The Drawing Contest Has Proved An Exhibition of Art

Anyone making a special trip to the display of Santa Claus drawings (on the fourth floor) will find their visit well rewarded.

There are over seven hundred and it must be said that most of the work is surprising, considering the children's ages.

We feel that the drawing instructions of the public schools are due a compliment if this work is the result of school training, and same may be said of private instructors.

Every visitor is asked to cast one vote in order to determine which ten children shall receive the handsome prizes.

HOLIDAY TRIP TO BERMUDA

A Worth While Vacation During the Christmas Season

It is not generally appreciated that it is possible to take a holiday vacation around the Christmas season which will embrace both an ocean trip to a peaceful island and a delightful period ashore and at the same time permit of a return to the United States within eight days of the time of leaving. This, however, is what a trip to Bermuda means and at this season of the year, this fairland of nature is in the fullness of its beauty, the gorgeous floral array and brilliant sunshine inviting one to a morning dip in the ocean at a time when the North is enveloped in zero weather. Few people realize that Bermuda is but two days from New York by way of swift palatial ocean steamers and that tourists may embark on the day after Christmas, be in Bermuda in two days time, indulge in the most eventful week of their lives and arrive back in New York after a total interval of eight days with renewed vigor ready to do battle with the severe winter climate of the States.

Aside from the delights of the short ocean voyage, all sorts of pleasures may be crowded in the delightful week spent in Bermuda which may include the pleasurable recreations of riding, driving and bicycling over the world's finest coral roadways, white and smooth as enamel, which wind their way through scenes which form a veritable fairland of beauty; or tourists may indulge in golf, tennis, sailing, swimming or fishing in water which rivals the sapphire for its beauty and crystal clearness, or view the marvelous caves and sea gardens, or indulge in the numerous dances, parties, etc., at Bermuda's famous hotels which range from the modest to the palatial.

Even a limited vacation spent in Bermuda will renew tired minds and bodies as nothing else can and the low cost of this delightful trip which may be arranged for with the Quebec Steamship Company, New York, on a plan which includes all expense, covering steamships, hotels, shore excursions, etc., makes the cost seem insignificant in contrast with its benefits.

CONNECTICUT STORM-SWEPT

Telephone and Telegraph Communication Throughout State Paralyzed

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 8.—The worst wind and sleet storm that Connecticut has experienced since 1907 yesterday almost paralyzed telephone and telegraph communication throughout the State. Some cities were completely cut off from communication and others were reached with difficulty. It will be five days before normal conditions will be restored, the telephone company estimates.

All shipping is at a standstill. Considerable damage is reported to summer cottages along the shore by unusually high seas.
