JOHNSON AGAIN ON FENCE

Washington Pitcher Says He Will Go Wherever the Law Says He Belongs

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 14.—Walter Johnson, famous pitcher, is on the fence again and is worried over his recent flip-flop from the Washington club to the Chifeds and back again. Walter wants to do the right thing, but does not know which way to turn. He says so himself. He wants to maintain the respect of the fans and says he will abide by the decision of the courts and will go wherever the law says he belongs. He also declares he will give either the Washington or Chicago feds the best he has in stock. The Idaho wonder says he is influenced by Fred Clarke, manager of the Pittsburgh club, and Clarke Griffith, manager of the Washington team, aided by several lawyers, into believing that he was unquestionably the property of the Washington club, and had made a fatal mistake in signing with the Chicago feds through Manager Tinker. He, therefore, stopped back to organized baseball. This information comes through an emissary for President Weeghman, who a few days ago visited Johnson at his home near Coffeyville, Kansas. "I hope the fans will be lenient with me, no matter how my case comes out," said Johnson to Weeghman's representative. "I tried to do business with the Washington officials and they ignored my letters. I gave them five weeks to think over and at the end of that time I met Joe Tinker. He offered me $17,500 a year for two years and gave me $6,000 in advance. The president of a bank at my home was a witness and received the money."

WILL ARREST JOHNSON

General Carranza Says He'll Turn Jack Over to United States
El Paso, Jan. 14.—Jack Johnson, negro heavyweight champion fighter, will be arrested the moment he lands at any Mexican port held by General Carranza, says an official statement from Vera Cruz yesterday. There is no Atlantic port at which Johnson, on his way to Juarez to fight Jess Willard March 6 for the world's title, could safely land while this prohibition is in effect. To reach Juarez by way of some Pacific port held by Villa forces would make Johnson and his party go 2,500 miles out of their way. If Johnson is caught by Carranza troops he will be deported as an undesirable alien or turned over to United States authorities, it is announced.

Buffalo Feds to Sue Caldwell
Chicago, Jan. 14.—The Buffalo Federal League Club will begin suit for damages against Pitcher Ray Caldwell, who decided to join the New York Americans having, it is said, signed a Buffalo contract, but will make no effort to force him to leave the Yankees, according to President Gilmore, who returned from Buffalo yesterday. The Buffalo Club was reimbursed by New York the amount it had advanced to Caldwell, $2,500.

SHUGRUE BEATS CROSS

Wins Easily From Leach, Who Tries For Knockout

New York, Jan. 14.—Joe Shugrue had a picnic with Leach Cross at Madison Square Garden last night. The Jersey boy outpointed Leach so far that there wasn't any question as to who had won. Only once was Joe in danger from the dentist's hard knocks. In the second round Leach caught Joe with a brace of lefts and rights, and just when it looked as if Shugrue was going to go down for a little count, Cross rushed into a clinch and held the Jerseyite up. Shugrue held on when he got the chance, and by the time Cross had broken away Joe's head was clear again.

Cross went into the ring with one idea. He wanted to put Shugrue out with a single punch. He spent three-fourths of his valuable fighting time trying to reach Joe's chin, but Shugrue was never in better form, and he played with the hard hitting East Sider much as a cat would with a mouse.

BENFER TURNS DOWN OFFER

Reading Wanted College Man to Jump Center

Myerstown, Pa., Jan. 14.—Captain "Haps" Benfer, the Albright College star, has turned down still another tempting offer to jump from the amateur ranks to those of the professional in refusing the offer of the Reading team of the Eastern League of Basketball Clubs. Manager Al Berliner, with Captain Andy Sears and several other Reading men, motored over to Myerstown for a talk with Benfer, during which a strong effort was made to secure his signature to a Reading contract.

While terms were alluring, Captain Benfer finally declined the offer, declaring his intention to continue at Albright and maintain his amateur standing in college sports. His decision proved a disappointment to the Reading men.

To Bore Iron

The following method is said to be effective when one has not the proper tools for making a hole in an iron plate:

Shape a stick of sulphur to the required dimensions of the hole, then heat the iron white hot at the place where it is to be bored and press the sulphur against it. Sulphur of iron is formed, and the stick passes through the metal.—Exchange.

Surnames in England

History shows that surnames did not come into general and hereditary use in England until after the Norman conquest, when the upper classes were first known by the names of their lands. The lower orders took the names of trades, birds, animals and various other objects in art and nature. We are told that the earliest English surname is "Hatte."
