Once Flourishing Town of Pescina a Mass of Ruins With More Than 4,000 of the Inhabitants Buried Under Fallen Buildings

Avezzano, via Rome, Jan. 19.—Grave news reached here to-day from the town of Ortucchio, southeast of this place, where the earthquake victims are reported to number over 2,000. A thousand of the dead, it is stated, are buried under the ruins of the cathedral. The entire population of Ortucchio numbered about 2,500. The village of Almort; in the same region, is also reported as being completely destroyed.

Tagliacozzo, via Rome, Jan. 19.—Not less acute than the misery and suffering of the people of Avezzano is that of the inhabitants of the entire district to the south in Pescina, San Benedetto, Gioji De Marsi and other towns. The loss of life and damage to property in these places is equally as great, but the needs of the sufferers have received far less attention.

Tamentable Scarcity of Food Soldiers have arrived at several of the there is a lamentable scarcity of food for both troops and the people. The temporary shelters provided are also inadequate to protect the people from the increasingly cold weather.
