THE GREAT JANUARY CLEARING SALE

Adds Impetus To a Friday of Unusual Offerings in Every Department

The Whole Town Is Talking About This Sale of Women's Shoes

One of its strongest merits lies in the fact that the entire purchase of over three thousand pairs might have been placed right in stock—some as staple merchandise, others as new spring styles, for of the latter, such as really the case.

But the town is talking about the tremendous values in this sale, and when you consider that a shoe of late style and excellent quality can be purchased for

$1.49

It is a wonderful occurrence, and still more striking is the fact that every size in every style from 1 to 8 may be secured.

Eliminating all but the vital points, we have as follows: A large purchase; new shoes (which must mean stylish lasts); excellent quality and many kinds of leather; complete range of sizes; every shoe having either a welt or turn sole; and greatest of all, the unusual price, $1.49.

You can best decide for yourself the merits of this sale by visiting the Shoe Department.—third floor.

JUDGES KEEP TOWN WET

Renew Gordon Licenses, Despite a Remonstrance With 183 Signatures
Portsville, Pa., Jan. 21.—The saloon licenses of Albert Bolich, S. A. W. Bolich, Christian Maurer and William Tye, of Gordon, which had been held up by court, were granted yesterday on the votes of Judges Hechtel and Brumm. Gordon is a railroad town and 183 of the inhabitants petitioned the court to make the town dry. Judge Koch said that as there were 183 citizens who re-monstrated and only 59 who signed the bonds and petitions of the saloonkeepers, he thought the court should have sustained the remonstrances. Because of the ban put upon saloons in Gordon by railroads the business has greatly fallen off.

SERMON OMEN OF TRAGEDY

One of Hearers Drowns Himself, Fulfilling Preacher's Intimation
Warren, Pa., Jan. 21.—After hearing the Rev. J. A. Galbreath address a revival meeting of Kinzua, in which he said: "We are here to-night in good health, with no thought of dying, but before morning dawn some of us may be in eternity." Kelly Eberhart and his brother, James, started to row across the Allegheny river to go to Gilbertston Run, where they were to go to work at midnight. When they were about 100 feet from the shore, Kelly Eberhart accidentally fell into the river and was drowned. In utter darkness his brother tried to rescue him, but was unsuccessful.

NIGHT RIDERS FLOG GIRL

Defiers of Law Widen Field of Outrage in Kentucky
Louisville, Jan. 21.—Night riders, who previously have confined their operations to the Western Kentucky coal fields, have widened the field to include a community in the vicinity of Louisville. According to a Leitchfield dispatch a band of men disguised as negroes, Monday night visited the home of Miles Duvall, during the absence of the family, seized his daughter Nellie, 19 years old, and flogged her severely. A physician pronounced her injuries not serious. Three men have been arrested and placed in jail. Leitchfield is fifty miles from Louisville.

ASSERTS DIVORCE IS VOID

First Wife Brings Charge in Pottsville Court
Pottstown, Pa., Jan. 21.—William Weisser, of Bluefield, W. Va., was held for court by Magistrate Bartholomew yesterday, charged with desertion and non-support of Mrs. Weisser No. 1, of this place. Mrs. Weisser No. 2 is a West Virginia woman, who came with her husband on a honeymoon trip to his old home here. Weisser secured a divorce in West Virginia from his first wife, but because no personal notice had been served on her of the divorce proceedings her counsel asserts that the divorce is null and void in Pennsylvania. Weisser was held for court.

MRS. MAGGIE O'LEARY DIES

Credited With Owning Cow That Started Great Chicago Fire
Escanaba, Mich., Jan. 21.—Mrs. Maggie O'Leary, who for 40 years lived alone in a little farmhouse near this place, is dead. Her neighbors declare she was the woman whose cow was credited with having caused the great Chicago fire of 1871. In 1892, when officials from the World's Fair came to urge her to attend the exposition, Mrs. O'Leary refused. E. A. Gravelle, for two score years her neighbor, said that when Mrs. O'Leary settled here she was credited with being the owner of the cow which started the fire.

TESTIFIES TO SAVE OWN LIFE

Accused Murderer Tells of Nightmares and Denies Crime
Columbia, S. C., Jan. 21.—George B. Perkins, a Boston architect, on trial here charged with the murder of the steamer Mohawk, of F. W. R. Hinman, of Jacksonville, testified yesterday in his own defense. Perkins said that while on the Mohawk he experienced "awful hallucinations," which he said drove him into a frenzy and gruesome nightmares, from which he wanted oblivion, "even the oblivion of suicide in preference to their continuation." He declared he knew nothing of the killing of Hinman. Several persons testified Tuesday to witnessing the shooting.

SLAIN GIRL'S MOTHER SUES

Asks $10,000 Damages for Crime of Which Leo M. Frank Is Accused
Atlanta, Jan. 21.—Counsel for Leo M. Frank and the State of Georgia announced yesterday that the Supreme Court would be asked to hear Frank's appeal in his habeas corpus proceeding during the week of February 22. Mrs. J. W. Coleman, mother of Mary Phagan, filed suit against the National Pencil Company yesterday asking damages of $10,000. The complaint charges the girl was killed by Frank, who was superintendent of the company's factory, and by James Conley, a negro sweeper, now serving a year's sentence upon conviction as an accessory after the fact.
