FRANK HAS ONLY ONE CHANCE

Highest Court Against Him, He Must Look to Governor

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 8.—Refusal of the United States Supreme Court yesterday to grant a writ of error for review of the case of Leo M. Frank brought an announcement from Solicitor General Hugh M. The Solicitor General will appear before Superior Judge Benjamin H. Hill to-morrow and ask the court for a writ directing that Frank be produced for resentencing. Judge Hill then is expected to set the time for bringing the prisoner into court.

DEMOCRATIC QUARTERS HERE ARE REDUCED TO 2 ROOMS

Main Offices Have Been Removed to Philadelphia but Will Be Brought Back to This City When the State Fight Starts in 1916

To all intents and purposes, so far as the transaction of business is concerned, the Democratic State Committee headquarters in the Spooner building, Market Square, are closed. And yet they are not closed, for there will always be somebody in charge, and when the big campaign of 1916 opens up the Harrisburg State headquarters will again be opened and the work all done there.

When State Chairman Morris was here last week he announced that the State headquarters would be removed to Philadelphia, to occupy offices at 147 South Broad street, which served as a branch headquarters during the campaign that closed on November 3. Arrangements were at once made for the removal, and all of the books, papers and part of the office equipment, including former Secretary Jim Blakelee's easy chair; the desk of State Chairman Morris and various other historical impedimenta, were shipped to Philadelphia. That was the extent of the moving. Since 1892 the State headquarters of the Democratic committee had always been located in Harrisburg.

The rooms in Market Square have all been given up but two—there were eight at one time—and these will be occupied by Secretary Warren Vanduyke, who intends to retain his residence in Harrisburg. He seeks the position of Collector of General Revenue, which he is said to have a right good chance of getting. The Philadelphia headquarters will be in charge of Robert T. Keenan, of that city. The Harrisburg headquarters will always be open, with some one on hand to hand out information, if there is any to hand out.

The next regular meeting of the Democratic State Committee will not be held until June, 1916, when a new State Chairman will be elected, but the State Chairman, under the rules, can call a special meeting at any time he sees proper. Mr. Morris will, therefore, be the State Chairman until June, 1916. As there will be no state officers to elect in 1915 the committee will not be over crowded with work. In 1916 the State headquarters will be removed back to Harrisburg to take up the work of the Presidential campaign.

She Won't Believe It

We don't suppose that it will ever be possible to convince a woman that a neat little round hole in the sitting room rug, where a small amount of ignited tobacco happened to fall, merely serves to make the place look home-like.—Ohio State Journal.

Does it burn just the way you desire?

Will the fire come up quickly in the morning and give an intense hot fire?

Or are you required to coax it along with wood and wait and wait, and wait for the stove to get hot?

PEARLS FOUND IN GUTTER

New York, Dec. 8.—The $10,000 pearl necklace lost by Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt last Friday was recovered yesterday. It was found by J. J. Collins, a clerk in the New York Central offices, Friday afternoon in the gutter. He carried it in his pocket three days. He had no idea of the value of it. When he read the advertisement he took it to Mr. Vanderbilt's office in the Grand Central building and recovered a reward of $500, the amount promised.

The necklace was lost from a cab in front of the Ritz-Carlton hotel.

This plea of the "inevitableness of war" reminds one of the old fashioned explanation of an automobile accident that it "could not have been avoided."
