The Beech-Nut Delicacies Have Come to Harrisburg to Stay

WENTY years ago the Beech-Nut Company began to preach the doctrine of Delicacy and Flavor in food and established its three articles of faith-

- FIRST-Produce something that is finer to the taste and better to eat than any similar thing and you will find a sure and loval public.
- SECOND-The price of flavor is an amount of care, patience and delicacy of treatment almost beyond belief.

THIRD-The concern that builds on flavor and quality and keeps up its standard does not seek the immediate dollar. (More money is to be made by turning out the ordinary commercial product.) But the concern that produces quality is more certain to hold its trade.

This Business Was Founded on a Belief in Quality and a Belief in People

The widespread public interest in the Beech-Nut principles gave a new cast to the food business in this country. The old type of food began to give way to the new. People were eager for food products that were not only sightly and pure and good to eat, but food with delicacy and flavor.

And today Beech-Nut Delicacies are the fastest selling food delicacies in America. Women everywhere put their entire confidence and trust in every article that bears a Beech-Nut label.

In this city the demand for Beech-Nut has greatly increased in the past few months.

Anyone with the slightest knowledge of the people will supply ample hear any grocer nowadays say that his customers are insensible to the best? That they show no particular interest in the finest quality of food-the very thing upon which the health and much of the enjoyment of their family depends?

The Great Majority of the Grocers of this City Like to Sell the Best

Every representative merchant knows that nothing these days makes a store more conspicuous and successful than a reputation for selling the best.

The grocer who challenges fair comparison, who invites his customers to examine, compare and and test his claims is alone entitled to public confidence.

You will find Beech-Nut Delicacies in every good grocery store in this city.

You owe it to yourself to try the Beech-Nut Delicacies. Any one of the Delicacies you may prefer-Beech-Nut Tomato Catsup, Beech-Nut Beans, Beech-Nut Bacon, Beech-Nut Grape Jelly, Beech-Nut Peanut Butter.

Try Beech-Nut Tomato Catsup, for instance. Two sizes - 25c. and 15c.

Ask your grocer to send you a 25c. bottle.

The same price as the commercial catsups.

There is more real catsup in the bottle - more concentration - less water !

But the big difference you will notice is in the full, rich flavor of Beech-Nut.

Made of fresh tomatoes grown in the finest tomato country in the world. The tomatoes taken direct from the vines on nearby farms-not shipped long distances.

New York, Jan. 27.—John Montgom-ery Ward, the former New York short-stop and united recently with the Fed-eral League, stated yesterday that the one feature of modern baseball which was working more injury than any oth-er feature was the long-term contract, which, he asserted, was responsible for the mediocre playing of many stars last season, and has also established an at-mosphere of indifference among the players who have been engaged for two or three seasons.

players who have been engaged for two or three seasons. "Baseball," says Mr. Ward, "is a very distinct calling; it is entirely dif-ferent than anything else. Essentially, it is play for the participants, and for a player to do his best he must have inspiration. It is inspiration and un-bounded enthusiasm which enable the player to make some phenomenal play. If it were not for inspiration, these star players would never become keyed up to unusual performances. Dupes ..... F ..... Beard ..... F ..... Seltzer C .... Weirich Snavely G .... FOOTBALL SOLONS TO MEET

Game Is Satisfactory and Rules Not Likely to Be Changed

Boston, Jan. 27 .- The announcement

Boston, Jan. 27.—The announcement was måde here yesterday that the an-nual meeting of the Intercollegiate Fobvall Rules Committee will be held Fobrary 5 and 6, at the Hotel Bilt-more, in New York. Chairman E. K. Hall, of Dartmouth, settled the date after hearing from the other 13 mem-bers of the board, and it is believed that there will be a full attendance. Mr. Hall anticipates very few changes in the rules, these rather in the word-ing than in the letter or spirit. The game proved very satisfactory last fall, and the committee as a whole believes it is best to make no changes of any importance. The 'personnel of the Rules Committee is the same as it was last year, the delegates from the National Collegiate Association having been retained in a body. The usual report of the central board will be heard as will the report of the new committee made up of of-ficials who are in charge of the more
