SOCIAL and PERSONAL

TENERS GIVE THEIR LAST RECEPTION THIS AFTERNOON

Retiring Governor and His Wife "At Home" From 4 to 6 o'clock—Assembly and Ohev Sholem Sisterhood

Dances Features of New Year's Eve

Special feature of New Year's Day in social circles is the informal "at home" being held by Governor and Mrs. John Kinley Tener from 4 to 6 o'clock this afternoon in the Executive Mansion.

No cards were issued for the reception, which is the last of the many functions given here by the Governor and his wife. The mansion was decorated in a Christmas greenery, with masses of deep red roses and bright poinsettias adding a touch of color.

Governor and Mrs. Tener received their guests in the red room. Mrs. Tener wore a handsome gown of black net and the beautiful diamond pendant presented to her on her silver wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Saeuel Claybaugh Todd and Mrs. Frank Payne presided over the tea table at chocolate urn. Mrs. Todd in a gown of white chiffon broadcloth, with touches of cloth of gold and chiffon, and Mrs. Payne in black satin with a picture hat of black trimmed with scarlet plums and a corsage of red roses.

Will Dance Masked To-night The Uptown orchestra will play for the masquerade carnival which will be held this evening at the Harrisburg Country Club, given by the young women of society. The decorations will be Christmas green, with Mardi Gras features adding to the effect. The committee in charge includes Miss Margaretta Fleming, Miss Marian Angeli, Miss Elizabeth Bailey and Miss Virginia Hargest King.

Mrs. Lesley McCreath, yellow satin trimmed with copper chiffon; Mrs. William Orville Hickok, royal blue velvet and black chiffon; Miss Katherine Eiter, white satin with tunic of blue; Miss Leavitt Wickersham, of Lancaster, flame velvet; Miss Constance Ferriday, white chiffon and cloth of gold; Miss Dora Wickersham Coe, white satin; Miss Margaret Kennedy, Chambersburg, rose taffeta.

Ohev Sholem Sisterhood Dance The Board of Trade was the scene of a pretty masquerade dance given last evening by the Ohev Sholem Sisterhood. The hall was prettily decorated in blue and gold, with a background of palms and Christmas greens.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Benjamin Strouse, Mrs. Al Seigman, Ben Strouse, Lee Goldsmith and Charles Aaronson for the most elaborate costumes. The Loesser orchestra played for the dancing and at 11 o'clock a buffet supper was served. The committee of arrangements included: Mrs. E. Stern, Mrs. Caffer, Mrs. O. LAUBENSTEIN-KUHN

Ceremony Will Be Performed by Dr. J. Ritchie Smith, of Princeton Theological Seminary

The wedding of Miss Sarah Edna Kuhn and Frank J. Laubenstein, an attorney of Ashland, Pa., will take place this evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Kuhn, 2112 North Third street.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. J. Ritchie Smith, of Princeton Theological Seminary, and promptly at 7 o'clock, to the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march, the bride party will move down the stairway to the canopy of roses and southern Smilax, arranged in the drawing room, where the ceremony will be performed.

Miss Johanna Reese, as maid of honor, will wear a gown of shell pink satin de amour with trimmings of rhinestone and gold braid, and carry a sheaf of pink roses. D. J. Ferguson, of Shenandoah, will be best man.

Following the ceremony there will be an informal reception after which Mr. and Mrs. Laubenstein will leave for an extended southern tour. On their return they will reside in their handsome new residence at Ashland.

ENTERTAINED D. L. M. CLUB

Members Were Guests of Mrs. Edith Smith Last Evening Mrs. Edith Smith entertained the members of the D. L. M. Club at her home, 2006 Susquehanna street, last evening, in compliment to Miss Vera Smith, Paul Milton DeHart, of Washington, D. C., and Victor Nye, of Pittsburgh.

Home From Two Weeks' Visit Mrs. Eli Goldstein and Mrs. M. Goldstein have returned from a two weeks' visit in Montreal, Canada and New York City.

Visiting in New York Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Morrell are visiting in New York.

WATCH NIGHT SERVICES

Many Persons Attend and Tractor Company Cars Are Well Patrolled The cars of the Harrisburg Railways Company were thronged last night after midnight by the crowds of people that poured from the churches after the watch night services. Services were held in practically all the churches of the city and were featured this year by motion pictures, hours for social purposes and refreshment. In many of the churches the Stough evangelistic campaign song books were used. The services this year seemed more generally attended than in other years and everywhere there seemed to be a spirit of hearty religious good feeling.

The St. Cecilia choir at mass this morning in St. Patrick's cathedral rendered the same musical program that was rendered Christmas morning. The choir is composed of some fifty boys and girls and is under the direction of Sister Evangeline. The repetition of the Christmas program was made in response to the numerous requests that poured into the cathedral.

SUES POLO PLAYER FOR SOCKS

Haberdsasher Wants Pay From F. P. Keene for 47 Pairs New York, Jan. 1.—Foxhall P. Keene was sued in the Supreme Court for $374 by Harborrows, Ltd., of London, for haberdsashery bought between 1909 and 1912 for which Mr. Keene has refused to pay.

Among the articles listed in the complaint are forty-seven pairs of hose, ranging from 25 cents to $4 a pair; two pairs of silk pajamas, $17.28; three shirts, $12.71, and one scarlet polo shirt, $18.77.

Photoplay To-day

Two good features are scheduled for the Photoplay to-day. A humorous reel showing the matrimonial and family troubles of a wealthy widower and a thrilling railroad story, "The Black Diamond Express," are both said to be above the average of their kind. There are many laughable incidents in the widower's plight and his love-making together with those of his pretty, young daughter give rise to many ridiculous scenes. The man falls in love with a fortune hunting woman and she consents to marry him only on condition that his daughter marry her son. He agrees without conferring with the girl, who is already pledged to another youth. The trouble he has between the girl's sweetheart and the woman's son is the plot of the production.
