REHEARSING THE "MIKADO"

Operatic Society Promises It Will Be Their Best Production

Great interest was manifested in the rehearsal of the Harrisburg Operatic Society last evening. The large chorus of sixty mixed voices are putting the finishing touches on their previous work. The "Mikado" promises to be the best production of the operatic society ever given. It will be staged at the Majestic theatre on February 11 and 12. The public is given a chance to get a pleasing evening's entertainment and at the same time help the starving Belgians to whom the proceeds will be devoted.

The good old melodies, excellently rendered, will greet one's tympanum with the intimacy and delight of ever welcome friends.
