To Keep Your Skin Free From Hairs

(Beauty Topics) If you are willing to spend a few minutes time in your room using a delicate paste, you can easily banish any ugly, hairy growth without discomfort or injury. The paste is made by mixing some water with a little powdered delatone. This is then spread over the hairy surface and after about 2 minutes rubbed off and the skin washed. You will not be disappointed with this treatment, providing you get real delatone.—Adv.

Howe's Movies

The world's mightiest naval unit—the new U. S. fleet—will be seen in review at the Majestic next Friday and Saturday, with daily matinees, when Lyman H. Howe will present his remarkable reproduction, photographed by authority of the Secretary of the Navy, Josephus Daniels. The average cine-matinee reads now and then of progress made in the increased efficiency of our navy, but at least he can only realize in his most "ague" moments the magnitude of the strides that have been made, even in the last few months. These are so great that it has kept even naval experts busy to "keep up to the minute," and this film is now presented in order to give the general public an opportunity to realize the amazing efficiency attained. An idea of the swift progress made is indicated by the fact that what is known to-day as the U. S. fleet is equal to about three fleets like that which Roosevelt sent to girdle the globe a few short years ago.—Adv.

At the Orpheum

A rattling bill of Keith hits at the Orpheum this week in making a bit with the theatregoers. Headed off by Irwin, who presents a screeching farce comedy called "The Lady of the Press," there are a number of other varied and clever turns that are giving Miss Irwin a big chase for honors. Among these are the Courtney Girls, Harrisburg's favorite sister team; also Nolte, the charming gypsy violinist; with "Buster," the immitable knock-about comedian, and carrying away big honors. McLellan and Carson are serving up something clever and spectacular in the way of a roller skating novelty.

At the Colonial

"The Seminary Scandal" leaked out at the Colonial yesterday and capacity audiences delighted in the telling of this breezy and tuneful musical comedy to the extent that it looks as though the little playlet was going to break attendance records during its engagement at the Busy Corner. Miss Tommy Ware is a delightful singing comedienne, in the leading role, and a number of pretty girls and youths inject new and catchy songs. The Bennett Sisters offer a dainty vocal turn; Keefe, Lantton and Wheeler are excellent harmony singers and comedians and another act of merit is a corking monologue brim full of bright gags. "The Venetian," a splendid motion picture feature in two parts, will also remain at the Busy Corner for the remainder of the week.—Adv.

Are They Made or Born?

This startling question will be answered by Ella Wheeler Wilcox at the Victoria Theatre, 223 Market street, Tuesday, in four reels of motion pictures showing appalling revelations of the tragic incidents that shaped the career of Andy Andrews. This "inside" story of politics and crime, by Jack Rose, the New York gunman, is one of the greatest, gripping, masterly photo-drama ever shown in this city. Don't fail to see this intensely interesting story of from a barefoot farmer boy, through the "reform" school, to a political gangster.

The Irving-Terry Theatre

There is nothing that Ellen Terry has touched that she has not adorned. There is no man or woman with whom she has been associated who has not found something sweeter and better for that association. She is the womanliest of women and the staunchest of friends. What a name Ellen Terry has been to conjure with! What an asset to an actor or actress to have that same name! Always "One of the Terrys," an all-sufficing, proud nomenclature, in deed. And to think that it should be so honored, so revered; the name of what in Shakespeare's days would have been a "Vagabond" family. Truly, the vagabonds have come into their own through Ellen Terry. Would Irving have been so great without his association with that name? Irving and Terry, always linked in the great days of the old Lyceum. If ever London achieves a national theatre, surely it might well be named the Irving-Terry theatre.

"French Models"

Bernard and Zeisler's big combination of merry-makers is the burlesque attraction at the Majestic this afternoon and evening. Frank Burt, author of this new musical-burlesque, has constructed much that is original, catchy and tuneful and there are 40-people in the cast. The chorus, which is, of course, indispensable in the presentation of burlesque, is composed of a score of youthful misses who can sing and dance as well as appear attractive. The production of this elaborate extravaganza and burlesque requires much in the way of stage setting and costumes, and the management have been careful in supplying this. Notwithstanding that the burlesques are alive with music and specialties, an olio of exceptionally strong vaudeville numbers is an important feature of the bill.—Adv.

"Papa's Daughters"

An operetta, containing thirty of the newest song successes, absolutely up to the minute, plenty of comedy and dancing, an augmented orchestra, specially chosen; brand new scenery and costumes, all snap, no dead moments, every device that it is possible to use in a production that pleases is employed in "Papa's Daughters" to give to the most exacting audience full value for their money. The operetta will be presented by Harrisburg's Players' and Singers' Club, an organization of 125 members, for the benefit of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Polyclinic Hospital at the Majestic theatre Monday and Tuesday evenings, January 25 and 26.—Adv.

The Foreign Spies

At Photoplay To-day

Special for to-day, part of the picture taken of the inaugural parade, "Great Railroad Serial," "Hazards of Helen," shown every Friday. To-day is "The Leap From the Water Tower."—Adv.

The "Marked Woman," a story of Oriental life by Owen Davis and Barbara Tennant, is the leading reel at the Regent to-day. It is a Shubert feature and is novel and interesting.—Adv.

heard in some new and effective numbers. The cast is practically the same as last season, with E. L. Snader, who is now playing the part of dear old Uncle Josh, for his eighth year. As usual, Frank Thompson, son of Denman, is directing and managing the production. This greatest of all American successes, now in its twenty-eighth season, is still playing to capacity business everywhere. It is a pleasure to announce its presentation at the Majestic next Thursday, matinee and night.—Adv.

FOUR WILLS TO ESTATE. Latest Instrument Bearing on $2,000,000 Case Dated 1868. Houston, Tex., Jan. 22.—Another will purporting to dispose of a part of the $2,000,000 estate of Francis A. Ogden, former resident of Madison, Wis., came to light yesterday when a document dated 1868 was placed in the hands of attorneys. This alleged will, the fourth now figuring in the case, bequeaths much property to Levi Harper, of North Carolina, who is said to be dead, but to have left four children.
