CLAIMS BALL PLAYERS WERE TRADED FOR DOGS

' Brown Affirms Minneapoli Manager Got Bull in Exchange for Man—Jumping Players Arraign Organized Ball

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Affidavits that two ball players under contract under the National agreement were traded for dogs were among the documents filed yesterday in the Federal Court in support of the Federal suit against organized baseball.

Mordecai Brown, former Chicago National pitcher, submitted an affidavit concerning the dog transactions.

"Joe Cantillon, manager of the Minneapolis club of the American Association, at one time traded a professional ball player for a bulldeg." Brown swore. "Your affiant also believes that Roger Bresnahan, while manager of the St. Louis club of the National League, traded a professional player, a pitcher named Hopper, to Richard Kinsella, then manager of the Springfield (Ill.) club, in the Three-I League, for a bird dog."

A score of affidavits relating in detail alleged wrongs offered ball players by officials of organized baseball, together with copies of the National agreement, stenographic reports of speeches by baseball magnates and copies of contracts and telegrams by which the Federal League will attempt to support its suit were field.

The affidavits are headed by a lengthy document from Joseph Tinker, now manager of the Chicago Federals, at a salary of $12,500 a year. Tinker became a Federal, he said, when C. H. Ebbets, president of the Brocklyn National League club, offered him only $5,000 a year, according to the affidavit. Tinker wanted $7,500.

Ebbets termed this sum exorbitant and wrote Tinker: "While we expect to become a first-division team—yes, a possible championship contender—with all our bright prospects it is nevertheless unreasonable for us to pay you more than you have ever received as a player for a championship club."

Tinker also made a strong objection to the ten days' clause of the players' contracts.

Opportunity for advancement is de-

to the ten days' clause of the players' contracts.

Opportunity for advancement is denied the players, according to William Watkins, business manager of the Indianapolis Federals, by the following methods of organized ball:

1. Farming out players.

2. "Covering up." This is when a minor club owner has a promising player whom he wants to protect from the draft. The owner negotiates with a friendly major league club owner, according to Watkins, and an ostensible purchase made and the player delivered at the end of the season. When the time comes for the major league club to reduce the number of players the minor leaguer is returned to the club from which he came.

Otto Knabe, manager of the Baltimers Federals, as minor leaguer is returned to the club from which he came.

Otto Knabe, manager of the Baltimore Federals, affirmed that players were not allowed to make any suggestions relative to the printed form of their contracts. He also attacked the ten days' clause, which he said allowed the indiscriminate sale of players.

Other affidavits were filed by Edward Hanlon, director of the Baltimore club; Ennis T. Oakes, Pittsburgh manager, Lloyd H. Bickart, secretary to the Federal League; William Perritt, Pittsburgh pitcher; Edward Konetchy, Pittsburgh; Harry Goldman, secretary of the Baltimore Federals, and Lee Magee, of Brooklyn.

A stenographic copy of a speech by August Herrmann, president of the National Commission, in which he ridiculed the Federal League, also was filed.

Eastern League Five Will Play Harris-burg Independents

burg Independents

The management of the Harrisburg Independents has arranged to have the Trenton Eastern League team at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Saturday night. This will be the second game with an Eastern League team. The Independents defeated Camden several weeks ago and in view of the fact that Trenton has been playing very fast ball of late, Captain McCord has his men at hard practice and every man on the team will work hard to keep up the winning streak of the team.

Trenton so far this year is the only team who have defeated the Hazieton team on their own floor. Hazleton won fifteen games straight among them being other Eastern League teams and Trenton defeated them last week in a very close game. The game will be called at 8 o'clock and will be followed by usual dance.
