miss Mabel Rupp; organist, Mrs. A. N. Laffer. The members of the society have separated into groups to carry on a campaign for members. Prizes will be awarded to the workers.

Literary Society Officers The Literary Society of the Highspire High school elected the following officers at a meeting held yesterday afternoon: President, Raymond Duncan; secretary, Kathryn Wolf; critic, Anna Mummus; curators, Blanche Gore, Rachel Etter and Hilda Weaver.

Central Club Adopts Resolution to Be Sent to Brumbaugh—Nominations of Officers Made

At a meeting of the Central Democratic Club held in the club rooms last night nominations were made for which officers for the ensuing year will be elected. Edward Moeslein was the only nominee for president, Charles W. Erb for treasurer and Harry D. Reel for secretary. For vice president S. M. Taylor, Arthur C. Young and Henry Opperman were named. There were four nominations for the three members of the executive committee—McClellan Koons, O. J. Bogen, D. K. Young and R. P. McGann. Out of thirteen nominees for house committeemen, seven will be selected. The nominees are Reese Crowell, James B. Maul, Charles Moeslein, William M. Holler, D. K. Young, James G. Miles, Al Peger, Charles Dutton, C. B. Shanno, Harry A. Vollmer, H. A. Phillips, Howard W. Jones and F. W. Huston.

A resolution was offered by T. K. VanDyke requesting Governor-elect Brumbaugh to urge the passage of an act forbidding assistance to voters in marking a ballot unless the voter is physically incapacitated from marking his own ballot. It is as follows: "Whereas, An honest election is the desire of all patriotic citizens and such an election cannot be obtained if voters entirely competent to mark their ballots are taken into the booths and their ballots marked, or if other frauds against a pure ballot are perpetrated by the voter bringing from the booth a clean ballot to be marked, and the plan continued, or any other corruption whatever is practiced to debauch the ballot;

"And, Whereas, Governor-elect Brumbaugh has pledged himself to an honest administration of State affairs; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Central Democratic Club of Harrisburg earnestly request Hon. Martin G. Brumbaugh to urge in his inaugural address and message to the Legislature, and to final passage, an act to prohibit, under severe penalties, the taking of any voter into the voting booth unless he is physically disabled, viz.: blind, or both arms off, and the bringing from the booth a blank ballot for the aforesaid manipulation of any other kind or kindred. That a copy of this resolution be sent to Hon. Martin G. Brumbaugh, and to the president of the State Federation of Democratic Clubs, with the request to the latter that he bring this matter to the attention of all the Democratic clubs in the State, to the end that they take similar action."

WHO OWNS THE EAGLE? Attorney General's Department Called in to Help Determine Dispute in Mifflin County

The State will be called upon shortly to prove that an eagle is a wild bird within the meaning of the law which forbids any one to shoot or have in his possession such bird. The law of 1909 says that it shall be unlawful for any person to kill "any wild bird other than a game bird." Some time ago a man in Mifflin county killed a fine eagle and had it stuffed and mounted. This coming to the knowledge of two State game wardens they went to the man's house, confiscated the eagle and arrested the man for killing the bird. The eagle was brought to Harrisburg and placed in the State museum at the Capitol. The man who killed the eagle brought suit against the wardens, charging larceny of the bird, claiming that it was his property when he paid his fine for killing it, and the case was heard before a Lewistown justice yesterday. The District Attorney for Mifflin county appeared for the prosecutor against the wardens and argued that not only did the eagle belong to the man who killed it, but that it was not a wild bird within the meaning of the law.

The justice of the peace did not look upon it in that way and discharged the wardens. Forthwith the man who killed the eagle went to another justice of the peace and brought another suit and threatened to bring one against Secretary Kaibfus, of the State Game Commission, who was present.

The District Attorney again appeared for the prosecutor and the wardens gave bail to appear in court.

Dr. Kaibfus has obtained the services of Deputy Attorney General Harjes and the matter will be fought out in court. Meanwhile the stuffed eagle reposes in the State museum.

BEAUTIFUL CUT GLASS

It would be impossible for us to try to tell you of the thousands of beautiful new pieces of Cut Glass in our crystal room. It should be enough when we tell you that the factories of whom we buy have surpassed all their previous efforts in getting out new and artistic designs this year and we have unhesitatingly bought until our crystal room is filled to overflowing, believing that we will surpass all previous years in sales of this beautiful ware. Seeing is believing. Come in and see.

FAIRYLAND TRIP IS VERY EXCITING

Story Book Characters Are Transplanted to Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart's "Toyland"

ST. NICK IS THERE IN ALL HIS GLORY

He Learns From Fairy Princess What Good Little Harrisburgers Want for Christmas and Then Sends His Santa Clauses On Joyful Mission

Through the whole gamut of Fairyland, teeming with story book characters until finally Santa Claus summons his hundreds of little Santa Clauses to carry his toys to the good boys and girls in Harrisburg, is a trip well worth seeing. All the beings direct from Mother Goose's classic are given in true form in the three-act, six-scene production in a "Trip Through Fairyland" on the fourth floor of Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart's store.

The first performance was given this afternoon at 2 o'clock and another will be given this evening at 7.30 o'clock. Stopping seats have been arranged so that all can see. They will accommodate 200 persons. Not alone will the entertainment please the kiddies, but it will please the grown ups as well. There is none of the spectacular about this year's show as in the past two years, it is just fairyland transplanted from fiction and placed in tangible form for entertainment. A schedule for the shows to be given next week has not yet been arranged.

A cavern is disclosed to the sight when the curtain goes up. It is inhabited by horrible beings, salamanders with near human faces, frogs presenting the same general make-up and other things too numerous to mention when presto, the scene changes to the home of the princess with all the little elves darting about paying homage to the princess. In this scene the princess is dressed in as expensive a costume as the store could provide and it took an experienced artisan two days to fashion her clothes.

King Cole next does a specialty before a front drop. The king is a merry old soul and he calls for his pipe and bowl and fiddlers just as the poem says he does. "Nursery Rhyme Land" comes next. Here it is that the play reaches its climax. All of the story book characters from the mouse in the clock to the cow that jumped over the moon are near human faces. Frogs presenting the same general make-up and other things too numerous to mention when presto, the scene changes to the home of the princess with all the little elves darting about paying homage to the princess. In this scene the princess is dressed in as expensive a costume as the store could provide and it took an experienced artisan two days to fashion her clothes.

You just have to shiver at the next act with its icy mountains, polar bears and northern lights. Here it is that the Christmas saint summons his little Santa Clauses and hands them the presents for the good boys and girls. You know Santa Claus knows just what all the boys and girls wanted for the princess and her elves told him about it in the second act. He took down voluminous notes in a big book.

The play is the work of Joseph Seltzer, the store decorator. He has been working on the production for months. The lighting effects are splendid, reaching a climax in the last scene when the mountains give way to gaily decorated Christmas trees. Kris Kringle stands in all his glory in the center while the snow falls, giving plenty of the beautiful to carry the sleighs of the Santa Clauses, who by this time are galloping over the frozen wastes to Harrisburg.

HEAVY DROP IN PORK PRICES

Big Corn Crop Made Fattening of Hogs Easy and Cheaper

Omaha, Dec. 5.—Prices of fresh pork have dropped five cents within the last week and packing house men in South Omaha say there will be a further drop next week. The decrease is due to the extremely heavy run of hogs and to the prospects of still higher receipts.

The big corn crop, which is practically all gathered, made the fattening of hogs easy and cheaper. Pork chops dropped from 20 to 15 cents and hams from 22 to 17 1/2 cents. Bacon, which can be shipped to the war zone, remains at present prices.
