

Beech-Nut Tomato Catsup

JUST about a year ago we advertised our new delicacy — Beech-Nut Tomato Catsup! People tasted the fresh, delicate flavor; discovered that this delicious Catsup costs no more than the ordinary commercial catsup—and our entire pack was sold sixty days after the first announcement. A full-size bottle is 25 cents. There is more real Catsup in the bottle—more concentration, less water! While our pack of Beech-Nut Tomato Catsup is larger this year than last year, it will probably go just about as quickly. Your grocer should have his supply in hand by this time. Two sizes—25c. and 15c. See him soon.

DOOIN SIGNS WITH REDS

Contract Calls for $6,000 a Year for Two Years

Philadelphia, Jan. 29.—Charley Dooin, former manager of the Phillies, signed the contract offered him by the Cincinnati team yesterday. There was no official announcement regarding the terms of the contract, but it is believed to call for $6,000 a year for two years. Manager Herzog, of the Reds, came to this city to sign Dooin yesterday and left for his home in Maryland in the afternoon.

Manager Pat Moran, of the Phillies, returned yesterday from Durham, N. C., where he held a conference with George Whitted, of the Boston club, who is wanted by Moran in exchange for Magee. Word was received here Wednesday that Whitted had turned down the Phillies' offer, but Moran said he was still hopeful of getting the player. Either Groh or Niehoff will be secured from Cincinnati for Dooin. Moran expects to have all the deals closed before the Phillies start South.

Scout Neal left to-day for St. Petersburg, Fla., where the Phillies will train this spring. Neal will see that the grounds are fixed up and arrange for hotel accommodations for the players, who start South February 26.

NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION MAY BE NEW MAJOR LEAGUE

President Chivington Says the Draft Rule Is to Be Stricken Out—To Have Teams in Big League Cities, Too

Chicago, Jan. 29.—The American Association has taken another big step—the biggest, so far—in its progress toward the high places of baseball, according to President Chivington, having gained from the national commission the promise that the major leagues' power of draft over it will be given up.

In addition, the commission has agreed to grant the association the right to enter certain cities now in the American or National leagues and will turn over a number of players. But representation on the national commission and participation in the world's championship series are steps not yet taken, according to Chivington.

The concession, which was first announced yesterday by President McGill, of the Indianapolis club, makes the association a major league, on equal terms with the American and National, so far as the draft is concerned, Chivington said.

What other differences it will make in interleague relations will be arranged by the commission, though action is not expected until after a decision in the anti-trust suit, he concluded.

Meanwhile, information regarding the territory and players' transfer will be withheld, Chivington said.

Central at Shippensburg

The Central High school basketball team will play Shippensburg Normal at Shippensburg to-morrow night. The playing of Central last Friday night against Lebanon showed a great improvement over the playing in the Pottsville game. Central expects a hard game.

Gettysburg in Extra Period

Selinsgrove, Pa., Jan. 29.—In a close game requiring five extra minutes to decide, Gettysburg College was defeated here last night by Susquehanna University in a Central Pennsylvania intercollegiate game by score of 35 to 31.

SMITH MUCH IMPROVED

He Has Better of Twelve Out of Twenty Rounds

In outpointing Battling Levinsky at New Orleans, Wednesday night, "Gunboat" Smith showed much improvement over his last effort and did nearly all the fighting and leading throughout. Levinsky, in the early rounds, appeared to be all at sea, and failed to make an impression on the big fellow. The New Yorker showed marked superiority in but four of the twenty rounds. He, however, fought a game battle and took much punishment. His fighting in the clinches and his blows to Smith's body and back left their mark.

Smith inflicted much damage to Levinsky and had him bleeding freely from the nose and mouth in every round after the third. He shot a terrible right across to the face in that round, which staggered Levinsky and brought blood.

Smith had the better of Levinsky in 12 of the 20 rounds, his jabbing and right crossing many times, sending Levinsky to the ropes.

The final five rounds of the fight resulted in several rallies which brought the crowd to its feet and seemed to encourage the big fellows to renewed efforts.

SUSPEND COLLEGE STARS

Jones and Diehl Ousted From F. and M. Basketball Five

Lancaster, Jan. 29.—A bomb was thrown into athletic circles at Franklin and Marshall when the board of athletic control announced the suspension of Captain W. Myron Jones, guard of the varsity basketball, and Diehl, the big center.

Two other players, Mountz and Evans, were let off with a warning. The four men, all members of the varsity squad, played on the Littitz team last Saturday in violation of a rule that forbids the participation of college athletes in games outside the institution.

Diehl was noted as one of the best centers in this part of the State.

TWO TOWNS WANT TO ENTER THE CENTRAL PA. LEAGUE

President Stees Will Write Applicants and Report at Next Meeting—Lebanon's Application Turned Down at Steelton Meeting

The representatives of the four clubs in the Central Pennsylvania Baseball League met last evening in Steelton and decided to increase the circuit by adding two more clubs. Lebanon's application was turned down but two other places within a reasonable distance of the present teams in the circuit are anxious to have Central Pennsylvania League ball.

Frank Stees, president of the league, was authorized to communicate with these applicants, informing them of the rules of the organization and ask if they are willing to post the usual guarantee. Another meeting of the league will be called by President Stees after he has the required information and the matter will be decided definitely. The names of these two places were withheld pending action. This will increase the circuit to six teams.

By statistics which were presented at the meeting it was shown that the Central Pennsylvania League was a great success during the past season, and with an addition of two more teams, it is believed, that the league will be even more successful during 1915. The annex to the league will not be made, however, until the next meeting which will be held some time during the week of February 7. The names of the two new clubs will then be made public, and the league officers will also be elected and installed at that time.

Many people witnessed the league contests last season and according to the statistics, 23,983 persons paid admission. The average attendance at the games was 604, while the largest crowd that witnessed a game was at Highspire on July 4, when 1,818 fans saw the game with New Cumberland. The second largest attendance was at the opening contest at Steelton, when there were 1,096 paid admissions to the game. Middletown's average attendance was 662.

PERSIAN GULF PEARLS

The Divers Are Practically Slaves of the Boat Masters

Bombay, noted for its pearl markets, is not a pearl producer, though the gems are brought there for shipment to all parts of the world. The pearls sold in Bombay come from the Bahrain islands, a small archipelago on the western side of the Persian gulf, which, although adjacent to territory under the control of Turkey, is governed by an independent sheik under special British protection, the British government maintaining a political agent there.

Of this group of islands only those of Bahrain and Maharak are of any size. Their importance, however, is out of all proportion to their extent, for they are the great center of the Persian gulf pearl fisheries, which are the world's chief source of supply for pearls. The sheik of Bahrain is said to have a customs revenue amounting to about $400,000 per year, which makes him the richest ruler in the Persian gulf. The pearl fisheries under his control may in a good year bring to his islands as much as $2,500,000.

It is difficult for newcomers to obtain the services of good divers owing to the system in vogue, which practically makes this class of men slaves to the masters of the pearling boats. The men's earnings in the majority of cases are insufficient to keep them all the year round, and consequently they take advances from their masters year after year to such an extent that they can never repay their debt. When a diver elects to engage himself to another boat the owner of the latter has to pay up the debt due to the former master should he engage him.—Argonaut.

COMING FROM WAR ZONE TO COACH YALE

Yale students are rejoicing over the announcement that Guy Nickalls the noted oarsman, will return to New Haven shortly to resume his duties there as coach of the Eli varsity crew. The news has made Yale's rowing stock take a big boom for this season, as Nickalls was directly responsible for the fine showing the New Haven university made on the water in 1914, and his failure to return would have been a serious loss.

In connection with Nickalls' promised return there is an interesting sidelight thrown on the English view of sports, even at a time when the country is in the throes of the greatest warfare of history.

Nickalls returned to England shortly after the outbreak of the war and entered the army, being ordered to a recruiting station. There he has been for the last four or five months. Lord Kitchener was acquainted with Nickalls' desire to get back to the United States and has determined to grant him a leave of absence.
