HARRISBURG STAR-INDEPENDENT, MONDAY EVENING, JANUARY 25, 1915.

This Leads Court to which extends from the North sea to Switzerland, according to the official statement given out at the German gen-eral army headquarters to-day. The Germans claim to have repulsed all the attacks in this region and that the French have suffered heavy losses. In East Prussia the Germans claim to have inflicted heavy losses on the Rus-sians to the northeast of Gumbinnen, twenty miles west of the Russian bor-der. The following statement follows:

JUDGE DELAYS THE SENTENCE

Man Who Used Hatchet on the Head of an Acquaintance Who Failed to Invite Him to "Tea" Is Sent to the Penitentiary

Because the cases contain some evidence of an unidentified woman having been an accomplice or having otherse played an important part in them, Judge Kunkel declined this morning to impose sentence upon A. J. Silks, a Harrisburger, who practically admitted half a dozen or more petty store robberies. Silks' plea really was a declaration that he would not contest the charges, although he neither would deny his guilt nor make a confession. The inference that a woman figured in the case was drawn by the court from the fast that most of the lost

COMPENSATION BILL READY

It Will Be Introduced To-nighternor Brumbaugh Wants a Full Discussion of Measure

Governor Brumbaugh late this afternoon said the workingmen's compensa-tion bill has been prepared and only awaits the working out of a little de-tail when it will be introduced in the Learnighture.

tail when it will be introduced in the Legislature. Regarding the bill covering this sub-ject which Representative Stein, of Al-legheny, is to introduce to-night, the Governor said he knew nothing, but he surmised that any bill based on the re-port of the Commission to inquire into port of the Commission to inquire inte the subject must embrace its good fea tures.

The main point to be taken up and decided is whether to place the deciding of compensation in the hands of a com-mission to be created for that purpose or leave it to the courts. It is the concensus of opinion of those interested that a commission would bring decisions much quicker than if compensatory matters were left to a de-cision of the courts with all of the con-sequent delays In the opinion of the Governor the method of working this out is a very important question. The Governor said he would like to have it discussed at length.

Regarding the application of the law

Regarding the application of the law to the employers of farm labor and household servants, it is the opinion of the Governor that this would not be feasible. He dwelt at some length on this feature and suid he did not see how the law could be made to apply to persons who were employed for short periods. The State, he thought, should, cuarantee the narment but this was a 133 1441 guarantee the payment, but this was a detail that will be worked out in time. 93 301 The Governor will send in so pointments to the Senate to-n but not to fill any vacancies.

Burgess of Royalton Says Costs Should Not Be Imposed on Him When the January Grand Jury ignor-ed a bill against Edward M. Snavely, owner of a Middletown garage, who was charged with a traffic violation, it also placed the costs—about $30—on the prosecutor, Henry S. Granger, the burgess of Royalton. Now Granger objects to paying the costs and to-day he asked the court to exonerate him, contending he brought the suit in good faith and as an officer of the law. Granger asked for a rule on the Dis-trict Attorney and County Solidior to show cause why the count, after some hesitancy, allowed the rule, but added, "the Grand Jury no doubt thought that the burgess overstepped his pow-ers."
