HAS BEEN A LONG SUFFERER

Girl Who Just Left Hospital Now Has Diphtheria. Waynesboro, Dec. 22.—Miss Emma Sulanke, daughter of Julius Sulanke, Ridge avenue, who has spent much time in Baltimore hospitals recently because of nervous and other afflictions, has fallen a victim to other misfortunes. She went to a Baltimore hospital ten weeks ago for treatment for an ulcer on her right eye. This ulcer was cleared away and she was contemplating spending Christmas with her home people here, when, Wednesday, last, another ulcer developed on the same eye. Saturday she was taken ill with diphtheria and removed from her boarding house to the Sydenham hospital, the municipal hospital for contagious diseases. Her family knew that she was suffering from a cold, but had no intimation that it was serious.

Students Are Planning Reunion

Gettysburg, Dec. 22.—Former pupils of Miss Mary McClellan's school, for many years a private school in Gettysburg, are planning a reunion for 1915, in which an effort will be made to have return as many as possible of her scholars who attended during the period from 1865 to 1882. Miss McClellan's school was conducted in the little building on East High street which has frequently been used for similar purposes. It is proposed to hold the reunion in this building and it has been suggested that it be held either in April at the time of the 175th anniversary of the Presbyterian church or in June, immediately following the college commencement. The leading spirits in the movement to gather the former pupils are Miss Virginia McCurdy, of Bellefonte; Charles S. Duncan, Gettysburg; and David McConaughy, of New York City.

Brakeman Fell Down Steps

Chambersburg, Dec. 22.—George Rupert, a Chambersburg Valley brakeman, of town, met with what might have proved to be a very serious accident yesterday when he fainted and pitched head first down the steps into the Rhinehart barber shop on North Main street. He soon regained consciousness and was carried to the Preiser cigar store nearby, where he soon recovered.

Dr. Samuel D. Shull was called and gave medical aid. It was found that no bones were broken. Rupert was badly bruised and shaken up, but did not appear to be suffering from any internal injuries.

Double Wedding at Parsonage

Gettysburg, Dec. 22.—Miss Edna May Wagner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wagner, of Straban township, and Merritt G. Rouzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rouzer, Guernsey, were married Sunday evening at 6 o'clock at the Lutheran parsonage in Biglerville by the Rev. C. F. Floto. At the same time, at the same place and by the same minister Miss Mary Beamer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beamer, of Straban township, and a former teacher in the public schools of the county, was married to Irvin Guise, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Guise, Butler township. The double ceremony was witnessed by a few friends.

Home Robbed of $35

Hagerstown, Dec. 22.—Saturday night between 7:30 and 10 o'clock the home of Oscar Thompson, Frederick street, was ransacked and from $30 to $35 in money taken. Nothing else was disturbed, although all the bureau drawers, chiffonier drawers and closets were searched. Entrance was gained by some person or persons climbing over the side of the banisters and thence to the roof.

50 NABBED AS NIGHT RIDERS

Charged With Trying to Boost Cotton by Terrorism

Marietta, Okla., Dec. 22.—Fifty alleged members of night riders' organizations of Love county have been arrested in the last three days, it was announced by the authorities here. It is alleged the organizations sought to hold cotton to 10 cents a pound, cottonseed to $15 a ton and to cut next year's cotton acreage to 50 per cent. of this year's.

SLAIN BY A BROTHER

Shot Fired in Defense of Mother, Attacked in Quarrel

East Stroudsburg, Pa., Dec. 22.—Howard Demund was killed last evening by his brother, John, at the home of their father, S. N. B. Demund, at North Water Gap. Demund recently escaped from Rittersville asylum and several days ago arrived at his father's home. He attempted to kill his mother in a quarrel and the brother fired the fatal shot in defense of the mother. Demund has been deranged for years.

Ends Dry, Hoarse or Painful Coughs Quickly

The prompt and positive results given by this pleasant tasting, home-made cough syrup has caused it to be used in more homes than any other remedy. It gives almost instant relief and will usually overcome the average cough in 24 hours.

Get 2 1/2 ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) from any drug store, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This makes a full pint—a family supply—of the most effective cough remedy at a cost of only 54 cents or less. You couldn't buy as much ready-made medicine for $2.50. Easily prepared and never spoils. Full directions with Pinex.

The promptness, certainty and ease with which this Pinex Syrup overcomes a bad cough, chest or throat cold is truly remarkable. It quickly loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes a painful cough in a hurry. With a persistent loose cough it stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the annoying hacking.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in gualic acid and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

OPPENHEIM WILL FILED Four Daughters Inherit $500,000 Estate; Son Is Omitted. New York, Dec. 22.—The will, filed yesterday, of Albert D. Oppenheim, former member of Oppenheim, Collins & Co., who died on December 3 in Berlin, omits his son, Charles J., from any share in the estate of about $500,000. Mr. Oppenheim's wife, Mrs. Mary Oppenheim, was to have received the income from the entire residuary estate for life, but she died before her husband. The daughters, Mrs. A. N. Cohen, Mrs. Matilda Cora, Mrs. Albert Saxe and Mrs. Felix Fould, now fall heir to the residue.

A bequest of $40,000 to Abram Oppenheim, of Philadelphia, a deceased son, goes to his children.

WANT TO SELL TROLLEY LINE Receivers of Sunbury and Susquehanna Ask Court's Permission. Sunbury, Pa., Dec. 22.—Receivers for the Sunbury and Susquehanna Railroad Company, a $1,000,000 corporation operating trolley lines between Selingsgrove, Sunbury and Northumberland, applied yesterday to the Northumberland county court for an order of sale. Argument will be heard January 8.

The road is nine miles long and went into the hands of receivers last May. It has defaulted in interest payments and has unpaid bills of more than $100,000.

Man Shot by a Boy. Scranton, Pa., Dec. 22.—Ejected earlier in the night from a shack in which Lackawanna cut-off workmen were quartered, Andrew Plumbezo, 16 years old, returned at an early hour yesterday morning and killed Paolo Marino, a blacksmith, who had put him out in the cold. The boy went to another shack and told a group of laborers about it. He said he pressed a revolver close to Marino's temple while he slept and fired. The boy was arrested.

Department Store Burns. Huntingdon, Pa., Dec. 22.—Fire of unknown origin destroyed the large department store of Joseph S. Harpuro at Broadtop City, this county. Loss on the building and contents is $30,000, covered by insurance.

West Easton Boy Drowned. West Easton, Dec. 22.—Eight-year-old Edward Holloway, of this place, was drowned in the Lehigh river, a short distance from his home, when he broke through thin ice.

SUB-STATION OF GREAT VALUE

P. O. Branch Help in Getting Out Heavy Deliveries. Due to the bad weather yesterday it was necessary for the postoffice officials to put another wagon on the parcel post delivery. It was declared yesterday that parcel post shipments are far heavier this year than they were for this period last year. Almost 200 sacks of mail had accumulated at the parcel post sub-station, in the Donaldson building, and at the postoffice since Saturday.

The great value of the sub-station is realized when a person considers how efficiently the deliveries are being made this year, and authorities say that if it were not for this station it would be impossible to get out the shipments.

TO HOLD ANNUAL RECEPTION Y. M. C. A. Will Have "Open House" on New Year's Day. "Open house" and a public reception from 11 a. m. until 5 p. m. will be the feature of the Young Men's Christian Association's sixtieth annual New Year's celebration to be held on Friday, January 1, 1915. A special invitation is extended to men of the city who are out of employment to accept the association's hospitality.

A gymnasium exhibition and a basketball game in honor of the visitors will be given in the afternoon under the auspices of the physical department. New Year's Eve will be given over exclusively to the members and their friends, when the annual entertainment will be given. DeWitt Paxton, humorist, of New York, has been engaged for the occasion. Admission will be by ticket only.

HOW THE GERMANS BOMBARDED FRENCH VILLAGE

BRITISH cavalryman, writing home from France, says—"I have had occasion to thank God three times for as many escapes from death. The first was when we were forced back by artillery fire. A shell fell right under my horse, but failed to explode, being probably what is called an overtimed shell. Anyway, it was an escape. The next time was when we were shelled out of a village. My horse was grazed by a fragment of shrapnel and lamed, and a sharpshooter missed me, but the bullet went through my rifle bucket and flattened itself on the nozzle of my rifle. The third time was when we had a most trying time in a village and were bombed by eight German guns. The houses were demolished like packs of cards, but Providence looked after us, and after six hours of mental agony we had to retire one by one across a pontoon bridge; the other bridge had been blown up by the Germans. The flimsy bridge was subjected to an awful fire, but with the loss of a few men we got clear, and the General complimented us on our absence of panic."

LEG BREAKS SEVEN TIMES. Third Christmas Occasion When This Man Was Crippled. Darby, Dec. 22.—Running on slippery streets here yesterday to catch a trolley car, William H. Harmer, of Germantown, 48 years old, a salesman for a Chestnut street store in Philadelphia, fell and broke his right leg.
