DETECTIVE DURBAUGH ARRESTS PETER RADOCEVIC

Prisoner Is Charged With Receiving Stolen Goods in Connection With Wholesale Chicken Thefts Last Winter—Caught at Lancaster

A climax to the arrest of eleven foreigners last winter for chicken stealing took place in Lancaster several days ago when Detective Durbaugh arrested Peter Radocevic on a charge of receiving stolen goods.

The prisoner is alleged to have run the boarding house where several hundred stolen fowls were taken, and when three local officers forced an entrance to the premises, one washboiler and several tubs, all filled with dressed poultry, were recovered, as was also a very large pair of chickens which were being roasted in the oven of a red hot stove.

A clue to the robbery was furnished by a member of the Steel Company police force about 4 o'clock one morning last winter, when he noticed several foreigners carrying an old washboiler to the edge of the canal, near the merchant mill, where it was left. Seeing steam arising out of the boiler the policeman made an investigation, then stealthily followed the men back to their boarding house.

JANUARY REDUCTIONS ON SUITS AND OVERCOATS

It is one of our fundamental principles in this store to keep our clothes selections up to full selling strength, filling up the gaps as fast as our racks are emptied. The result is we enter the New Year with an unusually complete line of fresh winter styles in suits and overcoats. But now the time for drastic action has come. Every garment on hand must go—and we are prepared to make the sacrifice necessary for a rapid decisive clearaway.

In considering these price reductions, keep in mind that the garments involved are no tag-tags and left-overs—no nameless merchandise orphans with a past and without a future. They are clothes of unimpeachable integrity—clothes that are members of our first families—clothes fresh and new from the modern tailoring shops of such institutions as

The film is one continuous laugh from beginning to end wherein Fatty, as Cupid's unwilling captive, breaks all previous records for fun making. It is exceptionally funny in every detail. "The Face on the Ceiling" in two parts, is another header for to-day at the Victoria. The program is concluded with "The Pathe Daily News" and "The White Rose," in one reel each. Tomorrow, "The Man in the Cellar, Adventures of Detective Webb," in five parts.

THE 1915 WORLD ALMANAC

Holds All Old Departments, With Many Features Added

If there is anything new under the sun, the chances are that it's in The World Almanac. This is a sweeping statement. For its justification one may point with much confidence to the files of this most regular of annuals. For particular and current instances, reference is recommended to the issue for 1915, now just at hand.

It contains countless format reformatory departments to which the world's readers of The World Almanac. It has a review of the war in Europe; notes on the wars of the world; the political State platforms of 1914; details of the special emergency tax; analysis of the prison population; factory statistics; workmen's compensation laws; occupations in the United States; the Federal Reserve Act; the Federal Trade Commission; statistics of foreign born population in the United States; a description of the Mexican situation; facts about the Chinese republic; a paper on the aeroplane and aviation generally in war, and too many other things to receive even a reviewer's bare mention. This book has more than a thousand pages. It outgrew ordinary almanac dimensions long ago.
