SEA RAIDS BLOCK PORT AT BELFAST

ply across the North Channel have been held in port, and fourteen colliers are remaining at anchor.

Liverpool, Feb. 1, Via London, 1.27 P. M.—The insurance rates on coasters had been raised from five to twenty shillings per cent. as a result of the German submarine raid.

Sinking of the Icaria

Have, Via Paris, Jan. 31, (Midnight)

The steamer Icaria from Brazil with a cargo of coffee, sugar and hides, was twenty miles northwest of Cape Lehoue to-day when a violent explosion occurred on her starboard side below the waterline.

The steamer immediately became unmanageable and began to sink by the head. In reply to signals of distress two tugs put out and towed her into Havre.

Describes Disaster to Tokomaru

London, Feb. 1, 2.40 A. M.—A member of the crew of the British steamer Tokomaru, which was sunk in the English channel, supposedly by a submarine, has arrived in London and thus describes the disaster:

"The officers and crew had just finished breakfast when the explosion occurred. The ship was virtually stationary, seeking a pilot. The vessel tilted over immediately and soon had a heavy list.

"The captain ordered the boats out and in 15 minutes every one was away but saved virtually nothing. The general opinion of the crew was that she had been torpedoed but no sign of a submarine was seen."

Paris, Feb. 1, 5 A. M.—The sinking of the British steamer Tokomaru in the English Channel off Havre by a German submarine, said to have been done without previous warning to enable the crew to escape, has provoked an outburst of indignation in the French press. All refer to the interview credited to Admiral Von Tirpitz, the commander-in-chief of the German naval forces, in which a war on merchant ships by submarines was outlined.

German Press Comment on Raid

Berlin, Via Amsterdam and London, Feb. 1, 2.45 A. M.—The German newspapers comment extensively on the German submarine raid in English home waters.

"We hope that the commercial war now taken up by German submarines in British home waters," says the "Tages Zeitung," "will strike at the root of the British trans-oceanic trade."

Captain Persius, the naval expert of the "Berliner Tageblatt," has this to say of the event in his paper:

"Especially remarkable is the theatre of new action. Hitherto the most advanced point where our submarines displayed activity was in the westerly outlet of the channel, but thenceforward the English merchant navigation will have to reckon with other German submarine dangers, which it can only avoid when it stops traffic."

Sarcasm for England's Doings

The "Post" says sarcastically: "We see that England's attempt to cut off the supply of victuals by hindering all foreign trade promises great success."

All the papers express enthusiasm over the doing of the submarine as ushering in the war upon Great Britain's commerce as heralded by Admiral Von Tirpitz. Attention is called particularly to the fact that U-21 is operating a thousand miles from her base, which is a greater radius of activity than hitherto was believed possible. The argument is advanced that what already has happened to small coasters may to-morrow happen to the great English liners.

London, Feb. 1, 2.28 P. M.—A message received here this afternoon from Southampton says that a German submarine, supposedly the U-21, was seen off there early this morning.

Causes Commotion at Lloyds

London, Feb. 1, 3.30 P. M.—The German submarine raid in the Irish Sea caused a commotion at Lloyds and insurance rates stiffened generally. The Atlantic rate ordinarily is five shillings ($1.25) per cent. but the underwriters are now asking ten shillings ($2.50) and in some cases fifteen shillings ($3.75). What little business is being transacted, however, is believed to be at the lower figures.

Work of U-21 Praised by Germans

Berlin, Feb. 1, By Wireless to Sayville.—The exploits of the German submarine U-21 in the Irish Sea have awakened a lively satisfaction in Germany, they are generally looked upon as inaugurating a serious campaign of submarine warfare on British commerce.

The demonstration that German submarines can operate on the west coast of England is treated in Berlin as an achievement of the utmost importance, it being the opinion of German naval men that it is likely to make the British policy of starving out Germany recoil on Great Britain.

News regarding the land operations both in the east and in the west is scarcer to-day than usual. There is a tendency on the part of German military experts to watch closely developments in the Carpathian mountains where further successes for the Austro-German forces are expected.

Charged With Assaulting Theatre Man

Marietta, Feb. 1.—Peter Cule, the Hungarian who, it is alleged, assaulted Samuel Acri, manager of a theatre, was given a hearing to-day before Justice of the Peace Hieka, and held for his trial at court. Acri was held up on his way home about a month ago and badly injured.

STOUGH FORCES TO GREAT TROTTER

Tabernacle Workers Will Gather at Tomorrow's Rescue Mission Meetings

EVANGELISTIC CHORUS TO SING

Song Books of Stough Campaign Will Be Used—Meeting to Be Held in Afternoon for Women and in Evening for Men

Interest in the visit here to-morrow of "Mel" Trotter, the mission worker of Grand Rapids, Mich., is widespread. Endorsement of Mr. Trotter was given in many of the city churches yesterday.

He will deliver two addresses on the story of his life. The afternoon meeting is mainly, but not exclusively, for women, and the evening meeting for men.

The meetings are held in the interest of the City Rescue Mission. It is hoped to make Harrisburg the fiftieth of the chain of Trotter missions established throughout the United States.

There will be a sort of reunion of the Stough local forces at these meetings. The tabernacle chorus provide cheers for both the Trotter meetings, while the ushering in under the direction of Louis Houseal, chief usher at the campaign meetings in the tabernacle, who will have a number of his old colleagues serving with him again.

The public is requested to bring the "Make Christ King" song books with them for use in the singing.

Both meetings are free to the public, but an offering will be taken to help defray the expense of Mr. Trotter's visit. Mr. Trotter will arrive from Pittsburgh to-morrow morning and will be met by George W. Riley and members of the board of directors of the local mission. An automobile trip round the city is planned.

While here Mr. Trotter will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Riley. Between the afternoon and the evening meeting, Mr. Trotter will be tendered a reception at a supper to be held at the Commonwealth hotel by a number of representative business men. He is one of the principal speakers at an undenominational rally at Philadelphia on Wednesday.

The managers of the local Rescue Mission, under whose auspices to-morrow's meetings are held, are: President, James W. Barker; vice president, Luther Minter; secretary, W. G. Hean; treasurer, Fred Kelker, and directors, Philip Reed, Harvey Buck, E. S. Schilling, E. F. Weaver and R. F. Webster.

P. R. R. MEN AS FIRE FIGHTERS

Fut Out 127 Blazes in 1914 Without Aid of Public Departments

Four hundred and twenty-seven fires—more than three-quarters of all that occurred on the property of the system last year—were extinguished by Pennsylvania railroad employees with aid of public fire departments, according to figures given out by the company today. Promptness in checking these fires kept the average loss on each down to $12, although the property directly endangered was worth $9,516,434. The actual damage sustained in fires extinguished by employees was only $13,468, or less than one-fifth of one per cent. of the value of the property threatened.

Organized fire brigades among the employees last year checked 24 fires and saved $1,524,975 worth of property, at a loss of $706. Other employees, by the use of chemical extinguishers, put out 71 fires, saving property to the value of $2,713,228, with a loss of only $2,684, and by the use of company's fire hose protected property with a value of $1,779,022 through extinguishing 43 fires with a loss of $2,262.

The total fire loss on the Pennsylvania system during 1914, including fires where the assistance of city fire departments was received, was $658,483, while the value of the entire property was almost $400,000,000, the fire loss being only 16 cents per cent of $100 of property value at risk.

Many of the fires resulting in this loss were from causes over which the railroad company had no control. Forty-three fires originated on adjacent property. Incendiaries started twelve fires, boys were responsible for two, tramps for fifteen, lightning for seven and carelessness with matches and tobacco for sixteen.
