THE GREAT JANUARY CLEARING SALE

Offers Tremendous Savings in Men's and Young Men's Wearing Apparel

This Sale of Women's Shoes

Started out with 3,273 pairs of high grade, stylish shoes, and instead of being marked at proportionate reductions according to the newness of the styles, or goodness of the quality, every pair has been marked

$1.49

Of course, they had a standard "regular" price, but then some have never been in stock before, having been bought for spring selling, and these are $1.49, just the same.

Important To Remember

The lot is NOT a shoe clearance. The entire stock was purchased at one time, and had it not been for the extremely low prices at which they were bought, and the very large quantity, they would have been placed in regular stock for regular selling. There are ALL sizes. It will pay you to investigate.

"The French Models" will be the attraction at the Majestic theatre Friday, playing an entirely new two-act burlesque show, entitled "In Wrong," and "The Rajah Bum." The all-important item with a burlesque show, as everybody recognizes, is girls. The producers claim for their chorus that it is the youngest and the greatest looking, singing and dancing chorus of shapely girls now on the burlesque stage. As to this feature, the excellent cast of stars, the gorgeous scenery and new, beautiful and original costumes, they challenge comparison with anything on the burlesque stage this season. Frank Burt and Hughie Bernard are the popular eccentric comedians who head the cast and have such well known players as George "Red" Martin, Walter Vernon, Mabel Leslie, Flossie McCloud, Laura Houston and Erad DeSilva to assist them in the merry-making. Adv.

Ellen Terry
The "Dowager Empress of the Stage" bids fair to remain with Ellen Terry as a title during the remainder of her life. It was bestowed upon her by the Hon. Joseph H. Choate when he introduced her to her audience in New York City a few days ago. Miss Terry and Mr. Choate have been life-long time friends. In presenting her to her New York friends, Mr. Choate was fulfilling a promise made to Miss Terry several years ago, when, while he was American Ambassador to the Court of St. James, he was among the guests at a dinner given in honor of Miss Terry and the late Sir Henry Irving, with whom she was connected in Shakespearean roles, when both of them were at the zenith of their artistic strength. Miss Terry will appear at the Majestic next Wednesday evening "In Scenes From Shakespeare," from the plays to which in other years she added lustre. Adv.
At the Orpheum
Just two little girls (not in blue) but direct from the Flowery Kingdom, are serving up one of the most interesting attractions that anybody could wish to see. The chief interest in this attraction centers in the youth of the girls and the wonderful intelligence they display in their rendition of several late song hits, in fine English if you please, even though this is their eighth week in America. The girls, about 14 and 16 years, respectively, come to the Orpheum, direct from a successful engagement at the Palace theatre in New York. The first part of the act includes some acrobatic feats, which while not unusual, are well done in an artistic stage setting representing a glimpse of the Flowery Kingdom. At this point of action the father of the girls appears on the scene and announces that the girls are going to try to impersonate the American girls singing ragtime. He also offers apologies, saying the little girls will do their best, but will probably make some mistakes in their English. At this part of the act the girls become very interesting. To the complete surprise of all they sing ragtime exceptionally well, and if any mistakes at all are made it is just about impossible to notice them. They sing in good voice and have the earmarks of becoming very interesting exponents of the syncopated melodies in a short time. The Meykos are opening the Orpheum show this week and the talent is unusual all the way through. Adv.

At the Colonial
This will be Country Store night at the Colonial. "Go early to avoid the rush" is the slogan the management has adopted for the occasion, for during the recent week that this attraction has again sprung into view, the shopping and fun has been particularly heavy. Many handsome gifts will be distributed and many comedy surprises are also in store. Country Store will be run in connection with one of the very best vaudeville bills the Busy Corner has seen. The roster comprises a very clever and artistic posing novelty, a breezy comedy sketch, two monarchs of black face comedy, and an impersonator who has everybody guessing. The picture program is of the usual high order of excellence maintained at that theatre. Adv.

BANK AND TRUST CO. MERGE
Scranton First National and Lackawanna Trust Becomes One
Scranton, Jan. 20.—J. Benjamin Dimmick, president of the Lackawanna Trust Company, and C. S. Weston, president of the First National Bank, issued a statement announcing that the interests of these institutions would be combined, with one set of directors, but distinct sets of officers.
At present five of the heaviest stockholders are directors of both boards, and the statement says that in other respects there is a "community of interests." A single building for the combination will later be erected. The First National Bank is 54 years old.
College Town Goes "Wet"
Columbus, O., Jan. 20.—Delaware, seat of Ohio Wesleyan University, yesterday went "wet" by a vote of 1,210 to 1,157. Six years ago the town voted "dry" by 429 votes. Fairport, in Lake county, yesterday voted "dry" by six votes.

WOMAN TRIES SUICIDE
Despondent Because She Lost Damage Suit Against Reading
Reading, Pa., Jan. 20.—Despondent over losing her lawsuit against the city last week, for damages for a broken leg, resulting from a fall on the sidewalk, Mrs. James Bullock, 39 years old, attempted suicide by inhaling gas at her home here yesterday.
Her husband broke down the door of an upstairs room in which she had locked herself, and summoned a physician, who worked several hours before restoring her to consciousness.
THINK BABIES LASTED 15 YEARS
Bitten Woman Dies That Long After Her Husband
West Chester, Pa., Jan. 20.—About 15 years ago Robert Gibbs and wife, of East Marlborough, were bitten by a pet dog, which had been bitten some time before by another dog suffering with hydrophobia. A little later Gibbs died in convulsions after terrible suffering.
Saturday night last Mrs. Gibbs died with convulsions, and there is some belief that her death was due to the bite from the dog years ago.
Feed Oddest Rabbit Colony
Lewisstown Junction, Pa., Jan. 20.—Crate of cabbage are being shipped daily from Altoona to Granville bridge, where men in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad feed thousands of rabbits that infest a large tract of land under reforestation three miles west of here.

FATHER'S BODY IN FLAMES
Burned Almost to a Crisp in Daughter's Home
Sharon Hill, Pa., Jan. 20.—Although several members of the Sharon Hill Fire Company yesterday morning made repeated efforts to rush through smoke and flames leading to the third floor to rescue the body of Thomas Austin, 70 years old, at the burning home of his daughter, they were unable to do so, and the body of the aged man was charred almost to a crisp.
Austin, who had been in poor health for some time, lived with his daughter, Mrs. James McNair, on Clifton avenue near Spring street. When he died Monday the body was prepared for burial and was placed on the third floor.
SAVES GIRL FROM FLOOD
Boy Bravely Risks His Own Life to Rescue Her
Shamokin, Pa., Jan. 20.—Josephine Wilkes, a girl, while walking yesterday on a bridge spanning Shamokin creek, swollen by recent rains, fell from the structure and was rapidly washed down stream, several times going under.
John Cullody, 20 years old, 100 yards further down the creek, saw the accident and, as the girl was washed near him, he plunged into the water and grabbed her. She was unconscious. After a hard struggle to keep afloat with the girl in his arms, he reached shore, and doctors a long time later revived the girl, who is in a critical condition.

CRASH SHAKES PASSENGERS
Engineers Jump, but One Fireman Was Injured
Towanda, Pa., Jan. 20.—Two passenger trains on the Bernice branch of the Lehigh were in a head-on collision near here last night, and both locomotives were wrecked and one fireman was injured. The engineers jumped.
Passengers were hurled about in the cars, but no one was seriously hurt. The road, a single track line, running from Towanda to Wilkes-Barre, was closed to traffic until this morning as a result of the wreck.
L. V. Harkness Paid Income Tax of $144,000
San Francisco, Jan. 20.—An income tax of $144,000, said to have been one of the largest paid the Government, was turned in by L. V. Harkness, early associate of John D. Rockefeller, who died Sunday at the ranch of his son-in-law, Dr. A. King Macomber, near Hollister. He was in California when the income tax was instituted and the statement he filed showed the value of his holdings to be between $80,000,000 and $100,000,000.
Mr. Harkness' hobby was fine horses and cattle, which he bred at his home place, Walnut Hill Farm, near Lexington, Ky. One of his choicest herds recently was brought out and placed on the Macomber ranch, where the aged millionaire passed the last six weeks of his life.
