C.V. NEWS

CARRIED PASSENGERS IN A FREIGHT CABOOSE

Wreck Held Up Passenger Train and Western Maryland Company Pressed An Engine and Cab Into Service to Convenience Its Patrons

Waynesboro, Jan. 22.—The Western Maryland railway passenger train due in Waynesboro at 12.37 p.m. on its way to Hagerstown, was delayed yesterday by the derailment of a box car on freight train No. 205, on this side of Shippenburg.

The train was thrown across the track and could not be removed early enough to permit the passing of the passenger train so an extra freight locomotive and caboose were sent over the line to haul the passengers from the place of the wreck and Hagerstown.
