A number of Yuletide parties are being planned by and for the young folks who will be home from the schools and colleges and it looks as if the younger brothers and sisters of the debutantes will have quite as good a time as the debutantes and big brothers themselves.

Mrs. Robert C. Williams, of 1616 North Second street, has issued invitations for a dance at the Country Club, on "the night before Christmas" for Miss Arta Williams, and the guests she will entertain during the holidays.

The debutantes of the season and the younger members of the dancing set will attend the dance which will be given this evening by Dr. and Mrs. Henry M. Stine, at their home, 21 South Front street, complimentary to their guest, Miss Montandon Morris, of St. Joseph, Mo. The decorations will be American Beauty roses and Christmas greens.

To Attend Dinner in New York
Mrs. James Henry Darlington, first vice president of the Council of the Society of Pennsylvania Women, and Miss Eloise Bergner are among the Harrisburgers who will attend the dinner of the society to be given co-jointly with the Pennsylvania Society of New York to-morrow night in the Waldorf-Astoria, New York City.

Mrs. Rollin Alger Sawyer and Mrs. F. Herbert Snow poured tea at the annual Christmas sale of Trinity Guild of St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal church, which is being held this afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock in the parish house. Home-made cakes, candies and goodies of all kinds are being sold, as well as fancy articles suitable for gifts.

A dance will be given at the Country Club Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. F. Herbert Snow complimentary to Miss Louise Carney, one of the season's debutantes.

Met at Home of Miss McCormick

A meeting of the Red Cross division of the Harrisburg Home and War Relief Committee was held yesterday at the home of Miss Anne McCormick, 301 North Front street. The work of this department, which will be very extensive, was outlined and discussed. Some of the members yesterday spent some time in the Blough Manufacturing Company's plant, learning the method of sorting garments and obtaining other information essential to the work which will be carried on. The Blough Company will cut all the garments to be made.

Each division will have its own room and its own desk, and later on an information bureau will be established, thus preventing any confusion. The executive committee will meet every Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Members of the Red Cross division will sell home-made candy on the opening night of the Belgium week at the Orpheum and if the venture proves successful, the other divisions will select nights and do the same.

The Red Cross division committee includes: Miss Anne McCormick, chairman; Mrs. Carl B. Ely, vice chairman; Mrs. Ross A. Hickok, Mrs. John E. Fox, Mrs. George G. Kunkel, Mrs. John C. Stine, Miss Gemmill, Mrs. John Fox Weiss, Miss Mary Robinson, Mrs. Morris E. Jackson, Mrs. Richard M. H. Wharton, Mrs. J. B. McAlister, Mrs. Orville W. Hickok, Miss Kathleen Westbrook, Mrs. Roy G. Cox, Mrs. Carl W. Davis, Mrs. John Campbell, Mrs. Cameron S. Young, Middletown; Mrs. Robert H. Thomas, Jr., Mechanicsburg; Mrs. G. A. Bell, Camp Hill; Mrs. Sterling Dauphin; E. Z. Gross and George W. Reilly.

To Count Vote at Engineers' Club

To-night will be a big night at the club house of the Engineers' Society of Pennsylvania as the ballots for the annual election of officers will be counted. These ballots are coming in from members all over the State and it is expected that there will be a big attendance of members to hear the results. The announcement will be made about 8:30.

The society is electing a full set of officers. Farley Gannett, chief engineer of the State Water Supply Commission, is the only candidate for president. There are interesting contests for other officers.

In addition to the election the program for the night includes talks on "Europe When the War Broke Out," to be given by Dr. John Price Jackson, Commissioner of Labor and Industry, and president of the society, and George F. Watt, president of the Elliott-Fisher Typewriter Company, both of whom were in Europe when hostilities started. There will also be a collation.
