PROVOST SMITH TALKS AT WHARTON SCHOOL SMOKER

Thomas Lynch Montgomery and Others Praise Work of the Harrisburg Branch of the University of Pennsylvania—Rotary Members Lauded

One of the delightful features of last night's smoker, of the Harrisburg branch of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, held in the Engineers' Club, was a "picture-book talk" on the University by the provost, Edgar Fahs Smith, who, with lantern slides, showed scenes of the big institution from the time of its founding by Benjamin Franklin to the present day.

Thomas Lynch Montgomery, State Librarian, one of the invited guests of the occasion, made an informal address in which he pointed out that the big men of the future will come from the young men of the present who are using their "spare time" in preparation for the bigger things.

Other speakers were Roswell C. McRea, Dean of the Wharton School; Ward W. Pierson, professor of commercial law, and Wendell P. Baine, instructor in the Wharton school, T. J. S. Kippaugh, chairman of the social committee of the school, presided.

Special mention was made by all the University men during the evening of the organization work done in this city by the Rotary Club.

"Had it not been for the personal work of the members of the Harrisburg Rotary Club," declared the Provost, "the Harrisburg Extension School never would have been put on its feet. It is this live wire group of men whom we must chiefly thank for the success of the local branch."

Special mention was made of the constructive work done individually by Dr. Shope whose booklet, "Carrying a University to the People," has been given State-wide distribution by the University authorities.

To Organize For Suffrage Campaign

Miss Emma MacAlarney, of New York City, who is doing suffrage work in Pennsylvania this winter, addressed a meeting attended by fifty women of the city interested in the suffrage movement, which was held at the home of Mrs. John Oenslager, 115 South Front street, yesterday.

Miss MacAlarney emphasized the importance of having a solidly united State organization, if success is to crown this year's battle for the ballot, and active steps were taken to organize Dauphin county and Harrisburg under the State-wide Woman Suffrage party plan. At the end of her talk Miss MacAlarney announced the names of the women who have agreed to serve on a committee on organization with Mrs. Harvey S. Smith, as chairman.

Those who volunteered from Harrisburg include Mrs. Lyman D. Gilbert, Mrs. John Oenslager, Mrs. Philip T. Meredith, Mrs. Lewis Palmer and Mrs. H. L. Hosford, with Mrs. Solomon Hiney and Mrs. Lewis Johnson, from Steelton.

Club to Discuss "German Opera"

"German Opera" will be the subject of the program of the Story Teller's Club which will meet Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock in the Public Library, Front and Walnut streets. Miss Elsa Schwensen will have charge of the program which will be illustrated with Victrola records furnished by C. M. Sigler.

"Byron, after thirty-three years of the pleasures of the world, wrote 'The leaves of life are bitter; let me die.' Ask any gray-haired man here who has followed the devil and the pleasures of the world, whether he is happy and see the look of sadness on his face. Ask any gray-haired saint, and see the look of joy. The other chief reason why people refuse to come to Christ is pride. You are not too proud to associate with a lot of degenerate friends, but you are too proud or too much afraid, to walk down this aisle, and yield to Jesus Christ. The world will not laugh at you for becoming a Christian—but if they do, what do you care for their sneers? I appeal to your manhood, to your bravery, to decide for the Christ whom kings have the devil is depriving you of the functions of the soul by which you are to save and develop your soul." Very dramatically he represented the death scene of a man crushed to death by the serpent he had fed and trained for years, and went on to show that the serpent, sin, fostered in the heart, will kill conscience, honor, and will power and paralyze the soul.

Evangelist Miller urged all especially the young men and women who wish to make a success of life, to take for their guide Jesus, who will bring them the greatest pleasure, and urged that they do it now. Twenty-nine responded to the invitation to accept Christ, the majority of whom were high school students.

GILBERT-BEST WEDDING

Ceremony Takes Place This Afternoon in Bethlehem Lutheran Parsonage
Miss Helen Margaretta Best, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Best, 1518 Penn street, and Marion Rutledge Gilbert, son of the late Rev. Dr. D. M. Gilbert, were married at the parsonage of the Bethlehem Lutheran church, 1622 North Second street, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The ceremony, performed by the Rev. J. Bradley Marward, was witnessed by the immediate families only. There were no attendants.

The bride wore a costume of brown velour, with paradise top hat and seal-skin furs. Her corsage bouquet was of violets and gardenias. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert left for a wedding trip to New York and Boston. On their return they will reside in Scranton, where Mr. Gilbert has for the last year been connected with the Scranton & Binghamton Railroad Company.

"MIKADO" CAST INCLUDES MANY WELL-KNOWN ARTISTS

Opera to Be Given by Harrisburg Operatic Society Will Be Staged by Frank H. Davies and Directed by Prof. Decevee

On February 11 and 12 the Harrisburg Operatic Society will produce in the Majestic theatre Gilbert and Sullivan's well-known comical opera in two acts, "The Mikado." The opera will be staged by Frank H. Davies and Elmer W. Ehler. Professor E. J. Decevee will direct the music. The cast follows:

The Mikado of Japan, Elmer W. Ehler; Nanki-Poo, his son, Jerome Hamilton; Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner, Frank H. Davies; Pooch-Bah, the Lord High Everything Else, H. Russell Rupp; Fish-Tush, Louis Munnell; Pitti-Sing, Ruth Hoover; Yum-Yum, Ada Heisley; Peep-Bo, Helen Keister, and Katisha, Mrs. Jacob Miller, wards of Ko-Ko; Chee-Pee, Royal Umbrella Carrier, George K. Hoy.

Jerome Hamilton, who will take the part of Nanki-Poo, is best remembered as Jack Goose in "Princes Bo-Peep." He has taken various parts in local theatricals and always pleased his audiences. He has an excellent tenor voice and is the possessor of great dramatic ability.

Frank H. Davies, as Ko-Ko, will be remembered as the comedian in all local productions. He is perhaps the most popular of Harrisburg's fun-makers. His long experience in this line is the best guarantee of his ability to please his audiences.

H. Russell Rupp, as Pooch-Bah, is the well-known bass soloist from Steelton. He has been prominently identified with every production in that borough and has marked ability in matters of interpretation.

Louis Munnell as Fish-Tush, possesses a very pleasing voice. His excellent training at the local Conservatory of Music guarantees his rendition of this character as of its highest order.

Mrs. Jacob Miller as Katisha, will be best remembered as having taken this part before as Miss Bess Meek. Her mezzo-soprano voice is of the best in this section and is of the most wonderful range. Her dramatic ability has brought frequent storms of applause in various productions. To her credit it must be said that her melo-dramatic dignity and grand opera airs as portrayed in this character, are two to none.

Ada Heisley, as Yum-Yum, will be remembered in this city as having taken the part before. The additional training that she has had since taking the first time fits her all the more to even excel her first efforts.

Helen Keister, as Peep-Bo, is the well-known local soprano. Her host of friends are expressing great delight in having the opportunity of hearing her in this line. She will be remembered as taking a very prominent part in "Princes Bo-Peep."

Ruth Hoover, as Pitti-Sing, possesses an unusual sweet alto voice. Her interpretation of this character is a rare treat.

George K. Hoy as Chee-Fee, the Royal umbrella carrier, is known all over the city as a great fun-maker. He will be remembered as this same character in the former "Mikado" and also as the umbrella carrier in "San Toy."

Rehearsals have been conducted for some time on Monday and Thursday at the Conservatory of Music where Professor E. J. Decevee has been working overtime for the purpose of making this production the best that Harrisburg has ever witnessed. Aside from the interest of the chorus in the excellency of their production, they have at heart the Belgian relief fund and it is their earnest endeavor to have all their friends present, as every seat occupied means money towards this relief fund. The work of the chorus is of the most excellent character. In commenting upon it Professor E. J. Decevee remarked that it is the best chorus he has ever trained, locally.

Dance at Colonial Club

S. S. Pomeroy, Harry B. Delmotte and William H. Johnson form the Committee in charge of arrangements for a dance which will be given at the Colonial Country Club, next Thursday evening. The Uptegrove orchestra will play for the dancing and a buffet supper will be served.

Simons-Perry
