Many New Bridges Sought Gettysburg, Jan. 28.—No less than twelve applications for new bridges at various points in the county are now before the Adams County Commission. Some of them represent "viewers" grants made as far back as ten years ago. All are for bridges where none now exists.

Only this week attention was called by a committee of Liberty township citizens to the necessity of a bridge across the creek near the farm of David Guise.

MUST SWIM FOR DIPLOMAS No Graduations at Princeton This Year Without Passing Water Test Princeton, N. J., Jan. 28.—Unless the students at Princeton University learn to swim before graduation several members of this year's class will not receive their diplomas. A regulation made by the faculty in 1911 required students to test in swimming.

The regulation has not been carried out, but this year it is the intention of the university authorities to see that it is put into effect. Several members of the senior class have not as yet passed the test, which is to swim 200 yards, showing a mastery of two strokes.

4 Cans of Ashes Less An institution in this city had been using a certain grade of buckwheat coal in its steam heating plant, and daily 10 cans of ashes were taken from the furnace.

Then Kelley's Nanticoke Buckwheat was tried with the result that only 6 cans of ashes had to be removed.

This demonstrates the superior heating efficiency of Kelley's Buckwheat—more heat and less ashes, because it's all pure coal.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years, and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.—Adv.

This Is a Bad Month The indoor life of winter, with lack of outdoor exercise, puts a heavy load on the kidneys. Nearly everybody suffers from rheumatism, backache, pain in sides and back, kidney and bladder ailments. A backache may not mean anything serious, but it certainly does not mean anything good. It's better to be on the safe side and take Foley Kidney Pills to strengthen and invigorate the kidneys and help them do their work. They help rid the blood of acids and poisons. Sold by Geo. A. INDIAN SOLDIERS WIN THE COVETED VICTORIA CROSS

Washington, Jan. 28.—An announcement by the British Embassy of war dispatches from London contains the following statement:

"Up to the present two Indian soldiers have gained the Victoria Cross. The first, a Sepoy in the 12th Baluchistan, was the sole survivor of a gallant machine gun section which fought to the last and inflicted immense losses on the enemy. The second, of the 39th Gurkhas, won distinction when part of the British trenches were occupied by Germans. Traverse after traverse of captured trenches was stormed and the heroic Sepoy was always first in the attack, although wounded and he only fell when the trenches had been entirely retaken. He has but lately recovered."

CANADA BALKS WIVES IN KEEPING HUSBANDS HOME

Toronto, Jan. 28.—Canadian military authorities have issued a statement that "henceforth the wife of a man who marries after he has enlisted will have no say as to whether he goes to the front and that in case of his death in service she will not receive any pension. As the law previously stood a wife had the privilege of withholding her consent for her husband to be sent abroad to fight."

This matter also has been taken up by the church authorities. The Most Rev. Dr. Chown, head of the Methodist Church of Canada, New Foundland and Japan, has issued an order forbidding any minister of the Methodist Church marrying an enlisted man, unless the bride first gives consent for her husband to go to the front and the soldier produces the consent of his commanding officer allowing him to marry. The other churches in the Dominion are preparing to follow this example.

It is understood that Rumania will use the money for the purchase of war materials.

M'CORMACK SEATS GO FAST Sale of Tickets Starts This Morning at Sigler's Music Store

The predictions that a crowded house will greet John McCormack, the Irish tenor, at Chestnut street auditorium on Wednesday evening, February 2d, seem likely to be fulfilled. The large number of mail orders received shows that the out-of-town people are interested to the same extent as those in Harrisburg.

The regular sale opened at Sigler's music store this morning and the indications are that few desirable seats will remain for those who fail to call to-day.

Assurance is given that among the encores Mr. McCormack will sing "I Hear You Calling Me," "Mother Machree," "Nauschia," "Ave Maria" and other favorites which have made him famous. Adv.

THREE DELEGATIONS VISIT TABERNACLE LAST NIGHT

Citizens of Churchtown and Shiremanstown and the D. Wilcox Company Employes Hear Evangelist Miller on "The Value of a Soul"

Mechanicsburg, Jan. 28.—Three delegations visited the tabernacle last night, 125 from Churchtown, 200 from Shiremanstown and the D. Wilcox employes, 125 strong. Each delegation sang as follows: Churchtown, "Beneath

THOUGHT HE HAD CHRONIC DYSPEPSIA

But Now Eats Corned Beef, Cabbage, Pork, Onions and Mince Pie for Dinner and Never Feels a Pain

Do you belong to the "No thank you" society of the dinner table where the mere sight of certain foods makes you feel the pain you know would be yours if you ever ate them? Corn Beef, Cabbage, Pork, Beets, Onions, Turnips, etc., are all good healthy strengthening foods and a strong healthy stomach can always digest them. Yet if the stomach kicks back and simply won't work on such strong fare it's folly to fall back on artificial digesters that push the stuff through whether the stomach wills or not.

What a weak, easily upset stomach really needs is not a digestive aid but a stomach strengthener. Any reliable physician will tell you it's dangerous to continually dose the stomach with peppin digesters and the like. His own prescription will act on the stomach instead. No physician ever wrote a better stomach prescription than that embodied in the famous MI-O-N-A Stomach Tablets that H. C. Kennedy and most every druggist in this vicinity sells with the positive guarantee that they must put a complete and lasting end to stomach misery or money back. MI-o-na strengthens the walls and muscular fibres of the stomach and induces prompt normal working of your own stomach machinery. It gives relief in ten minutes to all the common and uncomfortable symptoms of sour rising, gas, belching, burning, bloating, shooting pains, etc., and in a few weeks will put the stomach in such a clear and perfectly healthy condition that it can digest a typical New England boiled dinner without the slightest effort or distress.—Adv.

Land; Wilcox men, "God Will Take Care of You," and Shiremanstown, by a little girl representative, "Shine Makers." The Wilcox employes presented flowers to the entire Miller party and a special gift of flowers to Miss Cree. The tabernacle male quartet, announced by Prof. Hohgatt as "The Bunch that's fighting the booze," sang "De Brewer's Big Hosses," to great applause.

The sermon, on "The Value of a Soul," told solemn truths with emphasis. Evangelist Miller showed the value of a soul by God's standards and said: "Man was the last and best that God Almighty the Creator could do. Man is the only thing that bears life that ever disappointed and betrayed God. Then we see the mystery of all mysteries, when God the Father places a higher value on your soul than in Jesus Christ, His Son, Whom He sacrificed for you. What value do you put on your soul?"

He arraigned the church members who are losing, if not their souls, at least their standing as Christians, for social standing, or business advance. He rapped the men, some of them church members, who are asked to sign a remonstrance against a liquor license and refuse because some business friend or club friend might be offended. When he congratulated the two Mechanicsburg men, signers of license applications, who wrote to the Court to withdraw their names, there was tremendous applause. He said that the men who roast a man and sneer at a man for doing a thing like that "ought to be kicked out of town," illustrating his words. "Lots of you men have got your names on the church rolls of this town and you've got a shoestring where your backbone ought to be." He told of the man who sells his soul for money, the woman who sells her soul for dress or for social standing, the man who sells his soul for booze, and said: "All of these at least get something out of it, but what about you who are selling your soul just for indifference, just for neglect of Jesus Christ?"

The appeal to the unsaved was given in a different way from Evangelist Miller's usual method. He asked the congregation to remain seated, and the personal workers to speak to no one, so that persons would have the opportunity to come to Christ with no invitation other than that from the pulpit. Seven persons came thus, first a young man from far in the rear of the tabernacle. The second was a young man who had helped paint the banners for the campaign. As he clasped the evangelist's hand he said: "I just couldn't wait any longer." Then came a boy, then one by one, four women, nearly all from well back in the house. The evangelist congratulated each on their courage. Then the personal workers went out into the congregation and others came. In all, eighteen decisions were recorded, the converts including three married couples. As on Sunday night, it was difficult to close the meeting as people kept coming while what was intended to be a closing hymn was sung.

To-day, as previously announced, is farmers' day, with services all day and a picnic dinner at noon in the tabernacle.
