Sometimes Happens So
The family had gone off for their holiday in a taxi. Twenty minutes later the taxi snorted back up the road.

"Forgotten the tickets!" cried a neighbor.

"No," said the irate householder, "but my wife's just remembered that she's left a kettle boiling on the gas stove."

He dived into the house and came back the next moment with a ghastly calm on his face.

"All right now!" said the neighbor cheerily.

"Right! I'd forgotten that I'd turned the gas off at the meter, and now we've two hours and a half to wait for the next train."—Glasgow Dispatch.

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 2nd, 1914.
To Jane Ettinger (lately of Baltimore, Md.):
Take notice that by virtue of the act of assembly in such case made and provided, The City of Harrisburg, on February 10th, 1912, filed its claim in the court of Common Pleas of Dauphin county, to No. 263, M. L. D. 3, against all persons who have or claim to have an interest in the Twelfth ward precinct of Harrisburg, Dauphin county, Pennsylvania, bounded on the north by Hamilton street; on the east by a four feet alley; on the south by property of Geo. J. Leib estate, and on the west by Third street; and on the southeast corner of Hamilton and Third streets, and having a frontage along Hamilton street of one hundred and eight feet, more or less, and a depth of fifteen feet, more or less; owned by Annie E. Boles, John Wagner, John Wagner, Edward J. Wagner, Charles W. Wager, Jane Ettinger, Carrie E. Wagner Barrymore and Mary Jane Rowley.

That said claim was filed for the paving and curbing of Hamilton street in the Twelfth ward precinct, in front of above described property; that the amount of the assessment for which said claim was filed, and the amount of interest thereon, and the amount of said claim has been paid; and that the whole is still due and remains a lien against said property.

Now, you are hereby notified to file your affidavit of defense to said claim, on or before the 15th day of December, 1914, at the office of the prothonotary of our said Court within fifteen days after December 16th.

If no affidavit of defense be filed within said time, judgment may be entered against the respondent and other owners in common for the whole of said claim remaining unpaid, and the property described in the claim be sold to recover the amount thereof.

Witness the Honorable George Kunkel, president judge of our said court, this 14th day of December, 1914.
HARRY C. WELLS, Sheriff.

BELGIAN WEEK IS DRAWING CROWDS

Evening Crowds Almost Cause "S.R.O." Sign at the Orpheum Box Office

BESSIE WYNN A HAPPY ACTRESS

She Has Taken to Skating on Wildwood Lake and Is More Pleased Every Day That Manager Hopkins Bought Her Out in New York

While afternoon crowds are above the average, evening crowds continue to tax the seating capacity at the Orpheum theatre this week in the campaign to make as happy a Christmas as possible for the Belgian war sufferers. The actual work done by the Rotary Club, which is managing the week at the playhouse, is showing up at the box office.

Many tickets sold by the members of the club are being transferred for seats. Every possible exchange agreement for tickets sold outside has been made at the Orpheum so far and persons have been generally satisfied, but ticket holders are asked to make reservations early for the remainder of the week.

The cold weather is bringing a lot of patrons to the Orpheum for the entertainment but it is hard to believe that in so doing that it is aiding a worthy charity. Even the boy who buys a gallery seat is helping the cause. Prospects are bright for a considerable sum to be turned into the Belgian Relief Fund by the Women's Home and Foreign Aid Committee, through which committee the contribution will be made.

Next to the managers of the week, the happiest person is probably Bessie Wynn, the dainty singer on the Orpheum bill. She scanned the evening papers and saw that skating at Wildwood Park was the prospect to-day and when she verified it this morning she could not be restrained. Skate she must and skate she did.

The managers were considerably worried this afternoon that she would not turn up in time for the matinee, but she allayed their fears.

She is sincerely thankful that Manager Hopkins searched her out on his booking trip to New York and is having as much fun here skating at Wildwood Park and singing the Rotary Club "anthem" as any other actor on the bill. Miss Wynn will take good care that her booking agent includes Harrisburg on her itinerary next season.

REACTIONARY MOVEMENT FEATURES MARKET TO-DAY

International List Evinces the Greatest Weakness—Baltimore and Ohio Reading Also Share in the Losses—Trading Very Dull

By Associated Press.
New York, Dec. 16.—Wall Street—Reactionary tendencies were again uppermost at the opening of to-day's stock market, the international list evincing greatest weakness. Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Canadian Pacific, St. Paul, U. S. Steel and Smelting soon fell under yesterday's lowest quotations. Baltimore and Ohio also shared in the declining movement together with Reading and some less prominent stocks. Practical gains were scored by some of the coppers, but amalgamated pursued an uneven course. Prices strengthened on moderate buying orders, but the undertone continued uncertain.

Trading felt to very small proportions soon after the opening, the total business of the morning session being less than half that of yesterday's corresponding period. Prices rose and fell
