saved. If you knew the judgment day was coming in one week from to-night, every dance hall, every saloon, every club room, every pool room in Mechanicsburg would be closed, and this tabernacle and every church would be crowded to the doors.

I feel that there is some one in this congregation who is going to die before these meetings close, and he's not saved. Ever since you took your first step away from Jesus Christ, He's been right at your side, waiting for you to come back. Won't you come back to-night?

The ushers then passed decision cards through the audience, and after a few more words by the evangelist, and the singing of "Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling," by the choir, they were gathered. Nine were signed.

This afternoon was the children's parade and rally and this evening the children's "booster chorus" will lead the singing at the preaching service in the tabernacle.

To-morrow morning the co-operating churches will hold their regular Sunday school and preaching services, but no other services during the day. At 2.30 Mr. Miller will preach to men only in the tabernacle, on "The Dual Man,"

Catherine and Elizabeth the mania for adopting foreign names was rife in Russia, and on many places known in old Russian history German names were bestowed, most of which remain to this day.

After the treaty of Berlin, when Count Ignatiev, who had been Russia's ambassador in Constantinople became at first minister of the interior and then president of the Slavonic society, he, Kamenov, and a number of other Slavophiles started a movement in favor of altering those German names to their Russian equivalents or to the original Slav appellations, wherever there were any such. In time, no doubt, Peterhof, Oranienbaum, Yekaterinburg, Oranienburg and a host of other places will also be rechristened, and Count Ignatiev's proposal will be fully carried out.—Dr. E. J. Dillon in Manchester Guardian.

PETROGRAD. The New Name Is Simply a Return to the Original One. The city heretofore known as St. Petersburg is in future to be called Petrograd. This apparent innovation is in reality a return to the name which Peter the Great's second capital had borne from the beginning. All the old books published in that city during the latter part of Peter's reign and those of his immediate successors bear the word Petrograd on the title pages.

"Grad" and "gorod" are two forms of the same word, which means "city" or "town." Etymologically it signifies an inclosed space and belongs to the same root as the English word "garden." It occurs in hundreds of Slav geographical names—as, for instance, in Novgorod, "new town"; Ivanogrod, Elizabethgrad, Exinogrod. Constanti-nople itself is often called in Russian the "emperor's city."—Ozaregrad. During the reigns of the Emperors

"BACKSLIDERS" RECEIVE ATTENTION OF EVANGELIST

Mechanicsburg Tabernacle Crowded Last Night to Hear Mr. Miller Speak on Shortcomings of Christians—Children's Rally This Afternoon

(Special to the Star-Independent.) Mechanicsburg, Jan. 16.—Last evening a large congregation gathered in the tabernacle to hear Evangelist Miller preach on "Backsliders." The opening prayer was offered by Dr. A. S. Faisick, of Carlisle, M. E. district superintendent, and the scripture lesson was read by the Rev. J. M. Mell, of the Church of God, of Shiremanstown. The choir sang "The Word of God Shall Stand," each member holding a Bible aloft during the chorus, with impressive effect. Just before the sermon Miss Cree and Professor Houghatt sang very beautifully, "Looking This Way."

Mr. Miller held the closest attention of the large assemblage while he preached with great force from the words in Jeremiah 2:19: "Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall prove thee; and know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts." Mr. Miller assigned as one of the principal reasons why Christians backslide, their becoming careless of their religious duties. He said:

"They read the Sunday newspaper. They neglect the prayer life. Just as the trolley car, as it goes up the hill, if it becomes disconnected from the power wire, backslides, so the Christian, if he becomes disconnected from the power wire of heaven—prayer—backslides. Wordly amusements are another cause of backsliding. The Christian, who plays cards, dances and attends the theatre, because others do it, is selling his soul mighty cheap to please a little clique he travels with. If the man who sells liquor goes to hell, the man who signed the application for him to sell it will go to hell along with him. You may belong to the church and do certain things, but you don't belong to the body of Christ. In the judgment day, God will not examine the church roll, to find your name, but the book of the seven seals. If you are a backslider, you have lost all your joy in the Christian life, and all power with the un-

100 Years Old

This institution has just closed its hundredth year in banking.

It is but natural that at the end of a century we should pause and take note of what has been achieved.

And what a contrast we find in the conditions under which we face the second century, when compared with those that surrounded the little group of men who inaugurated this bank back in 1814.

Compare the limited facilities at their disposal with the paid in capital, surplus and profits and stockholders' liability of to-day, totaling a million dollars—a security that stands back of every dollar deposited in this bank.

Theirs was to win confidence—ours is to sustain.

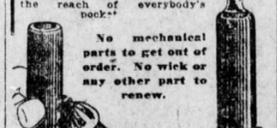

As we cross the threshold of the one hundred and first year, we pledge ourselves to maintain those principals that will merit a continuance of the public's trust reposed in us—a trust to which must be credited all our accomplishments and success of the past century.
