LATE WAR NEWS SUMMARY DETAILS OF DESPERATE

Poland which are attempting to advance toward the West Prussian border were repulsed.

Detailed descriptions of the battle along the Aisne, supplementing the brief announcements of the French and German War Offices, show that the fighting rivalled in ferocity that winth occurred along the Yser canal in Flanders, when the Germans attempted to break through to the English channel, although the number of men engaged was smaller. In the suburbs of Soissons were hand-to-hand encounters of the most desperate nature, in which the French Moroccan regiments distinguished themselves, using their rifles as clubs after their bayonets had been bent or broken in the struggle.

Advices from French sources say that the alled front in the positions taken and posted themselves on each side of the road. Not as sound was made

COTTON SHIPS RUN BETWEEN

COTTON SHIPS RUN BETWEEN
U. S. AND CONTINENTAL PORTS

London, Jan. 18, 3.59 A. M.—According to the latest German newspapers that have reached here the American embassy in Berlin has issued a notice stating that several American cotton steamers are now making direct trips between American and continental ports.

Sent to them twice with an order for retreat. During the night the German artillery roared ceaselessly in a bombardment of Soissons but at dawn of the 15th the artillery slacked and gave place to inafnrty fire.

The good practice of the French three-inch guns, guided by aerôplanes, prevented German reinforcements from debouching from the western slope of the Vregny plateau and the Germans, exhausted and discouraged at their lack of success retired in a body to Crouv toward this market was not encouraging, practically the entire international list showing declines, which extended to a point or thereabouts in Reading, St. Paul, Southern Pacific, New York Central and Atchison. By the end of the half hour the local market showed a firmer tendency all around, Canadian Pacific and Bethlehem gaining a full point.

Persons desirous of securing room for the return trips, the notice continues, can apply to any American consul in Germany for the names of steamers, the date of their departure Their front is stronger than ever. and other particulars.

bent or broken in the struggle.

Advices from French sources say that the allied front, in the positions taken up after the retreat, is stronger than ever. London suggests that the Germans may follow up their victory by inaugurating another forward movement. Berlin considers that the general offensive movement of the allies, said to have been ordered a month ago by General Joffre, has broken down.

Late reports from Petrograd emphasize the completeness of the victory said to have been gained over the Turkish troops. Of the forces at Kara-Urgan, according to the Russian War Office, large numbers were killed and the survivors were put to flight.

In Poland the Germans have again attacked the Russians west of Warsaw, but apparently have been unable thus far to break through the line of defense.

In North Poland the Russians contached and charged. The shock was awful. Bayonets were twisted out of shape and then the dusky soldiers used the butts of their rifles. For a second time the Germans gave way.

The Moroceans were told to hold the place till 5 p. m. It was then 6 o'clock but they still refused to retire. They did so only after a staff officer was sent to them twice with an order for retreat. During the night the German of success, retired in a body to Crouy
