MORE TALK OF CHANGES IN THE UTILITIES COMMISSION

Reported Governor Will Withdraw Appointments and Make New Ones—Act May Be Changed to Meet Alleged Constitutional Defects

Governor Brumbaugh is considering a plan to make the Secretary of Internal Affairs an ex-officio member of the Public Service Commission in connection with plans said to be designed to reorganize the Commission and remove some of the features on which its constitutionality may be attacked.

In connection with this, it is said, the Governor has taken up the matter of appointments to the Commission, and that those appointments now in the hands of the Senate Committee on Executive Nominations will be withdrawn and a new list sent to the Senate next week.

In the matter of the constitutional features it is held that the Legislature delegated to the Commission certain powers which, under the Constitution, no appointed body can exercise. These include the arbitrary regulation of railroad rates and direct interference with the contracts between public utility companies and the cities in which they are operated. It is understood that Secretary Houck is perfectly willing to act as an ex-officio member of the Commission.

The Governor has made it known that he intends to scan carefully every piece of legislation submitted for his approval, and will consult frequently with his Cabinet on legislative measures. On his desk in his private office Governor Brumbaugh has a digest of the provisions of the Republican State platform so far as state issues are concerned, and he proposes persistently to urge that every party pledge be sacredly kept. He is preparing to have a conference next Tuesday evening with the Legislative Committee created to confer with him on carrying out platform pledges, and expects by that time to have made much progress in the preparation of administration bills upon these issues. In all there are eighteen bills that the Governor is personally interested in, as follows: Good Roads, Child Labor, Workmen's Compensation, Woman's Labor Laws, Pennsylvania State College, Corporation Taxes, Education, Public Monuments, Forestry, Health Department, Conservation, Agriculture, Port of Philadelphia, Ohio River and Lake Erie Canal, Mother's Pensions, Soldiers and Sailors' Pension, Woman Suffrage, Public Service Commission.

THE GOOD OLD SUMMER TIME

Tailors in Silk and Flannel Set Pace for Fashions

Chicago, Feb. 11.—"Howdy do," said the robin.

"Howdy do," replied cool-looking men in gauzy white suits and shirts and canvas shoes and Panama hats in Grant Park yesterday.

The traffic cop scratched his head and was about to make a pinch, when a woman in a lamp shade gown and a submarine hat asked him if those fourteen men were members of the National Association of Merchant Tailors.

They were, and they were showing Michigan avenue that snowy flannels, creamy silk shirts and filmy white stockings go this year with Panamas and low canvas shoes.

Crowds stared and motor drivers threatened to tie up traffic as the delegation, headed by John E. Spann and Joan J. Maypole, stopped from the Congress Hotel and promenade down the boulevard.

The Tailors' Association strongly advocates wearing silk and pongee clothing in summer. There were attestations to their coolness when the parade returned to the hotel.

TO FINE WOMEN WHO POWDER

Kansas Bill Bars Also Earrings, False Hair and Perfumes

Topeka, Feb. 11.—A bill introduced in the Kansas Legislature yesterday provides that women under 45 years of age who wear earrings or treat their faces with cosmetics "for purpose of creating a false impression" will be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction be subject to fines.

Face powder, perfumes, false hair and hair bleaching materials are among the articles women are forbidden to use.

BREAD TICKETS FOR BERLIN

4,000,000 to Be Issued Entitling Holders to a Weekly Supply

Amsterdam, via London, Feb. 11.—Regulations for the distribution of bread in Berlin compels house owners under a penalty of 175 marks ($42.75) or six months in prison, to furnish lists of occupants of their houses, according to which weekly bread tickets will be issued.

It is figured that the total of tickets will reach 4,000,000.

An Old, Family Cough Remedy, Home-Made

Easily Prepared—Costs Very Little, but is Prompt, Sure and Effective

By making this pint of old-time cough syrup at home you not only save about 75¢ compared with the ready-made kind, but you will also have a more prompt and positive remedy in every way. It overcomes the usual coughs, throat and chest colds in 24 hours—relieves even whooping cough quickly—and is excellent, too, for bronchitis, bronchial asthma, hoarseness and spasmodic croup.

Get from any drug store 2½ ounces of Pinex (10 cents worth), pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Full directions with Pinex. Keeps perfectly and tastes good.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. It quickly loosens the dry, hoarse or painful cough and heals the inflamed membranes. It also has a remarkable effect in overcoming the persistent loose cough by stopping the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes.

The effect of Pinex on the membranes is known by almost every one. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract combined with glycerol and other natural healing pine elements.

There are many worthless imitations of this famous mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "Pinex," and do not accept anything else.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with every operation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

FRIDAY THE BIG C. E. NIGHT

West End District Meet at Augsburg—Banquet to Precede Big Rally To-morrow Night

Many Christian Endeavor Societies are expected to attend the rally of the West End district to be held in the Augsburg Lutheran church, Fifth and Muench streets, this evening. The following is the program, John Orider and B. B. Drum, vice presidents, presiding: 7.45—Song service, Christian Endeavor Choir; devotional exercises, the Rev. A. M. Stamets, pastor Augsburg Lutheran church; music, Christian Endeavor Choir, Sixth Street United Brethren church; address, the Rev. F. J. H. Thomas, pastor Maclay Street Church of God; music, choir; offering; music, choir; benediction.

Great enthusiasm is being manifested by the Christian Endeavor Societies of the city and county for the big rally to be held in the Bethlehem Lutheran church, Green and Cumberland streets, to-morrow evening. Many societies will be represented by large delegations and it is probably that an overflow meeting will be necessary. A. C. Dean, president Harrisburg Christian Endeavor Union, will preside and the Rev. H. B. Markward, pastor Bethlehem Lutheran church, will conduct the devotional exercises. The Rev. Dr. F. E. Clark of Boston, will speak on "The Full Significance of Christian Endeavor Week."

A banquet will be held at the Harris Street United Evangelical church, Harris and Susquehanna streets, at 6 o'clock to-morrow evening. A number of prominent live wire workers will be present and many societies will be represented by two or more delegates. Tickets can be had on application to Benjamin Whitman, chairman banquet committee.

A Personal Statement

There are so-called "honey and tar" preparations that cost the dealer half as much but sell at the same price as the original and genuine Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. We never offer these imitations and substitutes. We know you will buy Foley's whenever you need a cough syrup if you once use it. People come long distances for the true FOLEY'S—over thirty years the leading remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchial and legrippe coughs.—George A. Gorgas, 16 North Third street, P. R. Station.—Adv.

A CENT A LOAF INCREASE

State Master Bakers' Association Recommends New Price for Staff of Life

Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 11.—E. Braun, chairman of the price committee of the Western Pennsylvania Master Bakers' Association, announced to-day that the committee had decided to recommend to the association an increase in the price of bread.

A cent a loaf, he said, would likely be tacked on the present price, making the small loaf six cents and the large loaf ten cents. The association must confirm the new price before it can be put officially into operation.

Miss Wharton's Fine House to Be Home and Hospital for Them

Philadelphia, Feb. 11.—The old Wharton residence at Wyomissing, near Reading, Pa., will become a home and hospital for the pet cats owned by Miss Susan Fishburn Wharton, who died there last week.

Miss Wharton will provide that the home she occupied shall be maintained for the pet cats until they have all passed away. It disposes of an estate valued at $50,000.

Miss Wharton was a great-grandchild of the first Governor of Pennsylvania.

Lincoln Tablet to Cost $3,000

Under the Adams bill, introduced in the House yesterday, providing for a tablet on the wall of the House of Representatives back of the Speaker's desk, containing the address by President Lincoln at the dedication of the National cemetery in Gettysburg, popularly known as Lincoln's Gettysburg address, the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings is authorized to obtain the tablet and have it placed in position. The amount appropriated is $3,000.

Child Birth No Barrier to Teaching

New York, Feb. 11.—The Board of Education revoked last night the suspension of Mrs. Lora H. Wagner, the teacher in the Tottenville High school, whose application for a leave of absence, prior to the birth of her child, was refused.

Similar action was taken in sixteen other teacher-mother cases.

Negro Gets 17 Years For Murder

Philadelphia, Feb. 11.—Convicted of murder in the second degree, Perry Young, colored, was sentenced to the Eastern penitentiary by Judge Little for not less than 17 years nor more than 20 years. The defendant fatally shot John Boyce, also colored, in an altercation over a colored woman at Darien street, near Girard avenue.

SUNDAY GOSPEL MEETING

The Rev. John M. Warden Will Deliver Address at Y. M. C. A.

The men's gospel meeting to be held under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, Second and Locust streets, Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, will be addressed by the Rev. John M. Warden, pastor of Bethany Presbyterian church. For many years Mr. Warden devoted all his time to evangelistic work and his address Sunday will be along that line. He is well known in this city, which is his home, and his friends will be glad to hear him on this occasion.

The musical attraction will be the well known association quartet, a company of fine singers. They will render appropriate selections. The praise service will be under the direction of the association chorister, W. H. Kautz. Doors will be open at 3 o'clock. A social session will precede the meeting in the lobby. The management extends a cordial invitation for all men to be present.

PLAN TO ABOLISH FEES

Neville Bill Would Place All County Officials on Salary Basis

The joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution, introduced in the House by Mr. Neville, affects all county officers who now receive fees, which includes those of Dauphin county. It provides that "every county officer shall receive a compensation for his services an annual salary, the amount of which shall be regulated by law, and all county officers who are or may hereafter be entitled to charge and collect fees shall pay over all such fees without deduction into the treasury of the county or state as directed by law."

It is contended that if this resolution becomes a part of the constitution by adoption by the people, every county officer, no matter in which office, who now receives fees, must pay them over to the county or state, retaining no part thereof, and he shall be paid a salary to be fixed by law.

HEAT WAKES MAN UP

Michael Murray Has Narrow Escape From Fire Cigarette Starts

Norristown, Pa., Feb. 11.—When Michael Murray awoke from a sound sleep in the dining room of his home, on East Main street, early yesterday morning, as he says, when he felt his watch getting hot in his vest pocket, he found himself in flames and the dining room in a blaze.

The fire department responded and Murray escaped with slight burns, although his clothing was nearly burned off his body. Another brother lost all his clothes.

The fire was caused by a cigarette butt carelessly thrown away by Murray.

Lebanon's Military Subjects

Lebanon, Feb. 11.—According to the figures of Robert B. Light, clerk to the County Commissioners, there are 8,716 men of military age available for duty in Lebanon county. A voucher of $1,735 was drawn in favor of Warden McKenty for the payment of the county's share of the cost of maintaining prisoners in the Eastern penitentiary during the year.

FEMINE BEAUTY

Maturity Has a Charm Greater Than That of "Sweet Sixteen"

There is a beauty quite apart from youth—the beauty of the mature woman. Some there are who maintain that beauty does not reach the zenith under the age of thirty-five or forty. In a measure this is borne out by the events of the antique past, which may likewise be paralleled with instances of our own day.

Helen of Troy appeared on the scene at the age of forty. Cleopatra was past thirty when she met Antony. Aspasia, married to Pericles when she was thirty-six, was a figure brilliant in her world for thirty years after. When Diane de Poitiers was past thirty-six she won the heart of Henry II., and he was but half her age.

Anne of Austria was thirty-eight when described as the most beautiful woman of Europe. Mme. Mar was heralded as the greatest of beauties at forty-five, and Mme. Recamier was at her best between the ages of thirty-five and fifty. Mme. de Maintenon was forty-three when united to Louis, and Catherine of Russia was thirty-three when she took her seat on the throne which she occupied for thirty-five years. All these women were world famous for their beauty and gave the direct to their toothless old saw that burred the power of "sweet sixteen." The dew of youth and complexion of roses, it must be admitted, sometimes combine in a face that is unmoving, irresponsible, utterly lacking in the expression which goes to the making of a perfectly molded visage.—Bohemian.

TWO POINTS OF VIEW

Who Had the Happier Lot, the Lady or the Laborer?

A Fashionable Woman, coming from the Opera in a racy nest of a Limousine, passed a group of Laborers at midnight. Machines, like terrible Animals, were burrowing into the Earth. Steam was hissing as if from the mouths of a million Serpents. Rocks flew in every direction. Torchlights flamed. There was the thunder of full labor. The Night Shift was in full swing.

And the Woman, glancing from the window at a certain Workman, for an instant thought:

"How I wish I had that brawny Laborer's strength and Joy of Life! How I envy him his Power, his physical perfection, the wonder of his Manhood, his freedom from the Shackles that bind me. He is his own master, while I am a slave—the slave of a Man I despise!"

At that moment the Laborer paused long enough by the deep Chasm where his Engine rocked to glance into the Motor as it sped by aim. And he thought:

"Oh, to be like her! To know Leisure and Wealth and Rest! To be free from Drudgery and Toil, to come and go as I pleased! To throw off the chains of Debt and Worry and have the days and nights stretch ahead of me like a Field of Flowers!"

But in another instant the Motor was gone. The Torchlights flared brighter than ever. And each had forgotten the other.—Charles Hanson Towne, in Judge.

ers," and their favorite organizations are those which assure an ostentatious funeral.

A mistress was remonstrating with her servant about belonging to one of them.

"Bonnie! don't you think it is mighty foolish to pay the 'Friends and True Mourners' society' 25 cents every month?"

"Now'm, Miss Ma'y, I don't. You see, dee ain't like some of de s'cieties; dee acts liberal, and don't skimp on nothin'. Dee gives you de finest kind of coffin, on makes a way for ev'body to git to your burial. En den, 'sides dat, dee gives you $20 at the grave, en you know $30 comes in mighty handy."—New York Post.
