

SUBURBAN

HIGHSPIRE

Funeral of Mrs. Annie Beinhaur Wednesday Afternoon

Highspire, Jan. 15.—Gary Mathias, of Harrisburg, visited his mother, Mrs. John Mathias, Market street, this week. Mrs. Ross Yaple and daughter, Mary, of Harrisburg, visited friends in the borough this week.

T. A. Gruber spent Wednesday with J. C. Leyder, in Thompsonstown. Lewis Beard is seriously ill at his home on Jury street.

Postmaster K. F. Mathias has returned from a visit to his daughter, Miss Josephine Mathias, in Annville. Mrs. John A. Raudbaugh, Second street, spent Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Lindemuth, in Middletown.

Charles F. Shaub, Race street, is convalescing from injuries received at the Semet-Solway coke plant last week when he was thrown from a six-inch pipe, falling fourteen feet to the ground. The accident was caused by the sudden explosion of a gas bleeder. His injuries consisted of a badly bruised nose and right thigh.

The funeral of Mrs. Annie Beinhaur, who died at the home of her son, Benjamin, Marsh Run, Sunday, was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Diffenderfer, Lumber street, Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The Rev. H. F. Rhoad and the Rev. B. L. C. Baer, pastors of the United Brethren church and the Church of God, respectively, officiated. Interment was made in the Highspire cemetery. She is survived by the following children: Benjamin, Charles, David, York county; Mrs. William Diffenderfer, and one brother, David B. Kaufman, of Highspire.

The Rev. C. E. Hillis will preach in the local United Brethren church tomorrow morning at 10:15 o'clock. Sunday in the evening at 7 o'clock. Sunday school at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. At 3 p. m. the Rev. C. E. Hillis will preach to men only on the subject, "Highspire Men Exposed."

HALIFAX

William R. Schell, Former Postmaster, Dies at Reading

Special Correspondence. Halifax, Jan. 16.—William R. Schell, a former postmaster of this place, died at Reading where he had been employed for some time, Friday morning. The body was brought to his home in this place this afternoon. The funeral arrangements could not be learned at this writing. Mr. Schell was aged about 55 years. He leaves a wife and three daughters, Mrs. Claude Troutman, of Reading; Mrs. Harry T. Pike, of Philadelphia, and Miss Florence, at home. Martin Connor, of Washington, D. C., is the guest of his cousin, Mrs. H. Stewart Potter.

Mrs. Roy Glace, of Harrisburg, is the guest of Mrs. Jane Miller and family. About twenty members of the H. A. C. Club took in Ethel Barrymore's new play, "The Shadow," at the Majestic theatre, Harrisburg, Friday evening. They took supper at the Senate before the play.

H. Stewart Potter spent Thursday evening in Millersburg.

NEWVILLE

Union Meeting Held Under Direction of No-License League

Special Correspondence. Newville, Pa., Jan. 16.—The union meeting under the direction of the No-License League which was held in the Church of God on Wednesday evening proved to be an enthusiastic one. The church was filled and a number returned to their homes owing to the crowded conditions. The papers, which had been prepared re-monstrating against the granting of liquor licenses to the proprietors of the two hotels in this place, were presented and action was taken to remonstrate.

Mrs. P. A. Garber, of Carlisle, spent Thursday with Newville relatives and friends. Mrs. Margaret Manning, aged 77 years, died at her home on Big Spring avenue Wednesday afternoon after an illness of a few days. Mrs. Manning was the widow of the late Henry Manning, a former member of the State Legislature. She is survived by one son, Edgar S. Manning, at home. She was a member of the Big Spring Presbyterian church and was held in high esteem in this community. The funeral service was held on Friday afternoon. Interment in the Big Spring Presbyterian cemetery.

Mrs. Neely, wife of Dr. E. C. Neely, a physician of this place, died at Harrisburg on Tuesday morning. Mrs. Neely was formerly Miss Mary Daugherty. The funeral was held on Friday morning.

WEST FAIRVIEW

Men's Mass Meeting in U. B. Church To-morrow Afternoon

Special Correspondence. West Fairview, Jan. 16.—The united evangelistic effort between the United Brethren and Methodist churches is growing nightly in interest. About twenty persons have professed conversion to date. The meeting Sunday night will be held in the U. B. church. A men's mass meeting will be held in the U. B. church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

o'clock, a male chorus will sing and the Rev. S. B. Bidlack, pastor of the Methodist church, will deliver an address on "Man, the Master Builder." Mrs. Hiram Dunbar, South Main street, is seriously ill.

Mrs. George Phillips, Mrs. Edward Kutz and daughter, Catherine; Miss Esther Shettel, Mrs. F. D. Luse and Miss Susie Lynch have all been on the sick list but are improving.

The Rev. S. B. Bidlack was to his Marysville appointment yesterday to officiate at a funeral.

The junior class of the High school held the regular monthly meeting at the home of Joseph Wachtman, Third street, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Nettie Sunday, of Harrisburg, is spending a few days with her brother, Edward Kutz.

HERSHEY

Revival Services in U. B. Church Continue With Unabated Interest

Special Correspondence. Hershey, Jan. 16.—Ewing Cain has returned from a business trip of several days to New York City.

Miss Grace Beam, of Philadelphia, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Snyder.

The Rev. O. G. Romig, of Tower City, spent a few days with his family at this place.

Miss Dorothy Sellers spent Sunday at her home at Middletown.

Mrs. Eli Rhine spent a few days at Lancaster, being the guest of W. P. Austin and family.

Mrs. J. E. Hillis entertained the Ladies' Matinee Five Hundred Club at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

William P. Lappin returned from a visit to Philadelphia.

Miss Pauline Clark is on the sick list.

Miss Florence Landgraph spent a few days at her home at Lebanon.

Miss Mary Nissley, of Middletown, was the guest of Miss Edna Landis.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Nye, of Penbrook, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Wirt on Sunday.

The revival services in the United Brethren church are still in progress and the interest and attendance is on the increase. Thus far there have been thirty conversions.

Jacob M. Gingrich attended the meeting of the Eastern Retail Implement and Vehicle Dealers' Association at the Hotel Walton, Philadelphia.

DILLSBURG

Night School Now in Operation Meeting With Success

Special Correspondence. Dillsburg, Jan. 16.—The night school conducted by Prof. C. S. Smith, and Prof. H. M. Evans is in operation now and has met with success. The hall on the third floor of the J. H. Deck building has been fitted up and sessions are held Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evening of each week. There are at present thirty-seven students.

The young men of this place have succeeded in organizing a Y. M. C. A. with the following officers: C. W. Gross, president; C. S. Smith, secretary; C. K. Bushey, vice president and M. P. Dearborn, treasurer. The place of meeting has not been definitely decided upon.

Bruce S. Klugh, who recently buried his wife, held public auction of his household effects this afternoon.

J. B. Bueche, who was stricken with paralysis last week is still improving but is still confined to his bed.

J. E. Arnold, proprietor of the laundry is about his work again.

On account of the evangelistic services beginning in the Franklintown church, to-morrow evening, the preaching service in the Lutheran church at this place will be to-morrow afternoon at 2:30.

The new printing press in the "Bulletin" Publishing Company's building has been successfully operated this week and the "Bulletin" will now be published at the home office.

Mrs. Victor Jones, of York, has been spending a few days visiting her parents, A. D. Altland and wife.

Charles Stouffer, of Philadelphia, spent yesterday afternoon visiting his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Stouffer, of this place. He had been engaged at St. Mary's Pa., where he had charge of an invalid. He returned to Philadelphia last evening where he will be engaged in St. Joseph's hospital.

NEW CUMBERLAND

Evangelistic Services at Baughman Memorial Methodist Church

Special Correspondence. New Cumberland, Jan. 16.—The evangelistic services at Baughman Memorial Methodist church, closing their first week, have been largely attended.

To-morrow evening at 10:30 the pastor, the Rev. J. V. Adams, will preach on "The Home." The adult chorus of 100 voices, under the direction of the musical director, H. W. Buttorff, will lead in the singing at this service.

A praise and prayer service will be conducted by the Epworth League, R. L. Beckley, leader, at 6:30. At 7:30 o'clock the subject of the sermon will be "A Prophecy With a New Testament Message." The adult chorus will lead in an inspiring song service, under the leadership of N. F. Burns, who also sing. Miss Henrietta Adams will sing "The Perfect Day," with piano accompaniment by Ira Buttorff and Ira Rider, respectively. The Emerson Glee Club will also sing at this service.

A. Baldwin's family moved to Harrisburg yesterday.

Communion services will be held in St. Paul's Lutheran church at 10:30 a. m. to-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cumber, of near Newport, Perry county, were entertained by Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Good yesterday.

M. A. Hoff, funeral director, of this place, had charge of the funeral of Mrs. Maria Bonower, which was held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Diffenderfer, Highspire, on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. R. Hutchison, Jr., is spending several days with friends in Harrisburg.

Mrs. Martin Crull and daughter, Laura, of Middletown, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Miller, in New Market.

LOYSVILLE

Maccabees Will Hold Festival and Dance This Evening

Special Correspondence. Loysville, Pa., Jan. 16.—The Maccabees will hold a chicken soup festival and dance this evening in their hall.

Mrs. Samuel Rhoads has recovered from her fall on an icy pavement. She will suffer no ill effects from her accident.

Mrs. H. D. Koppenhagen is visiting

Uneeda Biscuit

Tempt the appetite, please the taste and nourish the body. Crisp, clean and fresh—5 cents in the moisture-proof package.

Baronet Biscuit

Round, thin, tender—with a delightful flavor—appropriate for luncheon, tea and dinner. 10 cents.

Zu Zu

Prince of appetizers! Makes daily trips from Ginger-Snap Land to waiting mouths everywhere. Say Zu Zu to the grocer man, 5 cents.

Buy biscuit baked by NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY Always look for that name her daughter, Mrs. William Boggs, of near Ellettsburg.

Miss Nellie Culbertson is visiting relatives in Lancaster.

Miss Hope Briner spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Briner.

William and Gertrude Peck, of Saville township, were in town on Monday.

J. J. Rice, of New Bloomfield, spent some time in town.

H. V. Palm spent the week-end in New Bloomfield.

H. C. Billman killed two hogs that weighed 404 and 427½ pounds, respectively.

NEW BLOOMFIELD

Criminal Business Poor and Grand Jury Is Out of Job

Special Correspondence. New Bloomfield, Jan. 16.—The annual Academy opera, "Sylvia," will be rendered in the Court House on Tuesday evening, January 26.

John Rice, of Loysville, was in town this week.

Miles Flickinger, of Duncannon, spent the beginning of the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. V. Flickinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob W. Hoffman were visitors in town on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. Attig Spahr spent the week-end visiting relatives in Harrisburg.

The public schools of this town will hold their annual entertainment on Saturday evening, February 20.

The grand jurors of the January term of court of this county have been notified not to attend court as there is no business to bring before them.

John Pecary, of Ellettsburg, was in town on Wednesday.

MARYSVILLE

Paul Steese and Miss Mary Morris, of Renovo, Married

Special Correspondence. Marysville, Pa., Jan. 16.—The Marysville orchestra was entertained by Verne Dissinger Wednesday evening at his home. Refreshments were served.

Paul Steese, of this place, and Miss Mary Morris, of Renovo, were united in marriage on Tuesday by the Rev. Winfield Booth, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harrisburg.

Ralph Smith spent Thursday at Philadelphia.

W. F. Palmer spent Wednesday with his aunt, Mrs. C. A. Spangler, at York.

Mrs. Scott S. Leiby is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Tyson, at Harrisburg.

Mrs. B. O. Strausbaugh, of New Freedom, spent Friday with her mother, Mrs. Amanda Eppley.

Miss Elizabeth Nace is spending a

Take Care of Your Eyes and They'll Take Care of You

For advice, consult

E. S. School

EYESIGHT SPECIALIST

With H. C. Custer, 202 Market Street.

GEO. H. SOURBIER

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

130 NORTH THIRD STREET

week with her cousin, Miss Clara Nace, at Baltimore.

Charles Lilley is visiting his brother-in-law, Isaac Ford, in Baltimore.

HUMMELSTOWN

John Dewalt Died Yesterday After Short Illness With Pneumonia

Special Correspondence. Hummelstown, Jan. 16.—John Dewalt died yesterday at noon at his home on West Main street after less than a week's illness with pneumonia.

Mr. Dewalt was a resident of the borough for the past eight years and was a passenger engineer in the employ of the Reading Railway Company for thirty years, running on the milk train between Harrisburg and Reading.

He is survived by a widow and three daughters, Mrs. Noah Jones, of Harrisburg; Mrs. Philip Rozer, of Reading; and Mrs. Albert E. Burridge, of town.

Mr. Dewalt formerly resided in Reading and was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and of Muhlenberg Lodge No. 1085, of Reading. Funeral services will be held at his late home on Monday evening at 8 o'clock and will be conducted by the Rev. Robert A. Bausch, pastor of the Reformed church. The body will be taken to Reading Tuesday morning for interment in the Charles Evans cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Givler and granddaughter, of Mechanicsburg, are visiting Miss Annie Hummel, and Charles Hummel at their home in Centre square.

Preparatory services were held in the Reformed church last evening. The Holy Communion will be observed at both the morning and evening services to-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Strickler were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Uria Bloom at Sunbury this week, where Mr. Strickler served as juror at the sessions of the United States District Court.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Blough Bros. Shoe Manufacturing Company the following board of directors was elected: B. F. Blough, W. R. Blough, H. C. Forney, P. J. Schaffner, B. N. Herman. The board organized by electing W. R. Blough president; F. J. Schaffner, vice president; B. F. Blough, treasurer; H. C. Forney, secretary, and B. N. Herman, auditor. The company at present is in a flourishing condition and has a number of orders booked. A dividend of 3½ per cent, was declared, based on the earnings for the past six months.

Homer H. Strickler spent the week in Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

The seventh anniversary of the men's Bible class of Zion Lutheran church will be observed to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the parish house.

The Rev. L. B. Wolf, D. D., of Baltimore, secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the Lutheran church, will deliver an address. Dr. Wolf will preach at the evening service in Zion church to-morrow.

Mrs. H. R. Bell has returned to her home at State College after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Earley.

The assessment of the borough has been completed by Homer H. Strickler, borough assessor. The number of taxable values who are residents is 783. The increase in the value of real estate by the erection of houses and improvements is $18,600. The personal property returns aggregate $272,336.34, with a number of returns not yet reported. The total number of names contained in the military roll is 443.

LEMOYNE

Trinity Lutheran Church Will Observe Twenty-fifth Anniversary

Special Correspondence. Lemoyne, Jan. 16.—Mrs. David Smith, Mrs. Leslie Kennedy and son, William, were Thursday visitors at Steelton.

Miss Esther Von Statton, of Enola, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Powell, and family.

Mrs. W. P. Eichelberger and son, William, of White Hill, visited her sister, Mrs. F. E. Kennedy.

Mrs. Rhoads, of Idaville, Adams county, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Martin Shaffer, of Hecman avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greenwalt and daughter, Edna, visited relatives at Carlisle.

Mrs. Leslie Kennedy and son, William; Mrs. David Smith, Mrs. Robert Greenwalt and daughter, Edna, visited relatives in Harrisburg.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the establishment of Trinity Lutheran church will be observed with appropriate services beginning with the Sunday morning services at which time the Rev. H. H. Weber, of York, will preach; at the evening service, the Rev. E. D. Weigle, of Camp Hill; Monday evening, the Rev. Hall Sharp, Mechanicsburg; Tuesday evening, the Rev. Mr. Meisenholder, Harrisburg; Wednesday evening, the Rev. L. E. Mangos, of Harrisburg.

Miss Edie Bentz is visiting relatives in York.

MIDDLETOWN

I. O. Nissley Elected President of Borough Auto Club

Special Correspondence. Middletown, Jan. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. John Irely and son, Herbert, left this morning for York, where they will visit relatives for a week.

Preparatory services were held in St. Peter's Lutheran church last evening and communion services will be held to-morrow morning and evening.

At a meeting of the Middletown Auto Club held at the office of A. H. Luckenbill on Thursday evening, the following officers were elected: President, I. O. Nissley; vice president, Adam H. Luckenbill; secretary and treasurer, Harry Smith; board of governors, J. W. Felt, Dr. D. W. C. Laverty, E. K. Gerberick, E. F. Hartman and Dr. H. H. Rhoder.

The Misses Salina and Mary Fletcher, who had been visiting relatives in town for the past several weeks will return to their home at Philadelphia to-morrow.

Quite a number of members of Washington Camp No. 371, P. O. S. of A., attended the Past Presidents' Association meeting held by Camp No. 500, at Harrisburg last evening.

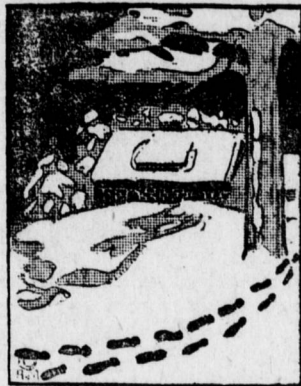

The Young Indian Runners' drum corps has elected the following officers: President, John Stoltz; vice president, John Condran; secretary, Theodore Wolf; financial secretary, Daniel Shroy; treasurer, Richard Schaeffer; life leader, John Stoltz; first assistant, Daniel Shroy; second assistant, William Heagy; drum leader, John Condran; assistant, Richard Schaeffer. They will hold a social in the near future to raise money for new uniforms.

The Rev. Fuller Bengtsson, pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran church, will spend several days at Gettysburg where

CALL 1991-ANY PHONE. 1871

Bowman's
HARRISBURG'S POPULAR DEPARTMENT STORE

Coming Events Cast Their Shadows Before Them

Folks visiting the rear of the third floor during the past couple days may have marveled at the imposing rows and piles of wooden boxes. Truly, it was an unusual sight, and more surprising is the fact that everyone was packed with shoes for

An Unparalleled Sale of Women's Shoes

There are nearly three thousand five hundred pairs—stylish lasts for women and misses, and values will be extraordinary. Sale starts Tuesday morning and details will be published Monday evening. Following this wonderful sale, will be the

January Clearing Sale

Which starts Wednesday morning. A semi-annual event for reducing stocks in preparation for inventory. Not far distant is the great

February Furniture Sale

With its vast stocks of furniture and greatly lowered prices. Extensive preparations are being made to insure this being the greatest of its kind.

he will make an address to the students at the college.

Charles Schiefer will move April 1 from the Collins Farm near Palmyra, to the Swartz farm below Royaltown.

Ivan Hoffmeister and son Karl, of Cumber Heights, spent last evening in town.

The Rev. Joseph Weirich is holding revival meetings at Stoverdale.

Alex Sada is ill at his home on Lawrence street, the result of being hurt in an accident last Saturday. Samuel Platt is working in his place.

Melvin Leonard transacted business at Harrisburg yesterday.

George Campbell, who spent the past week in town, having been called here on account of the serious illness of his grandmother, Mrs. Ed. Paulus, Ann street, returned to Fort Totten, N. Y., where he is in the service of Uncle Sam.

Edward Seiders, the groceryman, is ill at his home on Union street, with the grip.

John Haas, is preparing to move from the property on Ann street, where he conducted the hotel formerly owned by the late D. Snyder and Harry White will take possession some time next week.

The services held in the M. E. church last evening were largely attended. It being Sunday school night. The Rev. W. R. Ridington, preached a special sermon.

MILLERSBURG

Number of Citizens Attend Auto Show in Philadelphia

Special Correspondence. Millersburg, Jan. 16.—Foster Fulkroad, the ice dealer, recently purchased a vacant lot on the Union street extension, where he will erect a double dwelling in the near future.

Miss Edith Fetterhoff, of Berryburg, spent Thursday with Miss Gertrude Laffer.

C. P. Polk, C. G. Hackenberg, L. M. Shepp, H. M. Fairchild and O. H. Watts attended the Philadelphia auto show this week.

Mrs. John Penrose, of Canton, Ohio, is being entertained at the home of E. W. Steever.

On Monday evening a fine entertainment was given in the High school room by the Lebanon Valley College Glee Club.

Mrs. Charles Herrold and children, of Harrisburg, visited friends and relatives here this week.

MECHANICSBURG

Many Visiting Children Participate in S. S. School Rally Day Parade

Special Correspondence. Mechanicsburg, Jan. 16.—"All streets lead to the tabernacle." This is Children's Day, or Sunday School Rally Day at the tabernacle and there are many visiting children in town participating in the parade.

Last evening the Brotherhood of Trinity Lutheran church held a meeting in the church. An address was given by the Rev. H. K. Lantz, of St. John's Lutheran church, Shiremansburg.

Communion services will be held to-morrow in the First U. B. church.

To-morrow will be education day in St. Paul's Reformed church. Dr. V. W. Dippel, of the faculty of Franklin and Marshall College, will fill the pulpit.

The endowment fund of the college will be presented.

To-morrow morning Sunday school

Jail Only Place For Good Coffee

Lebanon, Jan. 16.—John Waeuvenio who has a good record of employment at the American Iron and Steel Manufacturing Company's plant, for the past nine years, likes Sheriff Strupp's fare at the county jail so well that he asked Alderman D. C. Smith, to send him to jail without setting bail for his release. He told the alderman that it is the only place where he gets