ACADEMY SUFFERS DEFEAT Y. M. C. A. Reserves Win Close Game By Score of 34 to 30 The Y. M. C. A. Reserves defeated the Harrisburg Academy five in the Academy gym yesterday afternoon by the score of 34 to 30. It was the first defeat of the season for the Academy five and the inability of the foul shooter to take advantage of the large number of misplays of the association team was responsible for the licking. The play was even the first period of play. E. Roth and Bennett proved to be the big scorers for the two fives. The line-up: Academy, Y. M. C. A. Jennings, F. ... E. Roth; R. Bennett, E. ... Gebhart; Stackpole, G. ... S. Barr; White, G. ... Edmunds; Senseman, G. ... Reigart; Substitutes, Stackpole for Jennings, Krall for Stackpole, Jennings for Senseman. Goals from field, E. Roth, 6; Gebhart, 3; C. Barr, 4; Reigart, 4; Jennings, 2; Bennett, 6; Stackpole, 5; Bennett, 5. Referee, J. Bennett. Timekeepers, Morrell and Bailey. Scorers, Good and W. Bennett. AMUSEMENTS ADOLPH WOLGAST SAID TO BE RICH

MAJESTIC To-morrow afternoon and evening, "French Models" (Burlesque). Monday and Tuesday, January 25 and 26, "Papa's Daughters," for the benefit of the Polyclinic hospital. Wednesday evening, January 27, Ellen Terry in scenes from Shakespeare. Thursday, January 28, "The Old Homestead."

AD WOLGAST In spite of the fact that misfortune has constantly pursued Adolph Wolgast, the veteran lightweight, and old Hard Luck has dealt him many hard physical raps in his time, his purse has never been affected—that is, it has not been jarred proportionately. It is estimated that he has made at least $200,000 as a fighter, either in the ring or on the stage. And he has saved most of it. His next bout, according to report, will be with "Joe" Mandot, of New Orleans, in the Crescent City on February 14.

ORPHEUM Every afternoon and evening, high class vaudeville. COLONIAL Every afternoon and evening, vaudeville and pictures. VICTORIA Motion Pictures. PHOTOPLAY Motion Pictures.

"The French Models" "The French Models" will be the attraction at the Majestic to-morrow matinee and night, playing an entirely new two-act burlesque show, entitled "In Wrong and 'The Rajah Bum.'" The all-important item with a burlesque show, as everybody recognizes, is girls. The producers claim for their chorus that it is the youngest and the best looking, singing and dancing chorus of shapely girls now on the burlesque stage. As to this feature, the excellent cast of stars, the gorgeous scenery and new, beautiful and original costumes, they challenge comparison with anything on the burlesque stage this season. Frank Burt and Hugue Bernard are the popular eccentric comedians who head the cast and have such well known players as George "Red" Martin, Walter Vernon, Mabel Leslie, Flossie McLeod, Laura Houston and Fred DeSilva to assist them in the merry-making. Adv.

Ellen Terry Lovers of Shakespeare will welcome with pleasure the coming visit to the Majestic on next Wednesday evening of the celebrated English actress, Miss Ellen Terry. Miss Terry is now in America, and has consented to appear in scenes from Shakespeare in a limited number of the principal cities of this country. Only four cities in Pennsylvania will be visited by Miss Terry, of which Harrisburg is included. Miss Terry is reviving Desdemona, Cordelia, Juliet and Ophelia, with comments of her own on those famous roles. The critics of the Los Angeles, Boston and Detroit papers have highly praised Miss Terry in her new role. The sale of seats will open Monday at 9 a. m. Adv.

"The Old Homestead" The Majestic announces as its attraction for next Thursday, that old but ever popular Denman Thompson's "The Old Homestead." Adv.

At the Orpheum No more pleasing artist in her line is to be found in the Keith market than Nonette, who, with all her charms of several years ago, is delighting her old admirers and new acquaintances at the Orpheum this week. Nonette is appearing at the Orpheum this week for the third time, although this visit comes just four years since we last saw her. The big lapse of time is explained by her tour through Europe. Grim war seems to have kept its distance from Nonette, for she is still the same charming girl with the beautiful dimples and the saucy smile that she always had. In her act that Nonette presents at the Orpheum this week she has taken a slight departure from the act of a few years ago. This time Nonette gives us an opportunity to see her in her debutante gown, although for her closing number she goes back to her well known character, the gypsy. Nonette offers one of the clever turns supporting Flo Irwin and company in Edgar Allen Woolf's rich comedy, entitled "The Lady of the Press." Also there are the Curtney Girls, who are the rage of the bill, while a big share of the comedy honors go to the Kentons with "Buster." The Orpheum's show is replete with merit and entertaining throughout. Adv.

At the Colonial A big beauty show comes to the Colonial to-day to make merry for the remainder of the week. It is entitled "Seminary Scandal," and calls in the talent of seven in one of the prettiest and breeziest one-act musical comedies yet seen at the Busy Corner. Miss Tommy Allen and Walter Ware are the featured principals, but there is also a feature chorus to help out with the fun and inject some useful songs. V. Chandler Smith, the well known New York producer, is the sponsor of "The Seminary Scandal." Three other clever and varied vaudeville hits will round out the new bill. "The Vendetta," a delightful feature film in two parts, will be the special attraction in moving pictures. Adv.

Record Speed Made By the Photoplay theatre in depicting the negative of part of the pictures taken on the inauguration day of the parade. A special messenger will arrive at 7:30 to-night and the picture will be placed on the screen at 8 o'clock. Balance of the inaugural parade will be shown Friday and Saturday. The entire parade will be shown Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Adv.

At Photoplay To-morrow "Jane Eyre," famous novel by Charlotte Bronte and read by men, women and children all over the world, has been pictureized and comes to the Photoplay to-morrow, adapted to four acts of motion pictures. To-day, we present "Surgeon Warren's Ward," a two-act Essauy drama, featuring Richard Travers. "The Magnate of Paradise," a two-act Edison drama, "The Smoking Out of Bella Butts," Vitagraph comedy, and "The Barrier Between," a biograph drama, complete an exceptional program. Watch for the motion pictures of the inaugural parade, coming soon. Adv.

GERMANS BETWEEN RUSSIAN ARMY AND POLISH CAPITAL Petrograd, Jan. 21, via London, 2:39 P. M.—German forces have appeared in the rear of the Russian army which is advancing towards the Prussian border. They are along the road from Ploonsk, forty miles northwest of Warsaw to Goslitz, thus being between the advancing Russian army and the Polish capital. So far as known only comparatively small bodies of Germans, consisting of reconnoitering detachments, are in this locality. The "Bourse Gazette" says that the Russian military authorities have learned that Russo-Germans in this vicinity have given information and other assistance to the Germans. On this account, the newspapers says, Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian commander-in-chief, has ordered that all Russo-German residents in the district between Warsaw and the Russian front dispose of their property within six days preparatory to being removed to the interior of the country.

Kaiser Congratulates Count Zeppelin London, Jan. 21, 3:42 A. M.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the "Daily Express" says: "Reports from Germany declare the news of the air raid on England has been received there with great enthusiasm. Emperor William has sent a congratulatory message to Count Zeppelin."

New Railway Bridges Threatened London, Jan. 21, 10:03 A. M.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Stockholm states that German airships have been reconnoitering the frontier between Sweden and Finland, evidently with the purpose of destroying the bridges of the new Finnish railway, thus interrupting communication between Russia and Sweden.

DICK HARLOW SUCCEEDS HOLLENBACK AT STATE He Has Been Assistant Coach of Football for Three Years—Whitney, of Dartmouth, Named for His Former Position

State College, Pa., Jan. 21.—Announcement was made yesterday by the Alumni Advisory Committee on Athletics at the Penn State College that Dick Harlow, who for the last three years has been assistant football coach, will succeed Bill Hollenback as head coach at Penn State. Harlow is a graduate of State, and before his graduation in 1912 he played two very successful seasons at tackle on the State eleven. Much of the credit for last year's success belongs to him, for it was through his coaching that the line, which was State's strong point, was developed. Coach Harlow will start working an entirely new system of coaching. This is the result partly of the one-year residence rule and partly of dissatisfaction with the old method. The new method provides for supervision of the men, not only during the active season, but also through the rest of the year. The head coach will have charge of all football activity during the year. He will have two assistants, one with the varsity and one for the freshman team. As his assistant with the varsity, Coach Harlow will have "Bud" Whitney, who last year captained the Dartmouth team. Whitney is also a track and basketball star. He will be captain of the Dartmouth track team during the coming season. He was a member of the 1912 Olympic team. As a football player, Whitney has had wide experience, playing at tackle, end and halfback. Most of his time has been spent at the latter position, however. In order not to affect his amateur standing at Dartmouth, Whitney has not yet signed a formal contract with State. He will do so at the end of the track season. No decision has been reached as to the freshman coach. The names of Captain Tobin, "14," "Pete" Mauthe, "13," and Herman, "12," are all being considered. A decision is expected very soon.
