CONTROVERSY ON DUM DUM BULLETS

Winchester Received No Order
Your Excellency also states that the British government has ordered from the Winchester Repeating Arms Company twenty thousand "riot guns," model 1897, and fifty million "bullet cartridges" for use in such guns. This department saw a published statement of the Winchester company, the correctness of which the company has confirmed to the department by telegraph. In this statement the company categorically denied that it has received an order for such guns and cartridges from or made sale of such material to the British government or to any other government engaged in the present war.

"In reply I have the honor to refer to the letter of December 10, 1914, of the Remington Arms-Union Metallic Cartridge Company, of New York, to your Excellency further calls attention to 'information the accuracy of which is not to be doubted,' that eight million cartridges filled with 'mushroom bullets' have been delivered since October of this year by the Union Metallic Cartridge Company for the armament of the English army.

When All Debts Are Paid and the Whole Country "Painted Red"
New Year's is the national day in China. All accounts must be squared up at that time and the man who can't raise money enough to pay his debts has to go into bankruptcy. The laws are such that the creditor can enter the debtor's house and take what he pleases if there is no settlement. To prevent such action families club together and make all business reputations to keep up the business reputation of the clan. New Year's is a great day for the pawnbrokers. Their shops are crowded with people who want to redeem their best clothes before the new year. There are crowds, also, who want to pawn other things in order to get money to pay their debts. Pawnbrokers receive high rates of interest, in which they are protected by the government.

The Chinese paint the whole country red, figuratively speaking, on New Year's day in more senses than one. Red is the color which with them denotes good luck and prosperity and all the New Year cards and invitations are on paper of that color. Every child gets its New Year's present wrapped in red paper, and red inscriptions are pasted over the doors of the houses. These inscriptions bear characters praying for good fortune, wealth and happiness and they are posted on each side of the outer doors of the houses. New pictures of Chinese generals are put on the front doors, and in houses are scoured and made clean.—Exchange.

Fair Exchange

It was Mrs. Mallon's birthday and she felt a little disappointed that there was no gift beside her plate. It was the first time in twenty years that her husband had forgotten the occasion.

Mr. Mallon smiled at her frankly. "My dear," he said, "I have been so busy lately that I have not had time to buy you a birthday gift, but I'll give you the cow."

She thanked him graciously. "Daisy is a beautiful cow," she said. "Two months later Mr. Mallon's birthday came round. When he appeared at breakfast his wife greeted him with a radiant smile. "My dear," she said, "I have been so busy lately sewing for the children that I haven't had time to make you a birthday gift, but I'll give you the cow."—Chicago News.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

Grandma Kept Her Locks Dark, Glossy and Thick With a Simple Mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft luster and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.—Adv.

OVERWORKING DIGNITY

What Happened When the Minister Gave the Bridegroom a Timely Hint
A minister was recounting some of his amusing experiences in marrying people. "There's an old custom," said he, "that the bridegroom shall kiss the bride immediately after the marriage ceremony is over. It's a good, practical custom, for it serves more handsomely than anything else that I know of to dissipate the awkward pause that almost always follows a simple, informal ceremony. For this reason I keep the custom alive."

"One day a man whom I shall call Smith came to the parsonage to be married. Mr. Smith was a pompous, consequential little man. The prospective Mrs. Smith was a fine, winsome girl. After the ceremony Mr. Smith, in spite of his pomposity, did not seem to know just what was the next thing to do, so, as is my practice in such emergencies, I said, 'My dear sir, it is your privilege to salute the bride.' He turned around and, extending his hand formally, said, 'Mrs. Smith, I congratulate you.'"—New York Times.

AUSTRIA TO BE HUMBLER

PREDICTS DR. GRAVES
Former Member of Kaiser's Secret Service Declares That Germany Is Unfortunate in Its Ally and Wants Dual Monarchy Disrupted

The disintegration of Austria, and that with the consent of Germany, and in the very near future, is the prediction of Armgaard Karl Graves, former member of the German secret service, who will be at the Majestic on Tuesday evening to talk on secret service and the war.

ARMGAARD KARL GRAVES

Dr. Graves makes the assertion that Germany wants to see Austria humbled, in spite of the alliance now existing between the House of Hohenzollern and the House of Hapsburg. Austria, he says, is almost at the end of her career, and it would not require a great deal of German diplomacy to bring about its disruption.

Germany is unfortunate in its ally, is the statement made by Dr. Graves, who asserts that Austria is not liked by the Balkan States, which
