LAST WEEK OF TABERNACLE SHOWS RENEWED INTEREST

Evangelist Miller Still Interests Large Audiences at Mechanicsburg, While There Are Many Additions to the Sawdust Trail Hitters

Mechanicsburg, Feb. 10.—The closing week of the tabernacle campaign began last night with a great victory when eighty-three men, women and children decided for Christ. It was firemen's night. The entire Mechanicsburg fire department came in a body. "The Cross of Calvary" was sung by the Washington quartet, Hollinger, Dietz, Beitzel and Stansfield. "The Merry Bells Are Ringing" was sung by the Rescue quartet, Eisenhower, Adams, Mowery and Cromleigh, and "Take Time to Be Holy," played by a brass quartet from the Washington Company, Snaveley, Hollinger, Hershman and Diller. The special program by the firemen closed with "The Wood Old Rescue Bell," sung by the Rescue boys, with fire bell accompaniment, with Dr. Eisenhower leading, and this was followed by the Rescue yell, given with great vigor.

Another delegation was a large one from Churchtown. Their representative, Master Heisey, recited feelingly and effectively "The Two Roads."

When firemen whistled the chorus of "I Shall Dwell Forever There," Prof. Hohgatt dared one warbler to "do it alone," and he did it. The Rev. J. J. Rees offered the opening prayer and the Rev. C. F. Raach read the Scripture lesson.

announced as the subject of his sermon, "Pilate," and showed that Pilate, the grafting politician, wanted to do the right thing but was afraid he would be exposed.

Two-thirds of the penitents who came forward did so before there was any general personal work through the congregation. One of the first firemen to hit the trail was Dr. Eisenhower, of the Rescue Hook and Ladder Company, first train in the tabernacle male octave, who has been a church member, but came forward to confess that his life has not measured up to God's standard. He had not been seated among the penitents long when he sprang to the platform and flung out a ringing challenge to his fellow firemen: "Come on, Hookies! there's a dozen of you boys back there that want to stand with me in this, as we stand together every day. Come on, boys!" And they came.

Among the penitents was a blind man, who was led forward by a business man who was converted on Merchants' Day. An aged man, in the very sunset of life, came and was followed by three grandchildren and a grandson-in-law. Husbands and wives came together, and in one or two cases husband, wife and child. And, as usual, there was a great number of young men and women.

Photoplay To-day "Love Shall Never Die" Most wonderful 5 act production featuring Lida Borelli, the leading character of the famous "Vendetta," and who has been so greatly admired by Harrisburg patrons, appears to-day in "Love Shall Never Die." Jack Standring, famous Lubin actor who for some time has been away from the Lubin studio, returns and will be seen to-day in "In Her Mother's Footsteps." Movie fans will welcome Jack Standring's return, as a Lubin drama featuring this popular star, means the best in Moving Pictures. Thursday, Francis X. Bushman, voted the world's most popular actor, appears in a two-act Essanay drama "The Ambition of the Baron." Beverly Bayne, Mr. Bushman's leading lady, shares honors in this splendid drama. Friday, another Broadway-Star Vitagraph production, "Underneath the Paint," in three acts, featuring Helen Gardner, Saturday, the first appearance of Charles Chaplin, the former Keystone comedian, in an Essanay comedy. This two-reel production is named, "His New Job," and reports from the larger cities, where this picture has already been shown, states that it is immense and a veritable riot. Don't fail to see Charles Chaplin Saturday in "His New Job."—Adv.

To further the movement C. M. Forney, 426 Market street, has decided to close his store at 10 o'clock instead of at 11 o'clock, starting the 15th of February. He said this is to be just a start for as soon as his customers become acquainted with the new hours and they prove to be of no inconvenience to them, he will favor closing still earlier. Some time ago he has reduced his Sunday hours, shortening the time the store is open at least five hours, without any decrease in the volume of business.

Will Close Earlier For some time the druggists of the city have been agitating a movement

It is a mistake to set up our own standard of right and wrong and expect everybody to conform to it.

NEW GROCERIES

All cereals, flour, sugar, coffee, crackers and anything that may have been affected by the smoke have been taken out and replaced by new fresh stock.

This was done to protect our customers and maintain the standard of excellence essential for those who insist on the best always.
