With assurancesThe Josekey Club are now preparing aIst of meetings for the year. The betting feature of racing no longer dominates the sport, and the stewards intend to eliminate many other evils which have served to mar. the good name of racing. During the last two years the race track plungers and big operators were more or less suppressed.
This year they will be wiped out and their baneful influence made impotent.
The Pinkerton Detective Agency will have complete supervision as regards policing the courses, and an extra force of men will be employed to prevent any possible chance of night riders operating

The racing dates will be so arranged that Saratoga will have its usual month of racing, with five Saturdays. By be-ginning the racing season earlier this year than last there will be more racing dates and less crowding of racing meet-ings than was the case in 1914. Bel-mont Park will have at least 18 days of racing, with at least 12 or 15 days each for Jamaica (Belmont Park) and Aqueduct. Empire City probably will receive 18 days and will hold its meet-ing during the latter part of July, pre-vious to the opening at Saratoga. There will be no running races at Syracuse this year.
