ACTION OF SINGLE SPOONFUL

TWO PROSTS AND A CHILL

New York, Jan. 14.—"My days of usefulness are finished because of a love affair," said Harry gutson, 34 years, a gardener, but without a home, to Magistrate Herbert in the West Side court yesterday when charged with begging.

"It happened in Madison, Ill., last winter," Gutson continued. "I was to have been married, but arrives at the church late, to find that my fiancee had not waited. I returned to the farm where I was employed. I was frost bitten on the way. Since then death has stalked me and I have been unable to work."

Gutson got five days in the work-house.

Condition of Lack of Resistance, and Men Are Chronic Sufferers
Chicago, Jan. 14.—What is love!
Dr. Richard J. Tivnen diagnosed it last night. According to Dr. Tivnen, it is a disease, and its name is anaphylaxis.
While he asserted it was much more intractable than measles, he held out the hope that the malady could be cured by the surgeon's knife.

The occasion was a banquet given in honor of Dr. John F. Golden at the Chicago Athletic Association. Dr. Golden is to marry Miss Mary Lydon one week hence and Dr. Tivnen is to be the best man. It is only fair to say that
