

ENGAGE RAYMOND FOR A SERIES OF THREE TALKS

Industrial Manager of Retail Dry Goods Association Made a Good Impression at Chamber of Commerce Meeting Last Evening

Frank Jewel Raymond, industrial manager of the Retail Dry Goods Association, has been engaged by the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce to give a series of talks to the employees of the mercantile and manufacturing concerns of this city.

Last night at the meeting of the merchants in the Board of Trade hall he talked to more than one hundred representative business men of the city.

Mr. Raymond comes to this city with an unbroken record of successful engagements with the biggest retail establishments in the United States. Among these firms are Jordan-Marsh Company, Boston; Strawbridge & Clothier, Philadelphia; Gimbel Brothers, New York; The H. J. Heinz Company, Pittsburgh; Denholm & McKay Co., Worcester, Mass. etc.

He helps persons and business houses increase their output at a profit. He has learned that a manufacturer can increase his output in but two ways; first, by adding new equipment; second, by increasing the efficiency of the present equipment.

The Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce has arranged for the three talks for which Mr. Raymond is noted to be given on February 19, 23 and 25. In order to carry out the work necessary to holding the course of talks, Henderson Gilbert, president of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce, has named the following gentlemen to serve as a committee:

A. W. Moul, The Robert Co., chairman; R. W. Dowdell, general secretary; Burroughs & Co., J. W. Bowman, Bowman & Co., J. W. Sweeney, Mechanics Trust Co.; Benjamin Strouse, The Globe; George W. Bogar, Rogar sporting goods store; William M. Bennett, Jr., Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart; W. E. Orth, City Star Laundry; A. W. West, New England Mutual Life Insurance Company; Dr. C. K. CAPITOL HILL REAL LEGISLATIVE WORK WILL BEGIN MONDAY NIGHT

Bills on First Reading Will Come Up in Both the Senate and House—Rushing the Deficiency Appropriation Measure

The real work of legislation will begin on Monday night when bills on first reading will come up in both Senate and House. There are not many of them, but it is a start. The House has already passed on first reading the deficiency appropriation bill to pay bills not provided for by the last Legislature, and it will be on second reading on Monday night and final passage on Tuesday, when it will be messaged to the Senate and as rapidly disposed of in that body. There is only one bill on first reading in the House, that to permit Peter C. Kuhn, of Scranton, to sue the State. The House Committee on Judiciary General will report favorably on the suffrage amendment, and Chairman Wilson will ask that it be read a first time in order to get quick action on it and get it out of the road and into the Senate, where it may not be handled so gently and expeditiously.

In the Senate there are five bills on first reading, among them the bill requiring county and State to take care of and give treatment to indigent persons who are habitual inebriates or drug fiends. The Senate committee will get to work on Monday night and it is expected that a large number of bills will be reported out for first reading on Wednesday, when the Senate will make its regular adjournment for the week.

Wolf, of Baltimore, at the annual missionary meeting of the Lutheran Brotherhood of this city held at Christ Lutheran church last night. Dr. Wolf told how the natives of the far East have been trying to find what influence has been operating in the western nations which has placed these nations so far ahead of them, and that they are now as curious as ever to learn of Christianity.

In his discussion of home mission work, the Rev. Dr. A. S. Hartman said that the decline of the Primitive Baptist and the Moravian churches, as examples, has been due to their neglect of home mission duties. He declared that the civilization of this country has been dependent upon its home mission work.

Mr. MacMillan instanced how in Washington, Pa., a city of but one-third of Harrisburg's population, the mere mailing of a formal announcement by merchants to customers whose accounts were in an unsatisfactory condition resulted in $10,000 being paid in on dormant accounts during November, 1914.
