Checks Croup Instantly

You know croup is dangerous. And you should also know the sense of security that comes from always having Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in the house. It cuts the thick mucus and clears away the phlegm, stops the strangling cough and gives easy breathing and quiet sleep. Take it for coughs, colds, tickling throat, hoarseness and for bronchial and la grippe coughs. Contains no opiates. Every user is a friend. George A. Gorgas, 16 North Third street, and P. R. R. ### BISHOP CANNOT QUIET BABIES

Crying in Austin Home Disturbs Them, Nearby Residents Say.
Albany, Dec. 24.—Crying babies in the Frances Elliott Austin Infant Home, founded by the late Anthony N. Brady, not only disturb the residents in the vicinity of the home, but tend to decrease the value of the property, according to George H. West, superintendent of the law and order department of the New York Civic League. Superintendent West made this complaint to the Right Rev. Bishop Burke yesterday and asked that a remedy be found to stop the crying.
"Babies have been crying since the world was created," the Bishop is reported as replying, "and I believe that I will have a mighty difficult time in putting a stop to such an ancient custom."

The home is a hobby of Bishop Burke. He recently turned over to it $20,000 which the clergy of Albany presented to him upon the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination as a priest.

CHEER UP, BANK CLERKS!

Reserve Board Won't Prohibit Your Christmas Bonus
Washington, Dec. 24.—The Federal Reserve Board announced yesterday that "payments of additional compensation" to national bank employees at Christmas time would not constitute a violation of the reserve act.
The opinion was awaited with keen interest by bank employees in all parts of the country, for they had been dismayed by a report that the board would prohibit the Christmas largesse annually distributed by the banks.
After formulating this opinion the board adjourned over the week-end.
