Absurd Beliefs About Hedgehogs In olden days the hedgehog was accredited with the possession of many wonderful powers. Pliny and after him Aelian and others have related how it would climb apple and fig trees, shake down the fruit and afterward fall upon and impale the fruit on its spines and carry them off spines and carry them off upon back. The belief that it was in habit of milking cows during the night is likewise a very old one.

TOWN IN PERIL FROM FLOOD

Safe Harbor Menaced By Waters of Conestoga River

Lancaster, Jan. 11.—The flood at Safe Harbor, caused by water from the Susquehanna river having backed up the Conestoga river, on which Safe Harbor for is located, a great gorge having formed below the mouth of the Conestoga, still threatens that place.

Early Saturday night the water began slowly receding, but later, becanse of the channel in the gorge choking up, the water began rising again, and to day is 25 feet above low water mark. Another gorge at Pequea threatens the low lying parts of the place.

Saturday 14 feet of the ice was shoved upon the Columbia and Port Deposit railroad there, but a "cut" through it allowed trains to pass yesterday. Serious trouble is apprehended at Pequea and Safe Harbor when the service began at 7.30, which as song service led by Prof. Hobgat, with Miss cree at the piano. Near members of the party were introduced to the congregation. Mr. Miller preached to the congregation. Mr. Miller preached a powerful sermon from Romans 12:1, "If beseech you, therefore, brethis, but the conestoga strift. The sevent your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service."

Special music was rendered by Miss Cree and Prof. Hobgatt, the tabernace was maintested by the large constitution of the channel in the gorge choking up, the water began rising again, and to the channel in the gorge choking up, the water began rising again, and to the channel in the gorge choking up, the water began rising again, and to the channel in the gorge choking up, the water began rising again, and to the channel in the gorge choking up, the water began rising again, and to the channel in the gorge choking up of choking up of the channel in the constance of the construction.
