NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD

DEMAREST AND CLINE TO PLAY HERE JANUARY 15

Contest in Champion Billiard Players' League at Holtzman's Parlors—Will Play 300 Points of 14.1 Balk-Line Game

Calvin Demarest and Harry Cline, both members of the Champion Billiard Players' League, will appear at Holtzman's billiard parlor, Friday night, January 15, in one of the regular scheduled contests of the league to be held in this city during the present season.

The game should draw record crowds judging from the interest shown in the previous contest held in this city.

The contest will be three hundred points at 14.1 balk-line, the new style of game which created such a sensation during the recent championship tournament at the Hotel Astor, New York, and caused quite a sensation among the local billiard fans. This game is full of thrills, is most spectacular and beyond question the most difficult known to the billiard world.

Both players are going at top speed and judging from the games played by them in other cities in the league a battle to the finish may be expected.

Calvin Demarest first attracted attention as a billiard player at the age of 21, when he won the world's amateur title. This he held for three years, during which time he established records which promise to stand for many years to come.

He was graduated from the amateur ranks in 1910 and won the world's championship at the 18.2 balk-line game in a tournament held at Madison Square Garden, New York, after being in a three-cornered tie with George Sutton and Harry Cline.

In the play-off with Sutton, Demarest made a new record by playing the fastest game ever known, defeating Sutton 500 to 72. The game required but one hour and fifteen minutes. Demarest sped around the table as though he were on roller skates, making the most difficult shots with ease. His wonderful execution during that match was the marvel of all who saw it and Demarest was at once the foremost player in the world.

Although he afterwards lost his title to Harry Cline at Orchestra hall, Chicago, he is as sensational a player as ever and has never given up hope of regaining the championship. Demarest is especially proficient in the 14.1 style of game and is sure to be among the foremost in the league.

Those who see him when he appears in this city will have ample opportunity of judging whether his hopes of regaining his lost title are to be realized soon.

Harry Cline's first years as a professional were spent as a champion pocket billiard player.

His natural free arm stroke soon attracted the attention of George Slosson, the veteran of the billiard game, who persuaded Cline to devote his attention to billiards. In a very short time he became an expert.

Cline is to-day known as the game's most versatile player. He has mastered the three-cushion style as well as the balk-line and is still an expert at pocket billiards.

At St. Louis, in 1908, he won the world's title at three-cushions from Alfred DeOro. He then forfeited his title to devote his entire time to the balk-line style of playing.

In 1910 at Orchestra hall, Chicago,

DO NOT FEAR SUIT

President Tener Says National Agreement Will Stand

Governor John K. Tener, president of the National League, in a statement made in regard to the suit filed by the Federal League yesterday afternoon said:

"I have no fear as to the outcome of the legal proceedings or what the validity of the National agreement will be upheld by the courts. I only regret that because of any exigent circumstances the Federal League has felt impelled to undertake to annul an agreement which the members of that league, as supporters and advocates of the national game know full well, has materially contributed to the uplift and betterment of the game and been of great benefit and protection of the players, and in its operation has given general satisfaction to the public."

"I can hardly believe that the institution of such litigation by the Federal League will rebound to their credit or met with the approval of the tens of thousands of patrons of our national game."

GOODS TO THE CONSUMER

The following is taken from the current issue of "Farm and Fireside," the national farm paper published at Springfield, Ohio:

"Who pays the cost of advertising? Five years ago a certain automobile manufacturer's output was a few thousand cars, which he sold for about one thousand dollars each. "During the present season he is building more than two hundred thousand cars, which are vastly better than the former output, and his price for them is less than five hundred dollars each. "Extensive advertising has brought this vast number of buyers, thus enabling him to equip an enormous factory, where cars in such large numbers can be turned out much more cheaply. "The same condition is found in practically all lines of business. Advertising reduces the cost to the consumer and improves the quality because of the large volume of sales it brings. "In buying advertised goods you not only get the best value for the money, but a reliable manufacturer's guarantee of 'satisfaction or money refunded.'"
