

Christmas Gifts
What We Say It Is, It Is
'I Wish Santa Would Bring Me A Watch.'
Hamilton Watches, $17.00 up
Elgin Watches, $7.00 up
Waltham Watches, $7.00 up
Howard Watches, $35.00 up
Gruen Verithin Watches, $25.00 up
Bracelet Watches, $5.50 up
DIENER THE JEWELER 408 Market Street

REVIEW OF 1914 BY PROF. WERT

Continued From First Page.
business growth of the city and its suburban towns during the year.

A HEAVY DEATH ROLL

All records of a year's events in a community must contain the names of many citizens cut down by death. In every month of 1914, honored and representative men and women of Harrisburg and its contiguous territory joined the silent host. Amongst the men once potential in the affairs of Harrisburg and Dauphin county whose deaths are here recorded, appear such well-known names as, Ex-Governor Beaver, Judge Nathaniel Ewing, the Rev. Jesse Bowman Young, the Rev. Joel Schwartz, John V. Boyd, Lyman J. Gilbert, Prof. Shinnell, the Rev. Thomas T. Everett, Dr. Paul Hartman, Dr. John W. Moffitt, Dr. Albert F. Brandt, Dr. Alvin I. Miller, Ex-Sheriff William Sheehy, Joshua W. Jones, the aged Andrew J. Dull, John S. Lynch, John P. Fritchey, Albert R. Sharp, Captain John C. Harvey, Maurice C. Eby, John Froehlich, Darwin G. Fenno, Josiah P. Ryan, Harris C. Palmestock, Harry M. Holstein, George V. Cori, John G. Willis, Abraham Boak, Samuel Poorman, Geo. W. Barnes, Jeremiah K. Greanawalt, George M. Groff, and son, Edward L. Groff, Jere B. Rex, Dr. Thomas G. Fox and J. Paul Nissley, of Hummelstown; Frank Caum, of Seranton, Ira Buser and Solomon Zimmerman, of Highspire; Charles DeVeney Row, of Williamsport; Henry Cordes, of Millersburg; Shell A. Reome, of Penbrook; Joseph L. Nissley, of Middletown; Ellisworth McDaron, of Steelton, and Vernon R. Minnis, the universally beloved Harrisburg letter carrier.

In the list will be found also the names of many noble women who shed a light on life's pathway by their work in the spheres of religious, educational and charitable activities. Perhaps the saddest thing in the motary record is the large number of veterans of the Civil war who, during 1914, answered the last roll call. Sixty-four names are here given against forty-eight in each of the preceding two years. The Grand Army is rapidly becoming a vanishing army.

Here is recorded the death of a Steelton woman who had passed her 104th milestone on earth, whilst 14 persons whose deaths are here given, were between 90 and 100 years of age; and 62 between the ages of 80 and 90.

THE SUICIDE AND ACCIDENT LIST

Eight homicides are recorded in Harrisburg and its vicinity or of Harrisburg citizens temporarily living in another locality are recorded here, and one legal execution, the last for Dauphin county, according to the law now in force. Suicides reach the appalling number of 20. One of these was because the man who took his life had been refused naturalization papers, and others were for reasons equally trivial.

This rushing unbidden into the presence of the Maker is one of the saddest features of present day life. The compiler of this record proposes, in the near future, to present to the public a series of "Studies in Suicide." If they are the means of leading even a single person

"To reach the ill he has. Rather than fly to others he knows 'not of.'"

There is another sad feature in this record. During the year 57 persons, in this locality were found dead in bed, or dropped dead on the street or at their daily avocations. The heavy death toll in this direction is partly due to the modern pace of rush and hurry. It, too, may be made the subject of a future series of papers.

Of the 107 fatal accidents of the year, given in this list, the toll of the railroads was 21. Some of these were faithful employees who met death in the line of duty; some, citizens who met death at crossings or on the tracks. Street cars brought death to one person; automobiles to 8. Burnings were fatal to 6, while falls of various kinds were fatal to 19. One person was frozen to death, one electrocuted, three died of asphyxiation, five from poison accidentally taken, two from electric discharges, nine by drowning, five by explosions and one by the accidental discharge of firearms.

Of nineteen deaths from miscellaneous accidents, generally of men at work, twelve were the result of being crushed in mines or quarries or by machinery of some character. One death is credited to starvation, one to the excessive use of ice cream, one to swallowing false teeth and one to ten days of incessant hiccupping after violent exertion, whilst the farm mower comes in for one lone victim. The above figures seem to indicate that there still is plenty of room for the "Safety First" movement.

RECORD OF FIRES IN 1914

Harrisburg, thanks to its efficient firemen, has again been surprisingly free from destructive conflagrations. But thirteen fires in the city, during the past twelve months seemed of sufficient importance to be chronicled here, the most spectacular being the destruction of the State printing office, at Court and Cranberry streets, although there were also some others in the business heart of the city that would have been very disastrous had they not been so intelligently handled by the brave volunteers of our fire department. In fires Penbrook, Lemoine, White Hill (the duck farm) and other adjacent towns appear to have suffered more heavily than the city itself.

The destruction of barns in the adjoining rural sections has been unusually heavy, twelve being recorded here, not inclusive of many barns burned up during the heavy electrical storms of July 10 and August 20. The saddest feature is that, in a number of these barns, a large amount of live stock also was destroyed.

The annual list having closed with December 18, 1913, to make this chronicle complete and continuous the principal events of the closing days of December, 1913, are also given.

DECEMBER, 1913

- 19-Death of Robert M. Robinson, 219 North Second street, Harrisburg, a veteran of the Civil war.
20-Death of Mrs. Clara L. Snyder, 1605 North Second street, Harrisburg.
20-Clayton T. Blocher, 2140 Penna street, Harrisburg, died as result

- 1-A successful mummies' parade given in Harrisburg.
1-Formal opening of Harrisburg's new Free Public Library.
1-Shamrock Fire Company, of Harrisburg, gave a banquet at the dedication of its new chemical engine.
2-Largely attended meeting of Central Pennsylvania Alumni Association of Princeton held in Harrisburg.
2-Death, at Hampton Soldiers' Home, of Frazier M. Cleandennin, a Harrisburg veteran of the Civil war, aged 85 years.
2-Dedication of the new Church of God building at Green and Cuyler streets, Harrisburg.
4-Sudden death of Michael Gruber, a prominent citizen of Highspire.
4-Mrs. Jane Lewis found dead in bed at 22 Adams street, Steelton.
5-John Miller, of New Cumberland, fell dead on steamboat that was taking him to his work at Steelton.
5-Death of a nine-year-old boy, of Monroe street, Harrisburg, from an excessive use of ice cream three days before.
5-Death of John Hoover, an Allison Hill meat dealer.
6-Hops Fire Company, of Harrisburg, celebrated its centennial.
6-Death of Frederick Breckenmaker, of Hummelstown, aged 87 years.
7-Ether Stanfield, of Harrisburg, died from effects of poison taken with suicidal intent one week before.
7-Death of Daniel Riegle, 1413 North Fourth street, Harrisburg, a veteran of the Civil war.
7-Sudden death of Henry H. Moser, 44 North Seventeenth street, Harrisburg, a steel plant foreman and prominent in band activities.
7-W. B. Steinmetz, of Harrisburg, a motive power official, P. R. R., killed on Rockville bridge whilst in line of duty.
7-New Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce organized to replace defunct Board of Trade.
8-Death of a 4-year-old Enola boy from burns received three days before by igniting a match which he found while playing.
8-Death of W. H. Howlen, P. and R. agent at Steelton.
8-Death of John F. Fritchey, of 902 North Third street, Harrisburg, aged 85 years, who was the engineer of the first locomotive which ran on the Northern Central R. R. and who was long prominently connected with the activities of the city.

8-Death of Mrs. Sarah O'Toole, 212 Mulberry street, Harrisburg, from burns received three days before, at her home from a falling lamp.

8-Death of Charles H. Hutcheson, aged 79 years, a prominent citizen of Middletown.

12-Death of ex-Sheriff William Sheehy, of Ninth and Hemlock streets, Harrisburg, for many years very prominent in the politics and business of the city.

12-In a conflagration at the Children's Industrial Home, Harrisburg, the building saved from destruction by excellent work of the Harrisburg firemen.

12-Death of Amos Shultz, 1921 Penna street, Harrisburg, a retired engineer, P. R. R.

13-Three frame buildings on South street, in the Capitol Park extension district, destroyed by fire.

13-Lineman Irvin Snyder died from the effects of a fall received the day before whilst at work at Third and North streets, Harrisburg.

13-Death of Lewis Paganelli, 132 1/2 Bailey street, Harrisburg, the first Italian to engage in business in Harrisburg in Civil war days.

13-Death of Captain Henry W. Smyser, 424 Hummel street, Harrisburg, a veteran of the Civil war.

14-A yearly conference of representative "Bull Moosers" of Pennsylvania, commenced in Harrisburg for the formulation of the party's plans for the campaign of the year.

14-With zero weather Harrisburg firemen fought successfully a serious fire in the heart of the business district at the wholesale store of Wait & Bro. Co., 26 South Third street.

15-Helen Ring Robinson, of Denver, only woman in U. S. holding position of State Senator, spoke in Harrisburg on female suffrage.

15-Five-year-old Antonio Buglio, of 315 South River street, Harrisburg, drowned in the Susquehanna whilst sliding on the ice.

15-Death of Harry A. Hoopes, 302 Cumberland street, Harrisburg, a veteran of the Civil war.

15-Annual meeting of Pennsylvania Federation of Historical Societies held in Harrisburg.

16-Distressing death of a young mother, Anna Donner Clark, 416 Boas street, Harrisburg, two days after giving birth to a child.

16-Death of William H. Crook, 1403 North Third street, Harrisburg, a veteran of the Civil war and for many years a Capitol policeman.

16-Sudden death of Gertrude Saunders, at 317 Forster street, Harrisburg.

16-Death of Harry J. Downs, of Steelton, a draftsman Penna. Steel Co.

17-Death of Mrs. Mary Spain, of Harrisburg, aged 75 years, from the effects of a fall down stairs, January 5.

18-Death of Danjel Ulrich, 42 North Eighteenth street, Harrisburg, aged 71 years, ten days, after death of his wife.

20-Trakeman George R. Dissinger, of Rutherford, killed on an overhead bridge whilst on his run on the P. and R.

20-At a Philadelphia meeting of the Tri-State Baseball League C. F. Carpenter replaced as president by G. H. Graham.

20-William Chubb, of Steelton, found dead in bed.

21-Death of Frank G. Blessing, 108 South street, Harrisburg, the third of the brothers of the family to die within a few months.

21-Death of David Hepford, 411 Maclay street, Harrisburg, a retired engineer P. R. R., and one of the founders of the Fifth Street M. E. church.

22-Death of John S. Lynch, 224 North street, Harrisburg, aged 90 years, twice Recorder of Dauphin county and prominent in its politics for many years.

22-Mrs. Warren McCurdy, 1342 North street, Harrisburg, fell dead at her home.

22-Death of Emanuel Holtz, of Mechanicsburg, aged 91 years.

22-Death of Baggage-master William A. Pelton, 67 North Eighteenth street, Harrisburg.

22-Cemetery Sexton Joseph Yeager, residing near Middletown, committed suicide.

23-Death of Mrs. Catharine Shoemaker, widow of George J. Shoemaker, 1013 Green street, Harrisburg.

24-Sudden death, at 428 Market street, Harrisburg, of Ramsey T. Kepner, formerly a celebrated ball player.

24-Death of Jacob Friskey, of Harrisburg, from effects of a fall received some time before.

24-Death, in Harrisburg, of Miss Christine Stewart, for many years a prominent missionary worker in several cities.

24-Death, in Reading, of Walter F. Hanlen, a former Harrisburg merchant.

25-Seventy-year-old Augustus Poolman, 1011 South Ninth street, Harrisburg, died from effects of a fall.

26-Annual meeting, in Harrisburg, of Pennsylvania State Poultry Association.

27-John M. Bittner, 39 Palm street, Harrisburg, committed suicide.

28-In Carlisle, a veteran of the Civil war choked to death by swallowing his false teeth.

28-Death of George D. Sellmyer, 1944 North Sixth street, Harrisburg, engineer F. and M. works.

30-Post 58, G. A. R., Harrisburg, held memorial services for deceased comrades of 1913.

31-Death, at Bellefonte, of General James A. Beaver, a judge of the Penna. Superior Court and ex-Governor of the state.

31-Senior class Philadelphia High

ARAW, SORE THROAT
Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole
And MUSTEROLE won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard-plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out all soreness and pain.
MUSTEROLE is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. There's nothing like it for quick relief for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Colds on the Chest (it often prevents Pneumonia). Nothing like MUSTEROLE for croupy children.
At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.
Be sure you get the genuine MUSTEROLE. Refuse imitations-get what you ask for. The Musterole Company, Cleveland, Ohio.

FEBRUARY

- 1-Second Reformed church of Harrisburg celebrated the semi-centennial of its organization.
2-Philadelphia Chocolate Co. paid nearly $100,000 to employ as their share of the profits of the preceding year.
2-An Austrian, of 1705 North Seventh street, Harrisburg, killed at Division street crossing, P. R. R.
2-Death at Rome, Bradford county, Penna., of Andrew J. Whitney, for twenty years a resident of Harrisburg and prominent in its activities whilst he was the resident engineer of Penna. Canal Co.
2-Allen K. Cupples, of Enola, committed suicide by shooting, dying the following day.
4-School secretaries of the State met in Harrisburg and effected a permanent organization.
4-Death, at Berksburg, of ex-County Commissioner John W. Deibler.
5-School Directors' Association of Pennsylvania began annual session in Harrisburg, Harry A. Boyer, president of the Harrisburg School Board, was elected president of the State body.
5-Death of John Rathfon, 2231 Logan street, Harrisburg, aged 90 years.
5-Annual anniversary of Christian Endeavor Society of Harrisburg and vicinage held at Bethlehem Lutheran church, with about 2,000 in attendance.
6-Death of Miss Rachel Todd Briggs, 324 North Second street, Harrisburg.
7-Samuel W. Meas, aged 18 years, of Fort Hunter, died from injuries accidentally received whilst working at Balance-Grojan works, Harrisburg.
7-Schoolmasters' Association of Central Pennsylvania opened its annual session in Harrisburg.
7-$10,000 fire on Briggs street west of Seventh, Harrisburg, in which seven horses were burned to death.
7-Death, at Harrisburg hospital, of Louise Krouse, aged 90 years.
7-Adam S. Rider, of Hummelstown, 60 years of age, committed suicide.
8-Postoffice and hotel at the village of Dietrich, near Elizabethville, destroyed by fire.
8-Death of Charles W. Swartz, a grocer at 344 Muench street, Harrisburg, from injuries received in a fall a few days before.
8-Death of James M. Christman, a prominent citizen of Fort Hunter, aged 75 years.
9-Word received in Harrisburg of the death of Mrs. D. C. Newton Dubs, for 13 years a prominent missionary worker in China.
9-North Hinton, aged 32 years, killed in an accident at a Pennsylvania Steel Company, Steelton.
9-Death of Mrs. Sarah Dougherty, 2607 North Sixth street, Harrisburg, aged 80 years.
10-Meeting in Harrisburg of Pennsylvania State Editorial Association and its allied associations, representing, respectively, the dailies and weeklies of the State.
10-Secretary officials of Pennsylvania met in Harrisburg and effected a State organization.
10-Death of Mrs. Mary A. Shope, of Oberlin, aged 80 years, from the effects of a fall.
11-Death of Amos J. Plummer, 1407 Regina street, Harrisburg, a telegrapher, P. R. R.
11-Death, at 1611 Logan street, Harrisburg, of Mrs. Elizabeth Gruber, of Dauphin, aged 83 years.
12-Death, in Philadelphia, of the widow of Simon Cameron Wilson, who died in 1886, whilst Mayor of Harrisburg.
12-Death, at 428 North alley, Harrisburg, of Mrs. Drusilla Galer, aged 87 years.
13-Martha Hoke, an 18-year-old girl, residing near Boiling Springs, crushed to death by a freight train whilst on her way to work.
13-Following several days of intense cold, came a blizzard which produced the first heavy snow of the winter.
14-John Walker, 228 Charles street, Harrisburg, celebrated his ninety-first birthday.
14-Death of John E. Miller, 609 Briggs street, Harrisburg, aged 83 years, for 50 years an employee of the P. R. R.
15-An unidentified man found dead on a dump near the Harrisburg Pipe and Pipe Bending Works.
15-Death of Mrs. Margaret Wallick McCullough, 1202 North Second street, Harrisburg, aged 85 years.
15-Market Square Presbyterian Sunday school, Harrisburg, celebrated its ninety-eighth anniversary.
16-Two men killed by gas explosion in a Williamstown colliery.
17-Harrisburg lodges, Knights of Pythias, celebrated the golden jubilee of the order.
17-Death, at Harrisburg hospital, of Brakeman Chester Moyer from injuries received two days before in the Rutherford yards whilst in the line of duty.
17-Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Free,

1827 Park street, Harrisburg, celebrated the golden anniversary of their wedding.
18-Death, at her home near Rutherford Station, of Mrs. Margaret Brown (Elder) Rutherford, wife of J. Q. A. Rutherford.
18-Death of Herbert D. Bolton, mechanical expert of the Elliott-Fisher Co., Harrisburg.
18-Death of J. T. Simens, 1308 Penna street, Harrisburg, a former city policeman.
18-Death of John K. McIlhenny, of Steelton.
19-Several men seriously injured by a fall of rock in a Williamstown colliery.
19-Death of Mrs. Harriet Miller, 1739 North Sixth street, Harrisburg, aged 87 years.
19-Death at Gettysburg of Prof. Aaron Shaeely, for 24 years County Superintendent of Adams county and prominent in many educational conventions held in Harrisburg.
20-Annual convention of State Association Penna. Beekeepers began its sessions in Harrisburg.
21-R. A. Lee, 663 Briggs street, Harrisburg, found frozen to death in the rear of his home, having been rendered unconscious by a fall.
21-Henry Wert, a prominent livery man of Millersburg, died at Harrisburg Hospital from injuries received by a fall on an icy pavement two weeks ago.
21-Post 116, G. A. R., Harrisburg, held memorial services for the deceased comrades of the previous year.
22-Pine Street Presbyterian Sunday school, Harrisburg, celebrated its 56th anniversary.
23-A second heavy snow storm and blizzard caused great discomfort and impeded traffic.
24-The City Council of Harrisburg ripped out of office the Park Superintendent, Assistant Fire Chief, two sergeants and eleven patrolmen of the police force, the resolution by which this was done having been for days a subject of city-wide discussion accompanied with much asperity.
24-The occupants of fifty-one Steelton houses notified to vacate in consequence of an extensive intended expansion of the Penna. Steel Co.'s plant.
24-The Harrisburg Park Commission, retained in an advisory capacity by the City Council, resigned in a body in consequence of the removal of Superintendent Forrer.
25-Engineer George M. Huston, 437 Verbeke street, Harrisburg, instantly killed by a passing passenger train at Branch intersection.
25-Leading "Bull Moosers" of the State held a second conference at Harrisburg to agree on candidates for State offices.
25-After a period of intense cold, the Sequehanna, at Harrisburg, closed sold for the first time in two years.
26-At a Great Council of the various tribes of Red Men in Harrisburg, held in the army, more than 300 candidates were initiated, prominent members of the order from many other cities being in attendance.
26-William W. Ulerich, a member of Penna. H. of R. from Westmoreland county, witnessed in a Pittsburgh sanitarium.
26-Death of Mrs. Emma J. Gotta, 1332 North Third street, Harrisburg, an active temperance worker.
26-Death of C. L. Hale, for many years a prominent business man of New Cumberland.
27-Death of Dr. John W. Moffitt, aged 79 years, for many years a prominent dentist in Harrisburg and Philadelphia, and a veteran of the Civil war.
27-Death of Jacob Behm, of Rockville, aged 87 years.
28-"Batch" McDevitt delivered fair of Reilly Hose Co., delivering a unique address.
28-Death of Mrs. Elizabeth Sharon, of Steelton, aged 14 years.
28-Death of George Hain, 421 South Thirteenth street, Harrisburg, aged 57 years.

To Be Continued To-morrow

RACE BETTING HIS DOWNFALL

Shortage of John W. Baldwin Said to Be $45,000
Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 18.-His mania for betting on horse races, it was stated by a director yesterday, was responsible for the downfall of John W. Baldwin, the former teller of the Liberty National bank of this city, who was arrested here last night, charged with embezzlement. The warrant for Baldwin's arrest was sworn out by National Bank Examiner Silas H. L. Cooper, after an examination of Baldwin's accounts had been made.
Although Baldwin is nominally charged with having taken only $14,000 of the bank's money, it was stated by officials of the institution last night that his shortage so far uncovered totals $45,000, and is expected to double that amount when a full investigation has been made. His speculations cover a period of five years.
Although earning but $125 a month, the defaulting teller sported a $6,000 foreign motor car and is said to have lived in princely fashion.
Baldwin is married and has one daughter. It was his betting of heavy

Sues Litzitz for $10,000

Litzitz, Pa., Dec. 18.-Miss Ruby R. Williams has entered suit against the borough of Litzitz to recover $10,000 damages for permanent injuries sustained by a fall on an alleged defective pavement some months ago.
Bitter Lady Lytton
In "Unpublished Letters of Lady Bulwer Lytton to A. E. Chalon, R. A." the editor slips in the following when referring to S. C. Hall's impressions of Lady Bulwer Lytton:
"Mrs. Hall was Irish, and Lady Lytton had no partiality for her compatriots. On one occasion her husband entertained Daniel O'Connell and other Irish members at dinner, and S. C. Hall relates, 'The next day I saw Mrs. Bulwer directing some arrangements in the dining room, which she told me she was fumigating in order to get rid of the brogue.'"

Delicate Girls and Women are too often dosed with drugs when their blood is really starved. They need that blood-strength which comes from medicinal nourishment. No drugs can make blood. SCOTT'S EMULSION is a highly concentrated blood-food and every drop yields returns in strengthening both body and brain. If you are frail, languid, delicate or nervous, take Scott's Emulsion after meals for one month. No Alcohol.

TOYS
Special 23-Inch Sleeping, Full Jointed DOLLS, With Shoes and Stockings . . . 98c
Also a large stock and complete line of Imported and Domestic Toys which our display will prove. You are invited to inspect them. Popular priced.
HEAGY BROS. OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL XMAS
1204 N. 3rd St.

Globe-Wernicke Sectional Bookcases.
For Christmas, give a few Globe-Wernicke sections or many. The cost is small in comparison to the satisfactory and enduring nature of such a gift.

D. W. Cotterel
Book Seller, Stationer, Office Furniture and Supplies
105 N. Second St.
Telephone: Bell 2126, United 371

10 Per Cent. Discount ON ALL JEWELRY UNTIL XMAS
To completely close out all of our large stock of Jewelry and Novelties for the holidays we will give
A Special Discount of 10 Per Cent. On All Purchases From This Date Until Christmas
Diamonds, Watches, Clocks, Silverware, French Ivory, Novelties, etc. Highest quality guaranteed. Lowest prices.
J. D. BRENNER
Jeweler and Diamond Merchant
No. 1 North Third Street