16,000 Volumes Are Included in
This Great Sale

Books 30 to 60% Off Present Bargain Prices

Every reader of newspapers remembers the awful crash of the H. B. Clafin Co. last summer, but it was not given to everybody to know that the Clafin Co. were leaders in the wholesale book business for eighteen years, and that they frequently published entire special editions of popular books at about half the price of the original editions.

The Clafin receivers ordered the discontinuance of their book department, and in consequence an immediate sale of the stock was begun, with the result that we were able to buy more than 16,000 volumes, all brand new books, at 30 to 60 per cent. below the Clafin bargain prices.

Harrisburg's Share of the Clafin Book Stock Goes On Sale Tomorrow, Fourth Street Aisle

A book event of such magnitude has never before occurred in the history of book selling, and the prices are far and away below the lowest prices for which such books have ever been sold. For instance: the "Every Child Should Know" series which, in the original edition, was 90c and $1.20, and the special edition 50c, is now 35c a volume; "Beautiful Children by the Great Masters," originally $5.00, is now $1.50--and so on to the end.

Every item in the great Clafin stock is represented in this sale. Of some books there are not many,—so for those books it will be more to your interest to be on hand tomorrow rather than on Wednesday. But come when you can—you'll enjoy the enthusiasm that is bound to dominate the sale.

Miniature Series of Great Writers

16mo., dainty cloth covers, illustrations in each volume. Published at 40c each; heretofore 25c; now 15c.

This series of "Every Child Should Know" books might also be called "Every Child Will Enjoy" books. They have been written and edited by able and popular writers who know what is good for children, and how to give it to them in thoroughly enjoyable form. The names of Mary E. Burt, Neltje Blanchan, Julia Ellen Rogers, Hamilton W. Mabie and the other editors of this series ensure to you that your children's reading will be under good direction, and are a guarantee to the children that they will be kept interested. You are sure that every one of these books is good for them, and they are sure that they will enjoy every book.
