NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD

HARRISBURG SAW A GREAT YEAR OF SPORTS IN 1914

Central Pennsylvania Baseball League Opened and Senators Copped Flag in Tri-State—Tech Had the Better of Scholastic Sports

The year 1914 in sports hereabouts was a big one. There were several upsets in scholastic games and two new projects have been started that are bound to continue for years to come.

Foremost and of the greatest importance was the establishment of the Central Pennsylvania League of Baseball Clubs, embracing Middletown, Highspire, Steelton and New Cumberland. Not only was the league started, but it went through a remarkably successful season for its first one and now it is firmly established. Plans are now afoot to make it better for next season.

A largely-attended and greatly-spiritual prayer meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Roddy, Third street, last evening.

Miss Marion Wolf visited at Hanover, New Oxford and Gettysburg.

GIANTS AFTER FARM

May Purchase Syracuse Club to Train Players

The New York Giants may purchase one of the International League clubs for farming-out purposes, in order to save its large lists of young players who otherwise would have to be turned loose upon some minor league organization when the season begins in the major bodies.

Several of the major league clubs have this idea in mind, and that was the reason that Manager Huggins, of St. Louis, and Manager Herzog, of Cincinnati, put in bids for the Buffalo club of the International League. The new rule restricting clubs to 21 men means that they will have to turn several players loose who are really good enough to be grabbed up by the Class AA clubs, which includes the International League, the American Association and the Pacific Coast League.

If the Giants acquire the Syracuse club it is likely that Manager McGraw will see that George Witte, who has been unconditionally released, will get the job as manager.

JOE SHUCRUE A WINNER ON POINTS OVER WHITE

New York Boxer's Jabbing and Coolness Earn Him a Victory Over Past Chicago Boy—White Had Two Rounds to His Credit

New York, Dec. 30.—Young Shucrue, of this city, won on points from Charlie White, of Chicago, in a 10-round bout at the Madison Square Garden here last night. With the exception of the first round, which was a draw, and the eighth and last stanzas, which went to White, Shucrue was the aggressor and landed telling blows.

White towards the end of the fight fought with desperation. Outclassed during the early rounds, the Chicago boxer made a rally in the closing minutes of the battle, but Shucrue, with the fight carefully stowed in his favor, sidestepped his wild ball-like rushes and came to no harm.

During the first round both boxers felt the other out. A few jabs, fake attempts at swings and clinches were all the bout was fruitful of. Then Shucrue started in the second fracas. The speedy Joe shot lightning-like left jabs to the uncovered face of White. The latter winced at the rapid stinging blows. White retaliated with slashing rights to the body. The local boy kept constantly shooting in little taps to White that angered the Chicagoan. It was Shucrue who led all the way in this round. The third stanza was but a repetition of the
