Three warrants charging arson have already been lodged against the accused and several more expected to-day. Deputy State Fire Marshal Wunder, of this city, is the prosecutor in the present case, and in the information alleges that the accused set fire to the hall of a lodge of which he was a member on November 3. Records and equipment of the organization were destroyed, entailing a loss of $500. One warrant charges the accused with trying to burn down his home and the other with being responsible for a blaze which destroyed household goods at a residence he formerly occupied two years ago.

LANCASTER TOBACCO MARKET

Disappointment Over Volume of Orders for the Holiday Trade

Lancaster, Dec. 7.—The holiday trade has proved a great disappointment to Lancaster county's leaf tobacco dealers and cigar manufacturers alike, for the liberal orders that were expected from retailers failed to come, and the only reason assigned in the quillness of business generally around Lancaster, where industrial plants of various kinds are operating on short time.

With the cigar factories slack, it followed that the leaf market would be dull out of sympathy, light factory orders meaning a light call for leaf tobacco. The trade has now settled down to the conviction that it will be useless to look for any revival of business until after the holidays.

The packers have now finished sampling their 1913 goods, and they are pronounced to be good burners, of pleasant bouquet, and very likely to prove acceptable to the trade. But while some inquiries have been made about this tobacco very little has been sold, not enough of it to establish a price standard.

Lately there has been some more selling of the 1909 tobacco, the prices being from 8 to 9½ cents a pound. Old goods, 1911 and 1912, the little selling, brought from 14½ to 16 cents a pound. The growers appear to be in no hurry to strip the new crop, though there has been enough moist weather to permit of the handling of the tobacco in the shed, practically all of which is now through curing. That cut earliest has the best color. The tobacco not cut until towards the end of the twelve-weeks' drought failed to take the rich brown tone so much desired by cigar manufacturers. And it is next to a certainty that there will be no buying of the crop until it is stripped.

BEAR RISES TO STRIKE HIM

Unarmed Man Is Quick to Take Hint and Sprint

Pottsville, Pa., Dec. 7.—A big black bear on the second mountain below Schuylkill Haven was nearly successful in ending the life of William Hinkle yesterday. Hinkle was walking along the road to Boyer's Mill, when he heard an unusual noise in the mill pond.

Just as he got to the edge of the water to investigate, the bear dashed through the bushes at him, and was so close that it stood on its hind legs to strike him. Hinkle succeeded in escaping, and summoned aid.

The bear was tracked some distance by hunters, but the trail was finally lost.

PYROMANIC ARRESTED

Reading Police Say Youth Held Has Started Many Fires

Reading, Pa., Dec. 7.—Obsessed with a mania "to see the fire engines run," so the police assert he confessed, Elmer Sprecher, 29 years old, prominent lodge and church worker, taken into custody here yesterday, is alleged to have conducted a wholesale campaign of incendiarism during the last two years, involving half a dozen fires, resulting in losses aggregating several thousand dollars.

The person whose name is nearest the mark will be given absolutely free of charge two reserve seats, which will be good at the Orpheum on a date which will be announced with the name of the person to whom they are awarded.

The announcements will be HIDDEN among the Want, Lost, Found, For Rent, For Sale, etc., ads, but will be so plain that any one can easily find them.

Look! Look! Start To-day. Read Over the Classified Columns Every Evening. Perhaps Yours Will Be There

Someone was awarded two tickets to-day. Find out who got them. If you were not lucky this time perhaps your turn will come next. It will be a lot of fun following up the winners.
