

An Exclusive Style

The "Houston Club" (as illustrated) is an exclusive Poulton style—a hat with a striking individuality and just the sort of hat you would expect to find in the country's best stores. It sells for $3.

POULTON 5 N. 3rd Street "Where Styles Originate"

SUBURBAN

HIGHSPIRE

Mrs. L. R. Arnold Injured In Fall On Ice In Yard

Highspire, Jan. 9.—Mrs. T. L. Gruber spent Thursday with her father, George H. Boyer, Lincoln street, Steelton, who is seriously ill.

Mrs. S. A. Ort and daughter, Cecile, of Dawson, Iowa, are making an extended visit to Mrs. A. B. Ehrhart, Halse street.

Mrs. Amelia Lucas, en route to her home, Philadelphia, from Mt. Alto, where she visited her son, Ray, a patient, spent Monday night with her sister, Mrs. Jacob Mathias, Penn street.

Miss Pearl Allen, Second street, has returned from a short visit to Mrs. William Runyan, at Jonestown.

J. Curtis Lyder, Thompsontown, visited friends in the borough on Tuesday.

Mrs. Tolbert Parthenore, Harrisburg, was entertained by her mother, Mrs. J. B. Allen.

Edwin F. Weaver has returned to his home in Harrisburg, after a short visit to his grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Allen.

Vaughn Liddick, of Carlisle, spent the week-end with Mervin Hoch, Second street.

Mrs. Annie Springer, of Emmitsburg, Md., visited Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Arnold, Penn and Market streets.

Mrs. K. F. Mathias, was a week-end visitor with friends at Annville.

Mrs. L. R. Arnold, Market street, is suffering with a compound fracture of the right wrist, sustained in a fall on the ice in her rear yard on Monday.

Miss Edna Hoeker has resumed her studies at Shippensburg Normal school, after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hoeker, Meadwood.

Mrs. George Hoeker, Boyd Station, was entertained by her sister, Mrs. A. C. Hoeker, Meadwood, on Tuesday.

Miss Kathryn Leedom, after spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Gruber, will return to her home in Maytown, Sunday.

Miss Margaret Brandt, of Mechanicsburg, visited her sisters, Mrs. O. A. Heim, Rook street, this week.

The following order of services will be observed in the borough churches on Sunday.

United Brethren—The Rev. H. F. Rhoad, pastor. Morning service at 10:15. Sunday school at 1:30. Evening service at 7. Evangelistic services will be held every evening next week under the leadership of C. E. Hillis. Mrs. C. E. Hillis will preach at the morning service.

St. Peter's Lutheran—The Rev. Frank Edward Meyer, pastor. Morning service at 10:45. Subject of sermon, "A Vital Question." Evening service at 7:30. Subject, "The First Romance," first in series of modern curricula. Sunday school at 9:30. C. E. and Jr. Catechetical class, 3 p. m. Sr. Catechetical class Friday at 7. Sr. C. E. at 6:45. Sunday morning before regular sermon, children's sermon. The men's chorus will sing Sunday at the evening service.

Church of God—B. L. C. Baer, pastor. Morning service at 10:15. Evangelist C. E. Hillis will preach. Sunday school at 1:45. Union mass meeting for women at 3 p. m. Mrs. Hillis will speak on "The Model Woman." Union evening service at 7:15 in U. B. church.

No Sunday school at East End chapel during revival campaign.

WEST FAIRVIEW

Oldest Citizen Celebrates Anniversary of His Birth

Special Correspondence. West Fairview, Jan. 9.—Frederick Klieffer, the oldest citizen, celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday yesterday at his home on Main street. He remembers the digging of the Pennsylvania canal, and labored in the construction of the Pennsylvania Railroad. He was the recipient of many remembrances, in the form of postcards, flowers and personal congratulations. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion. A dinner was served from 12 to 1 o'clock and was enjoyed by the following friends: The Rev. A. G. Wolf, pastor of Mr. Klieffer; Mrs. Wolf, the Rev. S. B. Bidlack; Mrs. H. J. Gerberich, Rev. St. Albert; Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Shaull and children, Alma and Frederick; Miss Jessie Klieffer, Miss Eva Klieffer, Miss Jane Day. Mrs.

of Mrs. James Jacobs, East Locust street. Communion services will be held tomorrow morning in St. Luke's Episcopal church, conducted by the Rev. LeRoy Baker, a former rector of the church.

Lynn M. Irvine, was admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court at its sessions held in Philadelphia, this week. While in the city, he was the guest of relatives.

Miss Catharine Mumma has returned to Beechwood Seminary to resume her studies after spending her vacation at her home here.

Yesterday morning the Rev. Daniel Miller, an aged resident of town, was taken suddenly ill with vertigo while in the meat store of A. C. Deviney, South High street. He had given an order for meat, when Mr. Deviney noticed him becoming very pale and before Mr. Deviney could reach him he became unconscious and sank down. Dr. Louek who was passing, was called in and gave him necessary attention. He recovered sufficiently to be taken in a carriage to his home at York and Keller streets. At this time he is much improved.

Mrs. Ross Seaman, of Harrisburg, visited relatives here this week.

Levi Martin has returned from a visit to Philadelphia, he attended some of Dr. Sunday's meetings.

MIDDLETOWN

M. E. Sunday School to Render Special Program To-morrow

Special Correspondence. Middletown, Jan. 9.—The M. E. Sunday school will hold special services tomorrow afternoon at the Sunday school hour, starting at 1:30 o'clock. Following will be the program: Singing by school; prayer; singing; study of lesson and marking of class records; singing by school; piano solo, Catherine Weaver; recitation, Miss Edna Schaeffer; song, Miss Weller's class; piano solo, Pauline Reitzel; singing by school; report of the past year will be read by Superintendent N. C. Fuhrman as follows: Number enrolled, 509; attendance for the year, 1914, 15,414, a gain of 1,848 over the year 1913; average attendance, 297; smallest attendance, 150; largest attendance, 459; average attendance of teachers, 90 per cent.; new scholars, 70; collection for year, $471.15, not including missionary collections; visitors, 548; members of the school taken into the church, 50; deaths during the year, 2; those who did not miss during 1914, 36; missed one Sunday, 20; singing by school; presentation of gifts to those who did not miss any Sunday during 1914, Professor H. J. Wickey; report of secretary; closing song. All are invited to be present. Bring a new scholar along.

The union prayer meeting services held in the Church of God last evening were largely attended. The Rev. I. H. Albright delivered the sermon.

Mrs. Edward Paulis is ill at her home on Ann street with pneumonia.

Edward Fletcher, who has been visiting relatives in Philadelphia for the past several months, will return home Sunday.

George Resh, who had accompanied Alex. Sayda, driver for C. Steiner, of the Empire bottling works, met with an accident yesterday afternoon when they were delivering some goods to Conewago. When near the home of S. Manning, near the Colebrook road, the horse became frightened and ran to one side, tearing the top off the wagon and throwing Resh out, cutting a deep gash in his head.

Yesterday was pay day for the employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in town.

George Blotcher, of Paimouth, spent Friday in town as the guest of relatives.

Miss Elsie Laverty has returned home from a week's trip to Philadelphia and New York City.

Revival services will begin in the Church of God and the M. E. church on Sunday evening.

William Hopkins left on Friday for Royersford, where he has secured work in a foundry at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Christ Ober entertained a number of friends at their home on Emaus street yesterday in honor of Mrs. Ober's birthday. Those present were Mrs. A. C. Ober, Palmyra; Mrs. Emma Seibert, Hummelstown; Mrs. John G. Hoffman, Manheim; Mrs. William Morning, Elizabethtown; Mrs. Elizabeth Shook, Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Myers, Mrs. C. E. Bowser, Mrs. W. Weaver, Mrs. Baxter, Mrs. F. Conrad, Mrs. Gillette and daughter, Mary; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nusky, Mrs. Myers sang a solo which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Samuel Clouser, East Main street, is ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. Karl Keim is ill at her home on Ann street.

Mrs. L. C. Keim, of Steelton, spent yesterday in town.

Mrs. J. M. Ackerman spent Friday at Harrisburg visiting relatives.

MILLERSBURG

Sunday School Class Holds Annual Social and Banquet

Special Correspondence. Millersburg, Jan. 9.—Class No. 7, of the Evangelical Sunday school, of which H. H. High is teacher, held its annual social and banquet in the Pick building on Thursday evening. The class is composed of men and they had invited their ladies to share the evening's pleasure. A program was rendered, including orchestra music.

George Geesey, who has been janitor at the P. R. R. passenger station here for the past sixteen years, was retired from the company's service and placed on the pension list on January 1. Mr. Geesey is now 70 years of age and has been in the employ of the P. R. R. for thirty years.

J. Luther Johns, attorney-at-law, and his bride, of Chicago, were guests of Mrs. C. F. Miller and Mrs. F. M. Faust the early part of the week.

Mrs. P. F. Feidt, of this place, has

STEAMSHIPS

Go to Bermuda

Golf, Tennis, Boating, Bathing, and Cycling

Tours Inc. Hotels, Shore Excursions, Lowest Rates

Twin S. S. "BERMUDIAN" 10,513 Tons

Screw

Fastest, newest and only steamer

making passengers at the dock in Bermuda without transfer by tender.

WEST INDIES

S. S. Guiana and other Steamers

every fortnight for St. Thomas, St. Croix, St. Kitts, Antigua, Guadeloupe, Dominica, Martinique, St. Lucia, Barbados, and Demerara.

For full information apply to A. E. O'UTERBRIDGE & CO., Agents Quaker S. S. Co., Ltd., 20 Broadway, New York, or any Ticket Agent.

of Mrs. James Jacobs, East Locust street. Communion services will be held tomorrow morning in St. Luke's Episcopal church, conducted by the Rev. LeRoy Baker, a former rector of the church.

Lynn M. Irvine, was admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court at its sessions held in Philadelphia, this week. While in the city, he was the guest of relatives.

Miss Catharine Mumma has returned to Beechwood Seminary to resume her studies after spending her vacation at her home here.

Yesterday morning the Rev. Daniel Miller, an aged resident of town, was taken suddenly ill with vertigo while in the meat store of A. C. Deviney, South High street. He had given an order for meat, when Mr. Deviney noticed him becoming very pale and before Mr. Deviney could reach him he became unconscious and sank down. Dr. Louek who was passing, was called in and gave him necessary attention. He recovered sufficiently to be taken in a carriage to his home at York and Keller streets. At this time he is much improved.

Mrs. Ross Seaman, of Harrisburg, visited relatives here this week.

Levi Martin has returned from a visit to Philadelphia, he attended some of Dr. Sunday's meetings.

MIDDLETOWN

M. E. Sunday School to Render Special Program To-morrow

Special Correspondence. Middletown, Jan. 9.—The M. E. Sunday school will hold special services tomorrow afternoon at the Sunday school hour, starting at 1:30 o'clock. Following will be the program: Singing by school; prayer; singing; study of lesson and marking of class records; singing by school; piano solo, Catherine Weaver; recitation, Miss Edna Schaeffer; song, Miss Weller's class; piano solo, Pauline Reitzel; singing by school; report of the past year will be read by Superintendent N. C. Fuhrman as follows: Number enrolled, 509; attendance for the year, 1914, 15,414, a gain of 1,848 over the year 1913; average attendance, 297; smallest attendance, 150; largest attendance, 459; average attendance of teachers, 90 per cent.; new scholars, 70; collection for year, $471.15, not including missionary collections; visitors, 548; members of the school taken into the church, 50; deaths during the year, 2; those who did not miss during 1914, 36; missed one Sunday, 20; singing by school; presentation of gifts to those who did not miss any Sunday during 1914, Professor H. J. Wickey; report of secretary; closing song. All are invited to be present. Bring a new scholar along.

The union prayer meeting services held in the Church of God last evening were largely attended. The Rev. I. H. Albright delivered the sermon.

Mrs. Edward Paulis is ill at her home on Ann street with pneumonia.

Edward Fletcher, who has been visiting relatives in Philadelphia for the past several months, will return home Sunday.

George Resh, who had accompanied Alex. Sayda, driver for C. Steiner, of the Empire bottling works, met with an accident yesterday afternoon when they were delivering some goods to Conewago. When near the home of S. Manning, near the Colebrook road, the horse became frightened and ran to one side, tearing the top off the wagon and throwing Resh out, cutting a deep gash in his head.

Yesterday was pay day for the employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in town.

George Blotcher, of Paimouth, spent Friday in town as the guest of relatives.

Miss Elsie Laverty has returned home from a week's trip to Philadelphia and New York City.

Revival services will begin in the Church of God and the M. E. church on Sunday evening.

William Hopkins left on Friday for Royersford, where he has secured work in a foundry at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Christ Ober entertained a number of friends at their home on Emaus street yesterday in honor of Mrs. Ober's birthday. Those present were Mrs. A. C. Ober, Palmyra; Mrs. Emma Seibert, Hummelstown; Mrs. John G. Hoffman, Manheim; Mrs. William Morning, Elizabethtown; Mrs. Elizabeth Shook, Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Myers, Mrs. C. E. Bowser, Mrs. W. Weaver, Mrs. Baxter, Mrs. F. Conrad, Mrs. Gillette and daughter, Mary; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nusky, Mrs. Myers sang a solo which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Samuel Clouser, East Main street, is ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. Karl Keim is ill at her home on Ann street.

Mrs. L. C. Keim, of Steelton, spent yesterday in town.

Mrs. J. M. Ackerman spent Friday at Harrisburg visiting relatives.

MILLERSBURG

Sunday School Class Holds Annual Social and Banquet

Special Correspondence. Millersburg, Jan. 9.—Class No. 7, of the Evangelical Sunday school, of which H. H. High is teacher, held its annual social and banquet in the Pick building on Thursday evening. The class is composed of men and they had invited their ladies to share the evening's pleasure. A program was rendered, including orchestra music.

George Geesey, who has been janitor at the P. R. R. passenger station here for the past sixteen years, was retired from the company's service and placed on the pension list on January 1. Mr. Geesey is now 70 years of age and has been in the employ of the P. R. R. for thirty years.

J. Luther Johns, attorney-at-law, and his bride, of Chicago, were guests of Mrs. C. F. Miller and Mrs. F. M. Faust the early part of the week.

Mrs. P. F. Feidt, of this place, has

STEAMSHIPS

Go to Bermuda

Golf, Tennis, Boating, Bathing, and Cycling

Tours Inc. Hotels, Shore Excursions, Lowest Rates

Twin S. S. "BERMUDIAN" 10,513 Tons

Screw

Fastest, newest and only steamer

making passengers at the dock in Bermuda without transfer by tender.

WEST INDIES

S. S. Guiana and other Steamers

every fortnight for St. Thomas, St. Croix, St. Kitts, Antigua, Guadeloupe, Dominica, Martinique, St. Lucia, Barbados, and Demerara.

For full information apply to A. E. O'UTERBRIDGE & CO., Agents Quaker S. S. Co., Ltd., 20 Broadway, New York, or any Ticket Agent.

of Mrs. James Jacobs, East Locust street. Communion services will be held tomorrow morning in St. Luke's Episcopal church, conducted by the Rev. LeRoy Baker, a former rector of the church.

Lynn M. Irvine, was admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court at its sessions held in Philadelphia, this week. While in the city, he was the guest of relatives.

Miss Catharine Mumma has returned to Beechwood Seminary to resume her studies after spending her vacation at her home here.

Yesterday morning the Rev. Daniel Miller, an aged resident of town, was taken suddenly ill with vertigo while in the meat store of A. C. Deviney, South High street. He had given an order for meat, when Mr. Deviney noticed him becoming very pale and before Mr. Deviney could reach him he became unconscious and sank down. Dr. Louek who was passing, was called in and gave him necessary attention. He recovered sufficiently to be taken in a carriage to his home at York and Keller streets. At this time he is much improved.

Mrs. Ross Seaman, of Harrisburg, visited relatives here this week.

Levi Martin has returned from a visit to Philadelphia, he attended some of Dr. Sunday's meetings.

MIDDLETOWN

M. E. Sunday School to Render Special Program To-morrow

Special Correspondence. Middletown, Jan. 9.—The M. E. Sunday school will hold special services tomorrow afternoon at the Sunday school hour, starting at 1:30 o'clock. Following will be the program: Singing by school; prayer; singing; study of lesson and marking of class records; singing by school; piano solo, Catherine Weaver; recitation, Miss Edna Schaeffer; song, Miss Weller's class; piano solo, Pauline Reitzel; singing by school; report of the past year will be read by Superintendent N. C. Fuhrman as follows: Number enrolled, 509; attendance for the year, 1914, 15,414, a gain of 1,848 over the year 1913; average attendance, 297; smallest attendance, 150; largest attendance, 459; average attendance of teachers, 90 per cent.; new scholars, 70; collection for year, $471.15, not including missionary collections; visitors, 548; members of the school taken into the church, 50; deaths during the year, 2; those who did not miss during 1914, 36; missed one Sunday, 20; singing by school; presentation of gifts to those who did not miss any Sunday during 1914, Professor H. J. Wickey; report of secretary; closing song. All are invited to be present. Bring a new scholar along.

The union prayer meeting services held in the Church of God last evening were largely attended. The Rev. I. H. Albright delivered the sermon.

Mrs. Edward Paulis is ill at her home on Ann street with pneumonia.

Edward Fletcher, who has been visiting relatives in Philadelphia for the past several months, will return home Sunday.

George Resh, who had accompanied Alex. Sayda, driver for C. Steiner, of the Empire bottling works, met with an accident yesterday afternoon when they were delivering some goods to Conewago. When near the home of S. Manning, near the Colebrook road, the horse became frightened and ran to one side, tearing the top off the wagon and throwing Resh out, cutting a deep gash in his head.

Yesterday was pay day for the employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in town.

George Blotcher, of Paimouth, spent Friday in town as the guest of relatives.

Miss Elsie Laverty has returned home from a week's trip to Philadelphia and New York City.

Revival services will begin in the Church of God and the M. E. church on Sunday evening.

William Hopkins left on Friday for Royersford, where he has secured work in a foundry at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Christ Ober entertained a number of friends at their home on Emaus street yesterday in honor of Mrs. Ober's birthday. Those present were Mrs. A. C. Ober, Palmyra; Mrs. Emma Seibert, Hummelstown; Mrs. John G. Hoffman, Manheim; Mrs. William Morning, Elizabethtown; Mrs. Elizabeth Shook, Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Myers, Mrs. C. E. Bowser, Mrs. W. Weaver, Mrs. Baxter, Mrs. F. Conrad, Mrs. Gillette and daughter, Mary; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nusky, Mrs. Myers sang a solo which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Samuel Clouser, East Main street, is ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. Karl Keim is ill at her home on Ann street.

Mrs. L. C. Keim, of Steelton, spent yesterday in town.

Mrs. J. M. Ackerman spent Friday at Harrisburg visiting relatives.

MILLERSBURG

Sunday School Class Holds Annual Social and Banquet

Special Correspondence. Millersburg, Jan. 9.—Class No. 7, of the Evangelical Sunday school, of which H. H. High is teacher, held its annual social and banquet in the Pick building on Thursday evening. The class is composed of men and they had invited their ladies to share the evening's pleasure. A program was rendered, including orchestra music.

George Geesey, who has been janitor at the P. R. R. passenger station here for the past sixteen years, was retired from the company's service and placed on the pension list on January 1. Mr. Geesey is now 70 years of age and has been in the employ of the P. R. R. for thirty years.

J. Luther Johns, attorney-at-law, and his bride, of Chicago, were guests of Mrs. C. F. Miller and Mrs. F. M. Faust the early part of the week.

Mrs. P. F. Feidt, of this place, has

STEAMSHIPS

Go to Bermuda

Golf, Tennis, Boating, Bathing, and Cycling

Tours Inc. Hotels, Shore Excursions, Lowest Rates

Twin S. S. "BERMUDIAN" 10,513 Tons

Screw

Fastest, newest and only steamer

making passengers at the dock in Bermuda without transfer by tender.

WEST INDIES

S. S. Guiana and other Steamers

every fortnight for St. Thomas, St. Croix, St. Kitts, Antigua, Guadeloupe, Dominica, Martinique, St. Lucia, Barbados, and Demerara.

For full information apply to A. E. O'UTERBRIDGE & CO., Agents Quaker S. S. Co., Ltd., 20 Broadway, New York, or any Ticket Agent.

of Mrs. James Jacobs, East Locust street. Communion services will be held tomorrow morning in St. Luke's Episcopal church, conducted by the Rev. LeRoy Baker, a former rector of the church.

Lynn M. Irvine, was admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court at its sessions held in Philadelphia, this week. While in the city, he was the guest of relatives.

Miss Catharine Mumma has returned to Beechwood Seminary to resume her studies after spending her vacation at her home here.

Yesterday morning the Rev. Daniel Miller, an aged resident of town, was taken suddenly ill with vertigo while in the meat store of A. C. Deviney, South High street. He had given an order for meat, when Mr. Deviney noticed him becoming very pale and before Mr. Deviney could reach him he became unconscious and sank down. Dr. Louek who was passing, was called in and gave him necessary attention. He recovered sufficiently to be taken in a carriage to his home at York and Keller streets. At this time he is much improved.

Mrs. Ross Seaman, of Harrisburg, visited relatives here this week.

Levi Martin has returned from a visit to Philadelphia, he attended some of Dr. Sunday's meetings.

MIDDLETOWN

M. E. Sunday School to Render Special Program To-morrow

Special Correspondence. Middletown, Jan. 9.—The M. E. Sunday school will hold special services tomorrow afternoon at the Sunday school hour, starting at 1:30 o'clock. Following will be the program: Singing by school; prayer; singing; study of lesson and marking of class records; singing by school; piano solo, Catherine Weaver; recitation, Miss Edna Schaeffer; song, Miss Weller's class; piano solo, Pauline Reitzel; singing by school; report of the past year will be read by Superintendent N. C. Fuhrman as follows: Number enrolled, 509; attendance for the year, 1914, 15,414, a gain of 1,848 over the year 1913; average attendance, 297; smallest attendance, 150; largest attendance, 459; average attendance of teachers, 90 per cent.; new scholars, 70; collection for year, $471.15, not including missionary collections; visitors, 548; members of the school taken into the church, 50; deaths during the year, 2; those who did not miss during 1914, 36; missed one Sunday, 20; singing by school; presentation of gifts to those who did not miss any Sunday during 1914, Professor H. J. Wickey; report of secretary; closing song. All are invited to be present. Bring a new scholar along.

The union prayer meeting services held in the Church of God last evening were largely attended. The Rev. I. H. Albright delivered the sermon.

Mrs. Edward Paulis is ill at her home on Ann street with pneumonia.

Edward Fletcher, who has been visiting relatives in Philadelphia for the past several months, will return home Sunday.

George Resh, who had accompanied Alex. Sayda, driver for C. Steiner, of the Empire bottling works, met with an accident yesterday afternoon when they were delivering some goods to Conewago. When near the home of S. Manning, near the Colebrook road, the horse became frightened and ran to one side, tearing the top off the wagon and throwing Resh out, cutting a deep gash in his head.

Yesterday was pay day for the employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in town.

George Blotcher, of Paimouth, spent Friday in town as the guest of relatives.

Miss Elsie Laverty has returned home from a week's trip to Philadelphia and New York City.

Revival services will begin in the Church of God and the M. E. church on Sunday evening.

William Hopkins left on Friday for Royersford, where he has secured work in a foundry at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Christ Ober entertained a number of friends at their home on Emaus street yesterday in honor of Mrs. Ober's birthday. Those present were Mrs. A. C. Ober, Palmyra; Mrs. Emma Seibert, Hummelstown; Mrs. John G. Hoffman, Manheim; Mrs. William Morning, Elizabethtown; Mrs. Elizabeth Shook, Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Myers, Mrs. C. E. Bowser, Mrs. W. Weaver, Mrs. Baxter, Mrs. F. Conrad, Mrs. Gillette and daughter, Mary; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nusky, Mrs. Myers sang a solo which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Samuel