MISS MYRTLE ELYVN HEARD IN PROGRAM OF CLASSICS

Music Lovers of the City Braved Bad Weather to Attend Piano Recital Given by Well Known Artist of This Country and Europe

Miss Myrtle Elyvn charmed a large and enthusiastic audience that braved the inclement weather to attend the piano recital given last evening under the auspices of the J. H. Troup Piano House, in the Technical High school auditorium.

Miss Elyvn, while possibly not so well known here, is an artist of rare ability, who has made a brilliant success before the most difficult audiences of Europe and America. The possessor of wonderful modern technique, she utilizes her rare accomplishments solely in the service of true and profound art and has made a niche for herself in the temple of music.

Miss Elyvn is an artist who is endowed with the ability of infusing fresh life into much-played compositions, and is equally at home in works of widely different style and spirit.

Her program last night was a most attractive one from the point of variety and while it was one of classics, never at any time became monotonous, nor was it too lengthy. The program was as follows:

- 1. Caprice "From Alceste," Gluck; Saint Saens; b. Minuet, G. Major, Beethoven; c. Rhapsodie, E. flat Major, Op. 118, Brahms; 2. Sonata Appassionata, Allegro vivace—Andante con moto, Allegro ma non troppo, Beethoven; 3. a. Caprice Viennois; b. Schoen Rosmarin, Kreisler; c. Prelude (from Pour le Piano); Debussy; d. Nocturne, Op. 37, No. 2; Polonaise, Op. 53, Chopin; 4. Tannhauser Overture, Wagner-Liszt. In the Sonata she was at her best and showed a remarkable interpretive power.

CAPTAIN LUMB TO SPEAK

Will Address Alricks Association on "Essentials of Success" to-morrow

Captain George F. Lumb, the deputy superintendent of State police, will lecture upon "The Essentials of Success" to-morrow evening at the monthly business meeting of the Alricks Association at St. Andrew's parish house, Nineteenth and Market streets. The business meeting will be held at 8 o'clock and Captain Lumb's lecture will follow.

Captain Lumb is a professional lecturer, in addition to his other work, and has half a dozen set addresses. "The Essentials of Success" is a comparatively new talk in his list and he has never delivered it in Harrisburg. When his fellow members of the Alricks Association asked him to speak to-morrow night he selected this talk.

Invitations to to-morrow's meeting have been distributed widely by the members of the association, emphasis being laid upon the non-sectarian character of the club, with the meetings open to any man who care to attend. The association is only a little more than three months old, and already has eighty-seven members. Virtually all are residents of Allison Hill. Efforts will be made to-morrow night to increase the enrollment to one hundred.

FOREIGN WAR VETERANS MEET Officers for Year Are Installed at Last Night's Gathering

The officers for 1915 elected by Captain Howard L. Carlier Post, No. 31, American Veterans of Foreign Wars were installed by Past Commander-in-Chief George F. Lumb at 8.50 o'clock last evening in G. A. R. hall. The following officers were installed: Commander, John Garman; senior vice commander, Frank Shenfeld; junior vice commander, Samuel Forbes; adjutant, Hugh L. McLaughlin; quartermaster, John M. Major; trustee, Rudolph K. Spicer, Jones K. Reist, John Conlow; chaplain, John Garland.

If it is true, as our business philosophers tell us, that "those who never do more than they get paid for never get paid for more than they do," then it is quite clear that if you want to get paid for more than you do you must do more than you get paid for. Even a philosopher ought to see how impossible that is, but, of course, the true philosopher cannot be expected to hesitate over a mere impossibility.—Life.
