How to Cure a La Grippe Cough "Coughs that hang on" demand treatment. Stop and think! Reason and common sense tell you that it is folly to "grin and bear it." Those racking la grippe coughs that wrench the body and cause soreness and pain in the lungs yield more quickly to Foley's Honey and Tar than to any other treatment. Forty years' record of success proves this. For coughs, colds, croup and other distressing ailments of throat, chest, lungs, larynx and bronchial tubes, you can find nothing that will compare with this reliable remedy.

PATROLMAN FOUND GUILTY OF SECOND DEGREE MURDER

Verdict in Case of Scott, Who Killed Nathan Banks, Reached by Jury After Five Hours' Deliberation—May Be No Application for Retrial

Guilty of murder in the second degree was the verdict of the jury, rendered last night, in the case of Robert F. Scott, the city patrolman who shot and mortally wounded Nathan Banks, another colored man, at 1119 Monroe street, on the night of August 1, last. The jury recommended Scott to the mercy of the court and Judge McCarter said that cognizance of that suggestion will be taken.

W. Justin Carter and Harry B. Sausaman, counsel for Scott, were granted ten days in which to take an appeal from the jury's decision and file reasons for a new trial, although it is not believed that such action will be taken. The jury deliberated something like five hours, having retired to their room shortly after 5 o'clock and announced at 10.15 o'clock that an agreement had been reached.

It reported that on the first ballot five jurors favored a verdict of murder in the first degree, five favored second degree and two were for acquittal. Even though the defense does not press its claim for a rehearing, it is not likely that Scott will be called for sentence before the second week in February.

The conviction of Scott leaves a vacancy on the city police force, which now is being filled temporarily. The City Commissioners will within a week or two appoint a permanent patrolman. Scott was appointed a patrolman in March, and was considered an efficient policeman. He worked exclusively in the Eighth ward.

PRISONERS' CARE SERIOUS PROBLEM TO THE SERVIANS

Correspondence of the Associated Press. London, Jan. 10.—The care of prisoners taken in battle has become one of the most serious problems of the war in Serbia which already has its hands full feeding and providing for its own people. A Serbian captain writes to one of the staff of the legation here:

"One can have too much of a good thing. We begin to understand why savages take no prisoners. But we are not savages and must feed and roof all these hostile visitors until the war is over. It is becoming a tremendous tax on our resources. "Some of the Slav prisoners—and most of our prisoners are Slavs—are not ill-disposed toward Serbia and a few of these we trust with the less important work of camp and battlefield. One of my corporals who hurried across from an Austrian border town as a volunteer at the beginning of the war, came hauling an Austrian dragoon before me to-day, his face wreathed in smiles. 'This is my own brother, captain,' he said. 'I told him before I left that he would be pressed into the Austrian army if he remained, and sure enough, here he is!'"

"The dragoon was so evidently friendly that I did not send him back to Nish with the other prisoners, but gave him in charge of his brother."

At the Photoplay To-day Miss Lottie Briscoe and her famous partner, Arthur Johnson, appear to-day in a two-act comedy-drama, "Comrade Kismet." Lottie Johnson, as the bogus Countess, and Johnson, as the Count, are funny in the extreme. "The Scorpion's Sting," two-act Kalem drama, featuring dainty Alice Hollister and Harry Millarde, is a convincing drama. "Billy's Wager," Vitagraph, with Billy Quirk and Constance Talmadge, is another good comedy. Wednesday, "Hearts and Masks," Selig drama, featuring Kathlyn Williams. Friday the most famous novel pictured, "Jane Eyre." Our patrons are asked to attend the Photoplay to-day and receive pass out checks when the parade comes, to return again. Adv.

Engle; secretary, J. H. Ziegler; treasurer, David M. Eyer, president of the First National bank of Marietta; directors, Horace Heisey, Norman R. Hoffman, Henry Mickey, Benjamin Hoffman, Sr.

Origin of Humbug It is not generally known that the word "humbug" is long as much in vogue, is of Scottish origin. There was in olden time a race called Bogie or Boag of that ilk in Berwickshire. A daughter of the family married a son of Hume, of Hume, in process of time, by default of male issue, the Bogie estate devolved on one George Hume, who was called popularly "Hume of the Bogie," or rather, "Hum of the Bogie."
