

Quick, Safe Way to Remove Hairs

(Toilet Talks) Keep a little delatone powder on your dressing table and when ugly, hairy growths appear, make a paste with a little of the powder and some water, apply and let remain on the hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and the hairs have vanished. This treatment is quite harmless and rarely more than one application is required, but to avoid disappoinment care should be used to buy the real delatone.—Adv.

TO WED, SAYS ACTRESS

Miss Collaty and H. H. Hipwell Deny Marriage in Detroit Pittsburgh, Jan. 6.—According to the friends of Earl W. Hipwell, son of H. H. Hipwell, president of the Hipwell Manufacturing Company, the former is soon to marry Mary Collaty, a dancer in "The Passing Show of 1914." Miss Collaty, who is occupying a luxurious suite of rooms at the Fort Pitt hotel, said yesterday: "No, we are not married yet, but we hope to be. We fell in love at first sight." Stanley Sharpe, manager of "The Passing Show," telegraphed from Detroit, where the company is appearing, saying that Miss Collaty and Hipwell were married yesterday. Young Hipwell says: "No, I am not married. Furthermore I have no intention of marrying."

DRYING UP FOR LOCK OF RUM

Town's Population Fell From 2,000 to 400 When It Went Dry Carrollton, Ohio, Jan. 6.—Sherrodsville, twelve miles southeast of here, the population of which has dwindled from 2,000 to less than 400 since the town became dry a few years ago, is demanding the voting in of saloons, so that the town may get revenue enough to keep the municipal organization intact. Under the Rose local option law the town lost its saloons when the county went dry. Since the home rule amendment carried in the last election practically all of the citizens are demanding an election under the local law, so that saloons may be voted in.

GOVERNOR'S POSIES LOOTED

Inaugural Offerings Taken From Wisconsin Executive's Office Madison, Wis., Jan. 6.—Governor Philipp was chagrined when he reached the executive offices yesterday to find that some person had carried away all the flowers sent him for the inauguration Monday. He wanted to acknowledge the floral gifts, but found even the cards of donors had been taken. The flowers were taken shortly after the reception in the executive chambers Monday. Governor Philipp intended to send the flowers to Madison hospitals.

$700,000 CONTRACT LET

Illinois Central Railroad Orders 25 Freight Locomotives Chicago, Jan. 6.—The Illinois Central Railroad Company yesterday awarded to the Lima Locomotive Corporation, of Lima, O., a contract for 25 modern freight locomotives of the Mikado type. The aggregate amount of the contract is $700,000. The railroad is also understood to have contracted for a similar number of locomotives from the American Locomotive Company.

GIRL DENIES BLACKMAIL

Accuser Under White Slave Act Pleads Not Guilty to Bribery Chicago, Jan. 6.—Miss Jessie Elizabeth Cope, accuser under the Mann act of Colonel Charles Alexander, of Providence, R. I., pleaded not guilty yesterday when arraigned in the Federal court, charged with attempting to bribe Federal officials to aid her in obtaining $50,000 from Colonel Alexander by threatening him with prosecution. January 28 was decided on as the day on which the trial will begin.

R. HARDING DAVIS A FATHER

Daughter Born to Former Philadelphian in New York New York, Jan. 6.—Mrs. Richard Harding Davis, who was Bessie McCoy, Monday gave birth to a 9½ pound daughter. The present Mrs. Davis is the war correspondent's second wife. This is his first child. His first wife was Miss Cecil Clark, of Chicago. They were married in 1899, at which time she asked her friends by announcing their married life to be "purely platonic." She obtained a divorce in 1912, and Mr. Davis married Miss McCoy, who achieved fame as the Yama Yama Girl in "The Three Twins" shortly afterward.

BALL PLAYER HELD UP

Steve O'Neil Robber of Gift Watch in Minooka Scranton, Pa., Jan. 6.—Steve O'Neil, catcher for the Cleveland Americans, was held up and robbed in his home town, Minooka, Monday night, the robbers getting a small sum of cash and a gold watch, the gift of Minooka admirers on his return home at the end of last season. O'Neil said yesterday that he thought it was a joke when two men accosted him about midnight near his home. He threw up his hands when they shoved revolvers at him. They then searched him and escaped.

MOUTH AND HOOV DISEASE

It Is Now Practically Stamped Out in Lancaster County Marietta, Jan. 6.—The mouth and hoof disease is practically stamped out in Lancaster county, much to the satisfaction of all concerned. There has been no new cases and all the herds affected have been dispatched and the finishing work of fumigating, etc., will be completed before many days. The loss to farmers and dealers in the county will run high into the thousands. The sales will go on as usual and business from to-day will practically begin anew.

Said to Be Champion Tobacco Sizer

Marietta, Jan. 6.—John B. Eshbach, of Harrisburg, is probably the champion sizer of tobacco in the county, and it is doubtful if he can be outclassed in many other counties. On Saturday he sized fifty pounds of tobacco in one hour and is ready to meet all those who wish to outclass him. Among tobacco men and workers it is claimed this is an extraordinary record.

READING MAN A SUICIDE

Harry W. Otto, Worried Over Financial Troubles, Drinks Acid Reading, Jan. 6.—Worry over financial difficulties is attributed as being responsible for the suicide of Harry W. Otto, 23 years old, prominent stove dealer, here last night. Otto returned from business at 6 o'clock and, complaining of a slight indisposition, immediately retired to his room. A half hour later his wife was attracted by the sound of groans in the apartment, and upon investigating discovered her husband unconscious. A vial that had contained carbolic acid was found on the dresser. Several months ago a brother-in-law, Charles Leymaster, committed suicide under similar circumstances. Otto was prominent in fraternal circles and was a leader in Democratic politics. His wife survives.

BARB WIRE HOLDS PURSUER

Fugitive Dives Right Through It Unscathed Williamsport, Jan. 6.—Constable George Allen lost an alleged thief in a chase yesterday because his trousers were of good material. Allen held a warrant for the arrest of Clyde Lorseil, wanted on a charge of stealing chickens. He visited Lorseil's home, and while he searched in the front part the man escaped by the rear. Allen gave chase, following the man over back lots for several squares. A barb wire fence was in the path. Lorseil jumped and dived through the strands of the wire, landing uninjured in the snow, while Allen attempted to climb over. His trousers caught on the wire, and he was held prisoner while his man disappeared.

GIRLS HAUL NITROGLYCERIN

Take Trunk Load of High Explosive on 500-Mile Trip Washington, Pa., Jan. 6.—For what is believed to be the first time in the history of the oil and gas business in America, two girls, the Misses Eleanor and Cora Criswell, of Washington, yesterday took a big automobile truck load of nitroglycerin across country 200 miles, from Washington to Cleveland, O. The young women are the majority stockholders in a company dealing in high explosives, and the deadly stuff they hauled overland yesterday will be used in the vicinity of Cleveland. The machine in which they made the journey was one built to their order for the express purpose of hauling high explosives. They took with them on the long and perilous journey an expert machinist to look after possible breakdowns.

SLED HITS AN AUTOMOBILE

Nine Bellefonte Young People Injured in Coasting Accident Bellefonte, Jan. 6.—Nine well-known young people of Bellefonte, some of whom were State College and High school students, ranging in age from 16 to 20 years, were hurt in a coasting accident Monday night, and the condition of several of them is very serious. The injured are Cecilia Noerschbaser, injured internally, condition serious; Robert Taylor, right thigh, knee and ankle fractured, condition serious; William Bloom, right leg fractured; Lydia Heverly, right leg fractured; Matthew Wagner, Joseph Connelly, Marshall Cook, James Straub and Gilbert Morgan were also injured. The accident occurred on Reynolds hill when the big sled sidwiped an automobile driven by Harold Cowher. In the automobile were Mrs. Claude Cook and her daughter, Grace, Mrs. Cook sustained a cut on the head and is suffering from nervous shock.

TRAIN KILLS AGED WOMAN

Mrs. Mary Convery, Chester, Walked in Front of Freight Chester, Jan. 6.—Walking directly in front of an approaching freight train near the Tighman street freight station on the Pennsylvania railroad, Mrs. Mary Convery, 415 Flower street, an aged woman, was struck by the engine yesterday morning. She died ten minutes after her removal to the Chester hospital. She was walking down the tracks from Fourth street as the freightbound for Philadelphia, was pulling out of the station. She is survived by her husband, John Convery, and three children.

ENDS LIFE WITH RAZOR

Scranton Man, in Perfect Health, Fears Death Was Near Scranton, Jan. 6.—Believing that his health was failing, although local physicians who examined him Monday declared him to be in perfect health, Roscoe N. Lee, a resident of Orson, near here committed suicide by slashing his throat with a razor. His body was found yesterday morning at the home of his niece, Mrs. John J. O'Boyle, with whom he was visiting. He gave no indication of his intention on retiring last night, but declared that in spite of the doctors he knew he was going to die.

Young Woman Injured While Coasting

Marietta, Jan. 6.—Miss Anna Kibler, while engaged with a number of companions in sledding last evening, made a narrow escape from being killed. While descending a hill, another sled came in the opposite direction and she was thrown violently to the ground, inflicting serious injuries to her head and perhaps internal injuries.

Furnace Passes Into History

Marietta, Jan. 6.—The last of the furnace business in this section is about at an end. The large engine which drove the machinery at the Vesta Furnace, built in 1868, has been torn out and hauled away. It weighed twenty tons. Big Prices at Lebanon Horse Sale Lebanon, Jan. 6.—Big prices featured the sale of B. L. Robinson, of 30 head of Union county, Ohio, horses held at the Drovers' Exchange stable, this city, yesterday. A total of more than $6,000 was realized or an average of about $200 a head.

CALL 1991-ANY PHONE. FOUNDED 1871. Bowman's HARRISBURG'S POPULAR DEPARTMENT STORE. More News of the White Sale To-morrow

The Advantages of a PROPER White Sale (Speaking of a White Sale that is properly planned and properly merchandised.) It brings before the public unrivaled assortments of everything white—muslin wear, corsets, silks, cotton, gloves, embroideries, linens, waists, etc.

—Instead of clearing out old stock that has become yellow with age, it brings to you, all fresh and new, the desirable garments and fabrics that are in demand. —And because of certain facilities open to wide awake buyers, these goods can be offered at very moderate prices. —Here Is a Well-Planned, Properly Merchandised White Sale—A REALLY ADVANTAGEOUS WHITE SALE.

The Choice is Unlimited (Sale of Women's Coats) At the beginning of this sale, we called it a clearance. True in a sense, for we are clearing out coats of which possibly one or two models of each style remain.

White Gloves Are Popular, and Here Are Wanted Styles Fownes' 16-button white French kid gloves at $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00 pair. Fownes' 12-button white French lambskin gloves at $2.50 pair.

But-- It is also a sale of new, never-out-of-the-box-before coats, which it has been our fortune to secure at low (and some very low) figures. However, the low prices must not reflect upon the styles, for in every (special) purchase care has been taken to secure only styles that women desire. To-morrow we will show new plush and corduroy coats at $12.50, $15.00 and $17.50, models that would have cost probably twenty-five dollars a couple of weeks ago. And many cloths coats in women's and misses' sizes—zibeline, Hindu lynx, fur fabrics, mixtures, etc., at $5.98, $8.98, $10.00, $12.50 and $15.00.

These Special Prices--For a Little Booster in Domestic Lonsdale Muslin, 36 inches wide, cut from full pieces; regularly 14c; special at 10c yd. Ticking, in fancy blue and white stripes; remnant lengths; regularly 10c and 15c; special at 7½c yd. Pillow Tubing, 42 and 45 inches wide; short lengths; regularly 20c and 25c; special at 15c yd. Sheets, size 81x108 inches; made of Mohawk muslin; slightly soiled; regularly $1.19; special at 70c each.

CALL 1991-ANY PHONE. FOUNDED 1871. Bowman's HARRISBURG'S POPULAR DEPARTMENT STORE. Another Price Drop in Women's Suits Now They're $14.98

To-morrow you may choose from our entire suit stock of fine chiffon broadcloths, sturdy gabardines and poplins, and serviceable serges, at $14.98. You'll be surprised to know what most of these suits sold for. Suits for Stout Women, $12.50—Navy and black only; fine poplin. Coats are lined with yarn dyed satin; well tailored throughout. A $20.00 value. Second Floor—BOWMAN'S.

Final Prices on Winter Millinery to Wind-Up the Season This is right down to brass tacks and every winter hat must go—somehow. Prices have dropped to the lowest notch, so we call it final. This disposal includes every hat in our Millinery Department, whether a bare shape, or prettily trimmed—and everyone is desirable, identical with those seen on the street this very minute. Untrimmed Velvet Shapes 75c and $1.00 Made of silk and Lyons velvet; large sailor shapes with pink, white and light blue tops, that have been so popular. Trimmed Hats at $2.00 When we tell you the trimming alone is worth that amount you will have some idea of the former prices of the hats. Mostly black velvets, in chic small shapes and large styles. Second Floor—BOWMAN'S.

OLD STAGE DRIVER DIES Blood Poisoning Fatal to Lancaster County Citizen Marietta, Jan. 6.—Blood poisoning, caused by a rusty nail, caused the death yesterday of David L. Zimmers, who drove a stage for many years between Fairfield and Lancaster. He was 70 years of age and a member of the Methodist church. His widow and two sons survive him. He did some carpentering work a few weeks ago and injured his finger, but paid no attention to the wound until the blood poisoning set in. He died in agony. Auto License Law Constitutional Washington, Jan. 6.—The Maryland automobile license law was upheld as constitutional yesterday by the Supreme Court. The Court held that in the absence of federal regulation of interstate automobile travel, States may regulate such traffic. Three Murderers Die in Chair Trenton, N. J., Jan. 6.—Richard P. Sparks and George Green, who killed Charles A. Ely, a fish dealer of Freehold and G. James Johnson, who murdered his common law wife, Laura Smith, in Germantown, were electrocuted in the State prison here last evening. It only required twenty-two minutes to put the three men to death. Jail Sentence in Everglades Case Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 6.—Dr. F. C. Chambers, convicted of fraudulent use of the mails in connection with the sale of Florida Everglades land, was sentenced to two years in prison and a fine of $6,000 yesterday. E. L. Russell, convicted on the same charge, was sentenced to one year and a day in prison. Chambers and Russell appealed and were released. Lancaster Wheat $1.25 a Bushel Lancaster, Jan. 6.—The great advance in the price of wheat within the past few days has had a marked effect on the local market, the price jumping to $1.25 a bushel, with a probability of it going higher during the next few days. Some of the county dealers believe it will go to $1.50. Two Coasters Injured Sunbury, Pa., Jan. 6.—Asher Cope, 17 years old, suffered a fractured skull and Spangler Heller, 18 years old, had a leg almost torn from his body when their hoisted crashed into a pole at the bottom of a steep hill here yesterday, and both may die. Expect New Postoffice Reading, Pa., Jan. 6.—Postmaster Sattinger was surprised here yesterday to receive instructions from Washington to get temporary headquarters for the postoffice immediately. The new order is taken to mean that Reading may yet receive an entirely new public building. Heavy Damages in Hatters' Boycott By Associated Press. Washington, Jan. 6.—The Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the $252,000 judgment awarded by the New York Federal Courts to D. E. Loewe & Co., Danbury, Conn., hatters, against some 186 members of the United Hatters' Union under the Sherman anti-trust law as damages resulting from a boycott. STAND PAT ON SHOE STYLES Salesmen Say Too Frequent Changes Reduce Their Orders Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 6.—Novelties in shoe styles were condemned at the closing session of the National Association of Traveling Shoe Salesmen here yesterday, and the association voted to work with the National Association of Shoe Manufacturers and the National Association of Shoe Retailers, to stop changes of styles between seasons. Too frequent style changes cut orders fifty per cent. below normal, it was asserted. CLEANING FLUID PLAYS HAVOC Explosion Burns Woman Severely and Fires Her Home Berwick, Pa., Jan. 6.—An explosion yesterday morning of a preparation containing gasoline, which she was using in cleaning a dress, severely burned Mrs. A. N. Millin, of Beach Haven, near here, and fired the Millin home. Blazing from head to foot, her life was saved by the quick action of her mother, who pulled a bag over her blazing woman and then rolled her in the snow. Much of the household furnishings were destroyed before the fire was put out. Poultry Show at Elizabethtown Elizabethtown, Jan. 6.—The annual poultry show of the Elizabethtown Poultry Association opened yesterday in the Elizabethtown hall, with more exhibitors than ever before, and the crowd was large. Many prizes will be awarded and several States are represented in the competition. The judges are George O. Brown, of Baltimore, and Charles Nixon, of New Jersey. The show will continue four days. THAW MAY NOT FIGHT RETURN New Hampshire Contest, It Is Said, Would Be Useless Concord, N. H., Jan. 6.—It is reliably reported here that Harry Thaw will make no further legal fight in this State against returning to New York. It is understood that Thaw's legal advisers have informed him that any action that could be brought here must eventually prove of no avail and would result only in an unnecessary delay in the fight which is proposed to make in New York State. According to the same authority it is Thaw's present intention to return to New York without questioning the mandate of the Supreme Court. CHILDREN BURN TO DEATH Three Fatalities in Michigan Fire—Mother Escapes Through Window Harrisville, Mich., Jan. 6.—Three children were burned to death Monday night when fire destroyed the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Lavigne, near this place. The victims, two, four and seven years old, met death in their beds. Another infant child was rescued in such a burned condition it is not expected to live. The mother was burned and severely cut when she escaped through a window.

STAR-INDEPENDENT CALENDAR FOR 1915 May be had at the business office of the Star-Independent for 10c or will be sent to any address in the United States, by mail, for 5 cents extra to cover cost of package and postage. The Star-Independent Calendar for 1915 is another of the handsome series, featuring important local views, issued by this paper for many years. It is 11x14 inches in size and shows a picture, extraordinary for clearness and detail, of the "Old Capitol," built 1818 and destroyed by fire in 1897. It is in fine half-tone effect and will be appreciated for its historic value as well as for its beauty. Mail orders given prompt attention. Remit 15 cents in stamps, and address all letters to the STAR-INDEPENDENT 18-20-22 South Third Street Harrisburg, Pa.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets Will Relieve Your Indigestion George A. Gargas.

WARD LINE to HAVANA AND PORTS IN CUBA and NASSAU Weekly service from New York and direct connections with Havana. S. S. HAVANA 10,000 Tons Displacement S. S. SARATOGA 10,000 Tons Displacement