When you purchase furniture, you purchase YOUR comfort and convenience, and the beauty of YOUR home, and it must be lasting. ## Two Telegrams and the Express Train

Tell the story of a newly-created three-piece living room suite. Grand Rapids wired our Furniture Department of a new sample suite they had just placed on show, asking if we would be interested in showing it in our February sale, taking orders if desired.

Another wire—and along it came by express.

We Opened To-day Our Last Shipment of the $15 Plush Coats

It is not likely we will succeed in getting more of them as the materials—the good grades—have about disappeared from the market. No maker who has the plush will make them and sell them so that we can retail them for $15.00. We were only able to sell the kind of coats we sold at $15.00 by the misfortune of a good maker who over-bought his capacity to sell. He needed the cash and we took his coats in exchange at a very low price. But there are thirty of them here for to-morrow and there are several very good styles. All sizes up to 46 among them. Belted all the way around—half belted—flared models, Fox trot models, College models.

All at One Price, $15.00
