

STOPS HEADACHE, PAIN, NEURALGIA

Don't Suffer! Get a Dime Package of Dr. James' Headache Powders

You can clear your head and relieve a dull, splitting or violent throbbing headache in a moment with a Dr. James' Headache Powder.

SUBURBAN

NEW CUMBERLAND

Methodist Church Official Board to Meet To-morrow Night

Special Correspondence. New Cumberland, Jan. 12.—The official board of the Methodist church will meet on Wednesday night at the close of the revival services.

The evangelistic services in the U. B. church on Sunday were well attended.

The church choir and booster choir rendered excellent music.

On Saturday, January 9, the following persons were entertained at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's Lutheran church will meet at the home of Miss Ickes, at Elkwood, on Thursday evening.

Leroy Sutton's family moved to Hogestown yesterday, where Mr. Sutton has purchased Mr. Sailer's blacksmith shop.

Miss Edythe Zimmerman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fowler, 1117 Market street, Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Filbert Souders received word yesterday of the death of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lloyd Souders, who resided on a farm near Goldsboro.

Mrs. Margaret B. Powell visited her nephew, H. B. Bahn, at Steelton, Sunday.

Miss Mary Drayer spent Sunday with relatives at Carlisle.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brandt, of Mechanicsburg, visited Mr. Brandt's sister, Mrs. J. B. Hutchison, Jr., Reno street, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Troup, son and daughter, Mrs. Troup's mother, R. C. Troup, of York; William Troup, Mrs. Haines and daughter and Ralph Troup, of Harrisburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wright on Sunday.

Michael Drayer is spending a week with his brother, Daniel, at Carlisle.

Quite a number of people here are suffering with severe attacks of grip.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Joseph Bond Returns to College in New York State

Special Correspondence. Williamstown, Pa., Jan. 12.—Joseph Bond has returned to his studies at St. Stephen's College, Anandale, N. Y., after spending his holiday vacation with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, of Harrisburg, visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Allen Rowe, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Erin Adams entertained in honor of their daughter, Ethel's birthday, Saturday evening. The guests reported having a delightful time.

Miss Jennie Wolfe was a visitor to Pottsville Saturday.

William Powell, of Tower City, was a town visitor Sunday.

Miss Bessie Connors, of Lykens, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Kelly.

Wendell Blanning, of Harrisburg, visited his parents over Sunday.

Stanley Snyder, of Elizabethtown, was the guest of town friends on Sunday.

DAUPHIN

Miss Margaret Brooks Entertains Sunday School Class at Her Home

Special Correspondence. Dauphin, Jan. 12.—Miss Margaret Brooks entertained the members of her Sunday school class at her home on Saturday afternoon. The centerpiece for the table was of poinsettias and laurel. Minute pin cushions were given as favors.

Those present were Julyann Wierman, of Harrisburg; Emily Landis, May Kline, Lottie Wynn, Mary Grimm, Gertrude Smith, Margaret Garman and Catharine Bogue. Miss Brooks organized a sewing class, which will meet once a week, on Saturday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

The Literary Society of the Dauphin High school met at the home of Miss Esther Sheaffer on Friday evening. The following program was observed: Reading of the minutes by the secretary, Miss Alice Minsker; vocal solo, Miss Esther Sheaffer; referred questions, "What was President Wilson's last message to Congress?" and "What improvements are being made in the navy?" Miss Ruth McElme; piano solo, Miss Violet Wynn; referred question, "What are some useful hints about letter-writing?" Max Long; music, "Swing Song," High school girls; debate, "Resolved, that automobiles are more useful to man than horse and wagon," affirmative, Miss Alice Minsker, Miss Llewella Strohm and Miss Anna Hager, negative, Miss Sue Meyers, Miss Mary Garman and Miss Goldie Maeder, the negatives winning; recitation, "The Photograph Album," Miss Christina R. Long; music, "When You Were a Tulip and I Were a Big Red Rose," High school. The evening was spent in games and music. Refreshments were served.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the United Evangelical church and their families tendered their president, Miss Cora Cofredo, a birthday surprise party at her home on Friday evening. After a delightful evening, refreshments were served to Mrs. Mary Cofredo, the Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. George Shop, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Messer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Speece, Speeceville; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Welker, Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Le Roy McKissick, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Feaser, Mrs. Charles Bricker, Mrs. Samuel Mehaiffe, Miss Cora Cofredo, Miss Lydia Maurey, Miss Viola McKissick, Miss Alice Feaser, Samuel Maurey, Samuel Mehaiffe, Bion Welker, Paul Welker, George Feaser, John Mehaiffe, William Feaser and Ralph Feaser.

BLAIN

Teachers' Local Institute to Be Held January 15 and 16

Special Correspondence. Blain, Jan. 12.—The teachers' local institute will be held in the town hall on January 15 and 16. Dr. J. P. Woodruff, instructor of English at Susquehanna University, will deliver lectures on both days.

A meeting of the Literary Society was held in the High school. The question for debate was: "Resolved, That Washington Did More for His Country Than Lincoln."

Carlous Kistler, of near Newport, is visiting friends at this place.

The following officers were elected by the Methodist church: Superintendent, D. P. Stokes; assistant superintendent, C. R. Hench; secretary, Miss Olive Foose; treasurer, W. A. Kline; librarian, Miss Pauline Johnson; assistant librarian, Miss Effie Baker; organist, Miss Anna Petro; assistant organist, Miss Olive Foose; chorister, Lute Owings.

Mrs. G. G. Spohn, of Camden, N. J., is visiting her father, P. McKee.

The W. C. T. U. elected the following officers: President, Mrs. C. R. Hench; vice presidents, Mrs. J. Shambaugh and Mrs. D. H. Snyder; secretary, Mrs. R. M. Smith; treasurer, Mrs. Samuel Reen; corresponding secretary, Miss Elsie Baker.

NEW BLOOMFIELD

William C. Lebo to Represent Macca-bees at Millerstown Convention

Special Correspondence. New Bloomfield, Jan. 12.—At the weekly review of Tent No. 367, K. O. T. M., William C. Lebo was elected delegate to represent the tent at the county convention at Millerstown on January 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shearer were recent visitors to Harrisburg.

Miss Amy Kell, of Trenton, N. J., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Kell.

Mrs. George Eckard visited friends in Harrisburg last week.

The Rev. L. C. Smiley, of Lemoyne, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Loy.

Mrs. Jacob Fultz visited friends in Marysville.

Miss Olive Hays returned from spending a week with Mrs. Frank Steele near Duncannon.

Tent No. 37, K. O. T. M., has installed the following officers: Commander, M. M. Horn; lieutenant commander, L. B. Clouser; record keeper, William C. Lebo; master-at-arms, George Clouser; chaplain, A. E. Leitter; trustee, Charles W. Askins; sergeant, William F. Horn; picket, Robert M. Horn.

HALIFAX

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Fager, of Harrisburg, Sunday Visitors

Special Correspondence. Halifax, Jan. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Percival C. Fox announce the birth of a daughter.

Mrs. Lewis Wagner has returned to her home in Matamoras after visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. Stewart Potter.

Mrs. M. E. Behm spent Saturday at Harrisburg.

Mrs. W. B. Nace and Mrs. C. E. Knouff spent Saturday visiting friends at Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Fager, of Harrisburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Westfall over Sunday.

Frank Alvitz, of Millersburg, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Daniel Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Yeager spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. G. L. Wert.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Chubb, of Millersburg, visited at the home of Mrs. Mary Troutman over Sunday.

MILLERSTOWN

Funeral Services for William Blain Held Saturday Afternoon

Special Correspondence. Millerstown, Jan. 12.—The funeral services for William Blain were held at his late home on Saturday afternoon by the Rev. C. F. Himes, pastor of the Methodist church, assisted by the Rev. W. H. Dyer, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Interment was made in River-view cemetery. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. The primary school of which he was a pupil and the primary Sunday school class of the Methodist church, to which he also belonged, presented flowers.

Mrs. W. D. Bollinger and Mrs. J. I. Crane are visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Charles Noll is visiting friends in Green Park.

J. B. Allen, of Wormleysburg, spent several days with his mother, Mrs. J. B. Allen.

SHIREMANSTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. John Sheely Entertain Friends at Dinner

Special Correspondence. Shiremanstown, Jan. 12.—Mrs. Oliver Baker, of Lemoyne, visited her mother, Mrs. S. M. Comfort, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sheely entertained at dinner Sunday the following: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sheely and son, Robert, of Chambersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sheely and children, Ethel, Catherine and Lester, of White Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Brook Stare and daughter, Blanche, Green street, this place and I. A. Wrightston.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bates, of Florin, spent Sunday with sons here.

Miss Annie Laurie Feister spent Sunday with relatives in Lemoyne.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shumberger, of Good Hope, spent Saturday as guests of relatives in this place.

David Miller, of Harrisburg, visited

You Can Enjoy Life Eat what you want and not be troubled with indigestion if you will take a Rexall Dyspepsia Tablet before and after each meal. Sold only by us—25c a box. George A. Gorgas.

No More Piles

Simple Home Remedy Easily Applied Gives Quick Relief—and Costs Nothing to Try.

The Pyramid Smile from a Single Trial.

Pyramid Pile Remedy gives quick relief, stops itching, bleeding or protruding piles, hemorrhoids and all rectal troubles, in the privacy of your own home.

Pyramid Pile Remedy is for sale at all drug stores, 50c a box. A single box often cures.

A trial treatment will be mailed free for the asking, Pyramid Drug Co., 517 Pyramid Bldg., Marshall, Mich.—Adv.

at the home of Abe Bistline on Sunday.

George H. Rupp, of near this place, has returned home after spending two weeks in Philadelphia and Camden, N. J. While in Philadelphia he heard "Billy" Sunday and enjoyed his sermons very much.

The Rev. E. F. Emmeisenber closed the revival services on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Ida Hipfel, of Ephrata, was the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Rupp recently.

Joseph Bealer is very ill at his home with pneumonia.

Mrs. David Brinkley, of Lemoyne, spent Sunday with Mrs. Fannie Deckman.

The Misses Mae, of Mechanicsburg, spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Bates, East Main street.

MIDDLETOWN

1,000 Pupils Enrolled in Public Schools During December

Special Correspondence. Middletown, Jan. 12.—The School Board met last evening. The treasurer's report was read and approved. The total enrollment ending December was 1,099. The average attendance during the month was 913. The local institute will be held in the High school January 29 and 30. Thursday evening of this week Superintendent H. J. Wickey will turn over 100 pictures of Yellowstone Park and the new lantern presented to the schools by the Mothers' Congress Circle. A gas line will be extended to the physical laboratory.

Charles Houser was elected truancy officer for January. The bills ordered paid amounted to $405.46.

Dr. D. P. and Mrs. Deatrice and King Clark have returned home from a two days' visit to relatives at Gettysburg.

The Tennis Club basketball team and the Liberty team will play in the M. A. C. rooms this evening; also the Rescue and Wincroft teams.

Herbert Smith, of Bainbridge, spent Sunday in Royaltown as the guest of relatives.

As the meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers' bank held yesterday morning the following directors were elected: S. C. Young, S. C. Peters, John Longenecker, W. D. Matheson, H. H. Shellenberger, E. S. Gerberich and B. F. Brandt.

Squire T. C. and Mrs. Smith spent Saturday and Sunday at Reading as the guests of relatives.

The name of Miss Vonenna Treich was unintentionally omitted as being a gift for not missing a Sunday in 1914.

Wilmer Krone and Jacob McCreary, of Hill Island, spent yesterday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Moore and two children returned home on Monday evening from York, where they spent the past several days, having been called there on account of the death of Mr. Moore's mother.

Charles Frantz, who spent the past two weeks in town as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fratts, Catherine street, returned to Zanesville, Ohio, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Garman and daughter, Ruth, spent Sunday at Deodate as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Foltz.

Mrs. R. M. Orendorf and two children left Monday for Baltimore, where they will visit relatives for several months.

Harry Force, traveling salesman for the Wincroft stove works, is spending several days in town with his family on High street.

J. C. Beachler, who had been confined to his home on Ann street for the past three months, is able to be out again.

The revival meetings that are being held in the several churches this week are being largely attended.

Quite a number of persons attended the evangelistic meeting at Highspire Sunday evening.

HERSHEY

Lower End Teachers to Hold Institute January 15 and 16

Special Correspondence. Hershey, Jan. 12.—The teachers of Steelton, Hummelstown and Paxtang boroughs and the townships of Swartz and Derry will hold an institute in this place, Friday and Saturday, January 15 and 16. Following is the program: Friday, evening, 8 o'clock, in Hershey Central theatre: Music; High school chorus; invocation, the Rev. George S. Rentz; address of welcome, Director A. B. Shenk; music, "The Minstrel Boy," High school chorus; address, "The School Principal of Yesterday," Superintendent L. E. McGinness, Steelton; music, selected, Misses Wingert and Foltz, Messrs. Dubois and Keboch; adjournment.

Saturday, 9.15 A. M. in High School Building—Music, institute; invocation, the Rev. N. L. Linebaugh; educational waste, Prof. H. V. B. Garver; music, "Kilbarny," High school chorus; "Assistance to Pupils," (a) Destructive, Lillie M. Nankivell; (b) Constructive, Linnie V. Hess; latin, Marie H. Johnson.

Round Table—How much credit, if any, should be allowed pupils of the seventh and eighth grades in arithmetic when their principles are correct but err in the mechanical process? What is the best method of teaching geography in the fourth year? The value of play—its supervision.

Saturday, 1.30 P. M.—Music, vocal solo, Russell Clark; discussion, "De-vice, Their Use and Importance," Myrtle Garrett; address, County Superintendent F. E. Shambaugh; address, "The Educational Trinity," W. A. Geesey.

Round Table—"What I as a Teacher Am Trying to Do": (a) In home geography, (b) In local history, (c) In the study of pictures, (d) In the dramatization in reading, (e) In the dramatization for music, (f) In giving encouragement to the dull pupil, (g) In kindling the aspirations of pupils, (h) In the cultivation of a world-wide patriotism, (i) In securing and maintaining a proper reverence for the Bible, (j) To assist my principal, my superintendent and my directors, (k) For myself, physically, professionally, socially and financially.

The meetings are open to the public and everybody is welcome. The officers of the institute are as follows: F. D. Keboch, president; Gertrude Brubaker, secretary and treasurer. Committee, Charles S. Davis, George F. Dunkelberger, Roscoe Bowman, Walter A. Geesey.

Miss Ina Garman visited relatives at Reading.

Dr. A. W. Lamar, of Georgia, will deliver an address at the Hershey Central theatre on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. His subject will be "Christ's Vision of a Man."

A. M. Wilson, of Reading, was the guest of his son, P. S. Wilson, at this place.

Mrs. Lizzie L. Litterman is spending several weeks with friends at Manheim.

Miss Blanche Rober, of Newark, N. J., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Linn H. Hawbecker.

Miss Anna Bolton spent several days at her home at Duncannon.

Mrs. J. B. Leithiser is recovering from injuries received recently in a fall on the icy pavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolfe, of Annapolis, were the guests of George Geisaman and family.

Miss Esther Lehman spent a few weeks at her home at Pinegrove.

Miss L. Bender returned from Mr. Holly Springs, where he spent the holidays at his home.

ELIZABETHTOWN

Knights of the Golden Eagle Install New Officers

Special Correspondence. Elizabethtown, Jan. 12.—D. W. Barkholder, a treasurer for Muth Brothers, lumber and coal dealers, of this borough, was taken to the General hospital at Lancaster on Saturday, also Mrs. Francis Terry was taken to the same institution for surgical treatment.

The officers of the Knights of the Golden Eagle elected for the ensuing term were installed at their hall on Friday evening. There was a large attendance and a number of visiting knights took part in the exercises. A banquet followed at Horst's cafe.

Two editors are serving as officials on the board of health in their respective towns, John E. Hoffer, editor of the "Herald," is secretary of the M. J. Joy Board of Health, and J. G. West-aver, editor of the "Chronicle," is president of the local Board of Health.

The residence of the late Mary Ferry, on Brainbridge street, in this borough, was sold to J. S. Ulrich, for $2,000.

The poultry show held in the market house last week, closed on Saturday evening. The birds shown were of very fine order and the exhibition was well attended and proved a financial success.

The local band has been engaged to play at the inaugural parade in this borough, on full time Monday.

The Martin & Heagy Company started on full time Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eyer, West High street, announce the birth of a son, January 9.

L. D. Coble, S. F. Ulrich and Robert Forney attended the automobile show at New York last week.

Lawrence C. Gingrich and friends, of Lawa, were pleasantly entertained at the Masonic home Sunday.

Miss Cora E. Shaeffer, of this place, left on Tuesday for Pasadena, Cal., where she expects to stay.

Claude Dierolf, of Lancaster, a student at Mt. Airy Seminary, was for several days the guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dierolf, of this place.

Home will soon be opened to receive guests from the main building, so as to relieve the congested condition there.

The Crescent club basketball team, of this place, will play a game at Lancaster to-night.

William Finnegan, of the firm of Larch & Company, at Palmyra, spent Sunday with his family in this borough.

John M. Epler, of New York City, is here on a brief visit. He was a former citizen of this place and is engaged in railroad contract work.

MECHANICSBURG

Jacob H. Baker, 73, Dies at Home of His Daughter

Special Correspondence. Mechanicsburg, Jan. 12.—After a long illness, Jacob H. Baker died yesterday morning at the home of his daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Garman and daughter, Ruth, spent Sunday at Deodate as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Foltz.

Mrs. R. M. Orendorf and two children left Monday for Baltimore, where they will visit relatives for several months.

Harry Force, traveling salesman for the Wincroft stove works, is spending several days in town with his family on High street.

J. C. Beachler, who had been confined to his home on Ann street for the past three months, is able to be out again.

The revival meetings that are being held in the several churches this week are being largely attended.

Quite a number of persons attended the evangelistic meeting at Highspire Sunday evening.

The Rev. E. F. Emmeisenber closed the revival services on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Ida Hipfel, of Ephrata, was the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Rupp recently.

Joseph Bealer is very ill at his home with pneumonia.

Mrs. David Brinkley, of Lemoyne, spent Sunday with Mrs. Fannie Deckman.

The Misses Mae, of Mechanicsburg, spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Bates, East Main street.

CALL 1991-ANY PHONE. FOUNDED 1871. Open 8 A. M. Close 5.30 P. M. Bowman's HARRISBURG'S POPULAR DEPARTMENT STORE

In the January Silk Sale

(Which Starts To-morrow)

Prices Are 'Way Below Regular

This is an event looked forward to every January by economical shoppers who appreciate buying fine quality silks at such pleasing reductions in price, and it is our aim to make it a more worthy occasion just as sure as January appears on the calendar.

As a result of careful planning and buying, we believe this Silk Sale will fully outclass any previous one, because we have secured what promises to be the dominate weaves for Spring in true Spring shades and marked them at special prices. Also it is a disposal of staple and novelty silks from our own large stock, at reductions that you will approve.

First Spring Note in Novelty Silks --Reduced

Satin Foulards, 38c, from 50c—20 inches wide; small figures and floral designs; new shades—navy, Rocky Mountain blue, Russian, black, piping rock, Copenhagen, taupe, Belgian blue and Gettysburg grey.

Satin Foulards, 79c, from $1.00—36 inches wide; tete de negre, green, royal, navy and black; small floral figures of white.

Satin Foulards, $1.35, from $1.75—40 inches wide; in navy, dark green, light grey and wistaria; small conventional figures.

Crepe de Chines, 69c from $1.00—36 inches wide; all silk; colors are putty, sand, white, royal, black, navy, Copenhagen, wistaria and Russian green.

Taffetas, $1.35, from $1.50—36 inches wide; good quality chiffon taffeta, street and evening shades, in about fifteen different styles.

Crepe de Chines, $1.25 from $1.50; 40 inches wide; heavy quality; street and evening shades.

Main Floor—BOWMAN'S.

Black Silks at These Prices Will Go Quickly

18-inch black Satin Messaline, 29c from 50c.

23-inch black Satin Messaline, 49c from 75c.

26-inch black Satin Messaline, 69c from 85c.

35-inch black Satin Messaline, 89c from $1.19.

36-inch black Satin Messaline, 99c from $1.50.

25-inch black Chiffon Taffeta, 89c from $1.19.

35-inch black Chiffon Taffeta, 99c from $1.50.

40-inch black Crepe de Chines, $1.00 from $1.25; $1.25 from $1.50; $1.49 from $1.69.

35-inch black Chiffon Taffeta, 79c from $1.10.

35-inch black dress Poie de Soie, 99c from $1.25.

35-inch black dress Poie de Soie, 89c from $1.19.

35-inch black Satin Duchesse, 89c from $1.19; 99c from $1.25; $1.19 from $1.50; $1.29 from $1.69.

Main Floor—BOWMAN'S.

To-morrow Only Very Special at 59