

Explosive Coughs Fairly Rack You to Pieces

Foley's Honey and Tar is Just Like Oil on Troubled Waters for those Violent Racking Coughs.

They rasp and strain your throat, tear at your chest and lungs, congest the blood in your neck and head, almost strangle you, leave you weak and fairly exhausted. Often they are a symptom of such grave diseases as bronchitis, pleurisy, pneumonia—even tuberculosis.

"Oh, for a bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY and TAR to stop this awful coughing."

FOLEY'S HONEY and TAR COMPOUND spreads a healing, soothing coating as it glides down the raw inflamed throat. It loosens the cough, brings the phlegm up easily. Takes away that tight feeling across the chest, and eases stuffy, wheezy breathing and hoarseness.

S. MARTIN, Bessett, Neb., writes: "I had a severe cough and cold and was almost past going. I got a bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY and TAR and used it frequently, when having violent coughing spells, and am glad to say it cured my cough entirely and my cold soon disappeared."

Contains no opiates. Absolutely a pure medicine. Refuse substitutes.

MISSED A TRICK ON TAX

Congressmen Try Vainly to Escape Payments on Campaign Outlays

Washington, Jan. 29.—Congress missed a trick when it passed the income tax section of the tariff bill by not specifying that Congressional and Senatorial campaign expenses should be deducted from net income, and the income tax division of the Treasury has been busy denying this privilege to Congressmen ever since.

Congressmen whose campaign expenses in the last election have mounted up to a thousand dollars or more have vainly endeavored to find a way to prevent the sergeant-at-arms from deducting in advance each month a twelfth of the annual income tax on a Congressional salary of $7,500.

The income tax division has suggested that the only way to find relief is by an appeal to the Secretary of the Treasury, or an amendment to the law. Neither of these suggestions is likely to be tried because of the publicity involved.

4 Cans of Ashes Less

An institution in this city had been using a certain grade of buck-wheat coal in its steam heating plant, and daily 10 cans of ashes were taken from the furnace.

Then Kelley's Nanticoke Buck-wheat was tried with the result that only 6 cans of ashes had to be removed.

This demonstrates the superior heating efficiency of Kelley's Buck-wheat—more heat and less ashes, because it's all pure coal.

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat Less Meat and Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Out Kidneys—Drink Plenty Water

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

At less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

U. S. IMPOSES HEAVY FINES

Conspiracy to Violate Food and Drugs Act and Other Federal Statutes Brings Heavy Penalties

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—Conspiracy on the part of two or more people to violate the Food and Drugs Act and other Federal Statutes has recently brought heavy fines, coupled with loss of citizenship, to certain dealers.

In a certain case, the Department has lately co-operated with another Federal Department in bringing a criminal action and in helping to secure the conviction of a prominent coffee merchant and a shipping agent for conspiracy to violate the Food and Drugs Act involving the shipment of coffee in interstate commerce from New York to the West. In these cases the two defendants were each fined $3,000 and by reason of their conviction of a felony lost their citizenship under the provisions of a New York Statute.

In another action in co-operation with the Customs Service, the Department was of assistance in the proceeding which resulted in the imposition of a fine of $5,000 in the Massachusetts Federal Court on one defendant engaged in tampering with revenue import stamps and selling domestic liquors as imported. A second defendant is now awaiting sentence. In two other jurisdictions, the Department assisted in procuring the indictment for conspiracy to violate the Food and Drugs Act of a number of egg handlers who have been illegally shipping spoiled eggs in interstate commerce for food purposes.

In a number of other cases, especially concerning drug matters and the prevention of the sale of worthless so-called curative devices, the Department has co-operated with the postoffice authorities in bringing actions and securing convictions for violations of the postal laws involving misuse of the mails.

DUKE IGNORED IN WILL

His Name Not Mentioned by Late Eugene Zimmerman Estate

Cincinnati, Jan. 29.—No mention whatever of the Duke of Manchester is made in the will of Eugene Zimmerman, his father-in-law, which was admitted to probate here yesterday.

Mr. Zimmerman's daughter, the Duchess of Manchester, receives a life interest in the estate, believed to be worth more than $10,000,000. On the death of the Duchess the estate is to remain in trust for twenty years; the oldest child of the Duchess to receive one-third of the income and the other two-thirds is to be divided equally among the other children. At the end of the twenty-one year trust the estate is to be divided among all the children of the Duchess.

If there are no children living at the end of the trust and if the Duchess fails to leave a will the entire estate is then to go to St. Paul's Episcopal church of Cincinnati in memory of Mrs. Zimmerman.

Probate Judge Lauders received a letter from Julius Christiansen, who claims to be Zimmerman's son, asking for a copy of the will. Christiansen explained that he was unable to come and get it because he had just been sentenced to thirty days in jail at Martinsburg, W. Va., for trespassing on railway property.

John E. Bruce and the Duchess of Manchester are named as executors, but as the Duchess is barred from serving as a foreigner through marriage, Bruce is the sole executor.

Bruce, who was Zimmerman's attorney for years, is the secretary of the National Baseball Commission.

EXCHANGE SEAT AT $40,000

Price Marks Advance of $2,000 Over the Last Sale

New York, Jan. 29.—A Stock Exchange seat sold yesterday for $40,000, an advance of $2,000 over the last sale. The transfer was from Leslie Herman to Harry G. Tobey. Robert Wilson was the petitioner.

A petition was circulated on the floor of the exchange asking for a doubling of the assessment payable to the gratuity fund whenever a member dies. Up to now the brokers have paid an assessment of $10 each, which meant a payment of $10,000 to the heirs of a dead member. If the present plan becomes a law the assessment will be $20 and the insurance $20,000. The petition is being circulated because it is believed the last seven years have cut seriously into the resources of many of the members.

PERJURY IN FRANK CASE

Minister Tells of False Affidavits as Trio's Trial Opens in Atlanta

Atlanta, Jan. 29.—Testimony began yesterday in the Superior Court at the trial of D. S. Lehon, C. C. Tedder and Arthur Thurman, indicted for subornation of perjury in the Leo M. Frank murder case. They are charged with procuring false affidavits from the Rev. C. B. Ragsdale and L. Barber, saying they overheard James Conley, a negro, acknowledge the murder of Mary Phagan, a factory girl, for which Frank was convicted. Ragsdale and Barber repudiated the affidavits. Lehon is manager of a detective agency which took up Frank's defense.

Ragsdale testified that on April 23 he signed the affidavit in the office of Luther Z. Rosser, one of Frank's lawyers, in the presence of Rosser, Lehon and Barber. The only truth in the affidavit, he said, was that he had heard two negroes discussing the Frank case.

"Thurman told me," the witness testified, "that this conversation could be fixed up to appear as a confession by Conley to another negro." Ragsdale then told of alleged meetings and negotiations with Thurman, Tedder and Lehon. The day after he signed the affidavit, Ragsdale testified, Thurman gave him $200 and gave Barber $100. "Thurman and Tedder both told me they each got $100 out of the deal," said the witness. "That same night a man with a voice like Lehon's called me on the telephone and said: 'Ragsdale, you sit steady in the boat. We can give bond for any amount and there's $10,000 waiting for you if this thing goes through.'"

Under cross-examination Ragsdale said that on the day he made his original affidavit his "mind was in a whirl" and that he "was practically unconscious of what he did."
