MAJESTIC THEATRE

Direction Gayle Burlingame

The conference is held at this central point because of its easy access from every point of the city. It is interdenominational in character.

The committee handling the program represents the leading denominations.

tematic study of the fundamental doctrines of the Word of God.

The December conference was the largest yet held, and the January conference has a very encouraging outlook for a large attendance. The committee handling the work of the conference are men of the Methodist, Presbyterian, Reformed, Lutheran, Baptist and United Brethren denominations.

Everybody is welcome, especially the converts of the Stough campaign. Dr. Stough and Dean Pike have been personal friends ever since their school days at the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

TO SEW FOR THE POOR Sunshine Society Plans to Make Clothing For Destitute

ing For Destitute

A number of members of the Roberta Disbrow Lloyd Sunshine Society met Monday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. building and held the first of a series of meetings proposed for the purpose of sewing and making articles of clothing for the poor. There is much of this kind of work to be done und an ample opportunity will be afforded to all members to be useful. A sewing machine is much needed. Public notice of the next meeting will be given, and it is hoped that all members will attend.
