READ WHAT THE EDITOR OF THE Ladies' Home Journal SAYS ABOUT THIS GREAT WORK:

THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL THE CURTIS PUBLISHING CO. PHILADELPHIA. Edited by EDWARD W. BOK.

Why I like this illustrated edition of the Bible is because everything about it has been well done and seems to have been done in the right spirit. The Book itself has been approached by the annotator with reserve and intelligence, and by its artists with sympathy and knowledge. It has not been made into a meaningless picture book. The pictures here serve a distinct purpose. They enrich the text, but they do more; they intelligently explain it, and many a hitherto obscure passage will assume to thousands a new meaning through these eye-teaching pictures. Popularizing the Bible is a risky experiment in the hands of many, but it has been made a splendid achievement in this case.
